Henry Clay's First Speech.

Henry Clay as a young man was extremely bashful, although he possessed uncommon brightness of intellect and tascinating address, without effort making the little he knew pass for much more. In the early part of his career he settled in Lexington, Ky., where he quainted with the poetry of Robert found the society most congenial, though the clients seemed somewhat recalcitrant to the young lawyer. He to his feet. Finding himself thus unexpectedly confronted by an audience he was covered with confusion, and began, as he had frequently done in

A Remarkable Marriage.

The marriage of Lady Randolph Churchill to Lieutenaut Cornwallis West on Saturday, in St. Paul's church, London, was certainly a most remarkable affair, considered from any standpoint in which one may choose to Laying aside the fact that Lady Randolph is now 48 years of age-while her husband is scarcely 25 and fully one year younger than Lady Randolph's oldest son-there seems to be nothing in the situation to warrant the transaction. On Saturday morning Lady Randelph Churchill, next to the Queen and the Princess of Wales, was undoubtedly the most influential woman in England. Her country and town houses were all that her ambition desired. Her income exceeded $20,000 per annum-quite as much as she can spend - and in marrying Lieutenant West she adds nothing thereto until after the death of his father, who is but six years Lady Randolph's senior, On top of all this, when Lady Randolph Churchill left St. Paul's church. after the ceremony, she left as "plain Mrs. West"-being bereft of her title, and having no higher standing in social or political circles in England than she that her social influence has been split in twain. -Ex.

A New Browing Story.

The well known preacher, writer and critic, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, delivered widow of one of the anarchists his lecture on Robert Browning recently in Philadelphia. The Saturday Evening Post tells how he was introduced by Rev. Charles Wood, pastor of the Walnut Street Presbyterian church, who said that he knew a story about Browning whih he doubted it even such an authority as Dr. Van Dyke was familiar with. It was the story of a young lady engaged to British officer. Whn she found out that he was not ac-Browning she immediately broke the engagement. Six months later the officer presented himself and asked to be examined on Browning. ## For Sunday Telegraph Service.

The following two letters are in reply to requests made of the various telegraphic services connecting Dawson with Skagway from the local Board of Trade through the secretary:

Dawson, Y. T., Aug. 9, 1900. F. W. Clayton, Esq , Sec. Board of Trade, Dawson.

Sir: I am in receipt of your communication of 4th inst. regarding a resolution adopted by the board, at their meeting of the 3d inst., having for its object the opening of the government telegraph office for business part of the day on Sunday.

Will you kindly convey to the board that it has been and always will be, the policy of the government telegraph to accommodate itself to any reasonable wishes of its patrons.

We were under the impression we were giving a satisfactory service by keeping the office open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. every week day, which hours are longer than those of any other public institution in Dawson.

In accordance with the wish of the board, however, commencing on Sunday next, August 12, this office will be open for business, from 9 a. m. 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. to 7 p. m. every Sun-

Will you also call the attention of the board to the tact that the government telegraph do not control the telegraphic connection between Skagway and Ben-board, that they conter with the management of the White Pass & Yukon Telegraph Co., and endeavor to have them meet us in the matter of Sunday connection, and prompt service when steamers arrive in Skagway.

Trusting the above will be satisfactory to the board. Respectfully, ALFRED B. CLEGG, Dawson, Y. T., Aug 9, 1900. Mr. F. W. Clayton, Secretary Board of Trade, Dawson, Y. T.

Local Manager.

Dear Sir: I have yours of even date herewith relative to telegraphic communication over our railroad company's line from the end of the Dominion Telegraph to Skagway, Alaska.

It will be the object of our company to facilitate all business interests in this field of operations. I am not aware been offered our company's line from the Dominion Telegraph. However, I will make arrrangements, upon my return to Skagway to have our office opened at such times on Sunday as will
