

THEY MADE THIS COUPLE HAPPY

Dodd's Kidney Pills doing Good Work Around Port Arthur.

Mr. Dick Souvey and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Cured Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 24.—(Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house. This has happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souvey, a farmer and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr. Souvey said:

My wife and myself have used Dodd's Kidney Pills and have found them a big benefit to our health. We had La Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold. Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health.

Use of Picture Post-Cards.

It is said that 45,000 picture post-cards were sold at a fashionable watering-place last year, says London Country Life. Why people should regard the taste for sending these cards as a "craze" it is difficult to see. It is very natural that those who are enjoying a holiday should wish to let their friends, especially children and young people, know what the places are like that they visit, and to give them some idea of their beauty and attractions. Very few people are good at writing descriptive prose in letters, and if they are, it takes too much time. Letter writing, during holidays is rather an unfair tax, as a rule, so they carry out picture post-cards, and for a shilling, can tell half their family and imitate friends more about the objects of interest and scenery than they could on reams of letter-paper. Children rejoice in receiving picture post-cards, as they carry out all the details which is so dear to them, and even the windows of the rooms where their friends sleep can be duly identified.

Those whom neglected coughs have killed were once as healthy and robust as you. Don't follow in their paths of neglect. Take

Shiloh's Consumption Cure

The Lung Tonic right now. It is guaranteed to cure. It has cured many thousands.

Prices: S. C. WELLS & Co., 208 25c. 50c. $1. Letroy, N. Y., Toronto, Can.

Snobbery and Real Estate.

The urban district council of Handsworth, near Birmingham, has decided that in future houses must be identified by numbers and not merely designated by high-sounding names. This practice in London gives much needless trouble to the postal authorities. "The whole thing would become intolerable if it were not so humorous," said a post office official to a London Express representative. "A humble individual like the First Lord of the Treasury has for years been quite content to have for his address No. 10 Downing street; Lord Rosebery is modest enough to pass his town life at 28 Berkeley square, and even Mr. George Bernard Shaw manages to exist at a residence known as nothing more pretentious than 10 Adelphi terrace. "But Mrs. FitzSmith rents a £30 house. Really it is 304, but under the reign of the Fitz-Smiths it becomes The Laurels. "Here are some progressive instances of house names:

Mont Blanc £30 Court Douglas 32 Peverel 40 The Deodars 50 Windermere 50 Loch Katrine 64

"I could go on forever. By the way, the wonder is that some of them do not go in for a little Latin. How full of tone would be such addresses as New Con. 'Ad Valorem,' 'Sub Judice,' 'Verb. Sap.' "There are needless possibilities in the work of the poor postman is immeasurably increased by this silly custom. Why cannot people be satisfied with a plain, straightforward number?"

Nothing Fast About Him.

Gladys (sighing)—Oh, dear, he hasn't proposed yet. Ethel—Well, what can you expect of a chap who never runs his auto over ten miles an hour.

Farming World

Two Years for $1.00 That's less than 1c. a week. The Farming World is the brightest, best Agricultural Newspaper and Home Magazine in Canada. Every page is full of interest to the farmer, the farmer's wife and the farmer's children.

Full of practical talks by practical men on Breeding, Feeding, and care of stock—Crops—Machinery, and other live topics. Pointers for dairymen and poultry raisers. Reliable market reports. A legal and veterinary question box. A religious page and one especially for children. Send $1.00 and receive the paper for two years; or let us send you a free sample copy. Address—THE FARMING WORLD, TORONTO, ONT.

STRIKING NEGRO FACTS.

United States Has More Than Any Other Country Except Africa.

Washington, D. C.: The final bulletin on the negro population issued to-day by the Census Bureau, shows that there are in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico 9,204,531 negroes, probably a larger number than is found in any other country except Africa. Though the centre of negro population has moved steadily southward since 1790, there is a notable increase in the colored population of northern cities. Washington city has the largest negro population of any city, it being 86,702, or nearly one-third of the city's total population. Baltimore is next, with 79,258 negroes, and New Orleans third, with 77,714.

Among the northern cities Philadelphia has the largest negro population, and the increase of negro population in Philadelphia is larger than in any other city in the world. In 1890 there were 30,371 negroes in Philadelphia. In 1900 the number had risen to 62,613. Greater New York has 60,666 negroes. The report indicates that between 11 and 16 per cent. of the negro population is believed to have some degree of white blood. The centre of the negro population is in De Kalb County, Alabama, about four miles from the western boundary of Georgia, having moved thence from Dinwiddie County, Virginia, 476 miles northeast, since 1790.

Over 77 per cent. of the negroes live in the country, against over 57 per cent. of the whites. Almost 90 per cent. of the negroes in continental United States are in the Southern States and three-tenths of them are in Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama. Negroes constitute about one-fifth of the city population of the Southern States. The district in which the proportion of negroes is greatest lies in the Mississippi alluvial region, along both banks of the lower Mississippi river. Five-eighths of the population is negro, the maximum being in Issaquena County, Mississippi, with more than 15 negroes to each white person. Negroes form one-third of the population in the south, both in cities and in country districts, while in the north they are about one-fortieth of the population, and one-ninth of the population of country districts. In the country districts of the south, excluding the population of the 242 cities which had at least 2,500 inhabitants both in 1890 and in 1900 the negro population increased from 1800 to 1900 over 16 per cent.; in the 242 southern cities as a whole they increased 21.7 per cent.

The largest number of negroes living in compact masses are found in certain urban centres, several of which lie outside the great cotton-growing States. The four each having over 75,000 negroes are: District of Columbia, co-extensive with Washington; Shelby Co., Tenn., containing Memphis; Baltimore City, Md., and Orleans Parish, La., co-extensive with New Orleans. Half the negroes in the United States are below 19 years of age. This medium age being four years below the whites. Their illiteracy is much more common in country than in city districts, and the females, as with the whites, are the more illiterate sex. Negro bread winners constitute 62.2 per cent. of all negroes at least 10 years of age. For whites the corresponding per cent. is 48.0 and for Southern whites 40.0. The relatively high per cent. for negroes is closely connected with the marked prevalence of female labor in that race. There are 27 occupations in which at least 10,000 negroes were reported as engaged in 1900. These occupations are: Domestic employment, 3,087,008 negroes, or over 85 per cent. of the aggregate of negro bread-winners. The total number of negroes reported by the twelfth census was 8,840,789. To this number may be added the 363,742 persons of pure or mixed negro blood in Porto Rico.

THE PEANUT.

Without a Rival in the Favor of the Multitude. We are told that the great doctrine of the solidarity of mankind is being enforced as never before by the discoveries of modern science. Medicines, economics, biology, physics, in their latest developments, teach us with hitherto unapproached force that all men and all things are so bound together that what affects one affects all. It is an impressive truth. Consider the case of man, the cotton crop and the peanut. Within the last few years the consumption of the peanut has vastly increased. The interesting legume has found its way over prejudice and contempt to a place of unchallenged pre-eminence in popular esteem. Sneers have not prevailed against it. Continually in the presence of the unnumbered multitude of the peanut hides at last its diminished front. Last year we broke the wrinkled shells of 5,000,000 bushels of pinders, and ate some billions of archaic "nuts." If essentially the choice of a plebeian fastid if the rich and fastidious prefer a daintier delicacy, the peanut is without rival in the favor of the multitude.

But now observe. The plant Arachis hypogaea demands an early spring, a hot and moist summer and a sandy, friable loam. But these are conditions required by another plant of great usefulness and value—namely cotton. With this staple at a normal value, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee have found it advantageous to devote at the expense of the satorial crop. But lately cotton has been going up, and the south is naturally planting it to the neglect of other crops; unhappily almost to the exclusion of the peanut. Thus we see that such an unimportant fact as the value per bale of cotton vitally affects human happiness in a remote particular. —Philadelphia Ledger.

DIDN'T LIKE NEW YORK.

Charles M. Russell, a Montana cowboy artist, who visited New Jersey recently, has returned to his Montana home, and in an interview says: "I'd rather live in a place where I know somebody and where everybody is somebody. The style in some of those New York saloons is something to remember. The bartender won't drink with you even. Now, I like to have the bartender drink with me occasionally, out of the same bottle, just to be sure I ain't getting poison. They won't even take your money over the bar. Instead, they give you a check, with the price of your drink on it, and you walk yourself 'f tisher trying to find the cashier to pay for it."

Signets

Not every kind of ring seems in keeping on a man's hand. Our Signet Rings however are at once handsome and characteristically masculine.

A special Gold Signet Ring set with Bloodstone is No 17705 at $7.00.

RYRIE BROS. "DIAMOND HALL."

118 to 124 Yonge Street TORONTO

The Cult of the Kite.

The reports of the bestowing of the Order of the Golden Kite on Japanese officers for conspicuous gallantry rather quaintly, sandwiched, as they generally are, between items of news which show how very much abreast of the times and Western ideas is the population in their physical earth. The idea that the kite is the character our forefathers were superior to ourselves, is due to the inveterate tendency of the human mind to idealize the past and to assume that everything was better than it is now in the good old days, and it is more justified in this particular respect than in any other. There were giants in those days just as there are giants now, a few of them, individuals, whose abnormal development is the result of a disease which, and morbid pathology has recognized and classified, but that there ever was a race of giants there is no reason whatever to suppose.

Who Knows Anything About "BANNIGER"?

All buyers, sellers and users of EDDY'S IMPERVIOUS SHEATHING PAPER are interested in this question

Will every reader of this enquiry "WHO KNOWS ANYTHING ABOUT BANNIGER" please drop a line on the subject to THE E. B. EDDY COMPANY, HULL, CANADA

Reel Estate by the Gallon.

"What did your property in Swamphurst cost you?" "Four dollars a foot."

"What'll you sell for?" "Oh, I'll let it go for $2 a gallon."

ENGLISH SPAVIN LINIMENT

Removes all hard, soft or calloused spavins and blemishes from horses, blood spavins, curbs, splints, ringbone, swellings, sprains; cures sore and swollen throat.

Will Study Human Nature. A new scientific society which, says the London Express, has for its object "the study of human nature" in its broadest sense, has been formed under the name of the Ethological Society.

THE CITY OF ISLANDS.

The city [of Venice] proper huddles its population of 163,000 within a circumference of seven acres. It is so built and bridged with artificial streets that one may walk where he will, and that is sure to be first to the Place of St. Mark. He takes the street route from his hotel, a passageway so narrow that his extended arms may touch the buildings on either side, winding reverently into the shopping district leading to the square, where booths of shell, bead ornament and every conceivable trinket to ensnare the beauty-lover are attractively displayed.

IMPORTANT RESULTS.

"What have you accomplished with your prolonged tests?" asked an inquisitive person. "Well, answered the Government chemist, "we have found out that noison every day for a period of several months, have a deleterious effect upon the human system."—Chicago Tribune.

A MASTERPIECE OF COMPRESSION.

According to the New York World, a prize was once offered for the shortest history of the causes and results of the Mexican war. The winner produced the following treatise:

Chapter I. Cause of the Mexican War. Texas. Results of the Mexican War. Texas.

IT BOIL THE WATER.

The Operation—Robs it of the Beneficial Germ.

Now comes a Paris physician who says that it is all wrong to boil drinking water, as the municipal doctors direct when there is a danger of typhoid fever epidemic. Professor Charrin, of the College of France, is the learned authority who is quoted as denouncing the popular theory that the fever germs being destroyed by cooking them well, the danger of sickness is avoided. Professor Charrin's doctrine is that in boiled water not only is the deadly microbe destroyed but also the microbes which even more than the dog or horse deserves to be called the friend of man. The beneficent microbe is that which assists at the digestion of such substances as cellulose and albumen. If he is boiled out, these irreducible substances set up irritations which end in enteritis and other maladies. Another eminent French authority M. Pages agrees with M. Charrin in saying that boiled water seriously impedes digestion and attacks the assimilative or typhoid fever, but the risk of typhoid is in any case very small, while, if it does save you, it exposes you to a host of other ailments no less mischievous. "If you do boil water," says M. Pages, "it is better to let it stand for some hours to the open air, and agitate it." This is probably to let the microbes all in again.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

Extenuating Circumstances. (Kansas City Star.) A Topeka jury awarded $5 for damages due to a negro who filled the role of "wild man" in a circus one week. The jury took into account that he set about $100 worth of raw meat during the packing house strike.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

PEOPLE MUST BE TOLD. A writer on advertising says it is the aim of nearly every business concern to have a special and original feature. "But when such a speciality shall be found it must be advertised. No article can sell itself without the aid of advertising."

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Speechless and Paralyzed.

"I had valvular disease of the heart," writes Mrs. J. S. Goode, of Truro, N. S. "I suffered terribly and was often speechless and partially paralyzed." One dose of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me relief, and before I finished one bottle I was able to go about. "To-day I am a well woman."

Both Talking at Once.

Mrs. Jenkins—I've been trying to talk to Mary over the telephone, but I couldn't understand half she said. Mr. Jenkins—You'll find it easier if you were to talk one at a time, my dear.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

A Modern Darby and Joan. (London Telegraph.) At yesterday's meeting of the Gloucester Board of Guardians, Mr. G. Bennett, workhouse master, stated that when the resolution of the board that aged couples on entering the institution could have a separate room to themselves was in force they asked every married couple over sixty if they would like to live together, and while some said "Yes," the majority replied "No."

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows.

After conquering Burma the British undertook to carry the great Kiangon bell, the third largest in the world, to Calcutta as a trophy, but dropped it overboard in the Langoon River, where it defied all efforts of the engineers to raise it. Recently the Burmese lifted the mass of metal from its muddy bed and triumphantly restored it to its old place.

Do you want to add $320 to your income?

It will only require a few minutes of your time every day to earn $300 a year. You can earn it with a Chatham Incubator. A No. 2 Chatham Incubator will hold from 100 to 120 eggs—according to size of eggs. Eighty chickens is a low average hatch—users of Chatham Incubators will tell you so. Chickens are always in demand and the supply is always short. Gives you an income of $300.00. Wouldn't that extra amount be useful to you? Best of all, you can buy a

Chatham Incubator without one cent of cash until October, 1905

The machine pays for itself many times over before that time. There couldn't be a fairer offer than this. We ship a Chatham Incubator to you at once, freight prepaid by us, and your first payment is not due until October, 1905. Write us today for full particulars. The Chatham Incubators and Brooders have every new improvement worth while in an incubator.

The incubators are made with two walls, inside with case of dry material that has been seasoned in our lumber yards. They are as solid as a rock and will stand any amount of usage for years. They are accepted by our officers and will be the Chatham Incubator bearing profits for you.

IT'S MANSON CAMPBELL CO., LIMITED DEPT. 33 CHATHAM, ONT.

Manufacturers of Chatham Incubators and Brooders, Campbell Fanning Mills, and Chatham Farm Scales

Distributing Warehouses at Montreal, Que., Brandon, Man., Calgary, Alta., New Westminster, B.C., Halifax, N. S.

Shirt waists and dainty linen are made delightfully clean and fresh with Sunlight Soap.

The "Labor Vote."

(Guntton's Magazine.) In referring to the labor vote it is very often understood to be an organized movement. This is an error. We find in the labor political movement, and supposedly representing it, the working men's clubs and socialists. These two forms of organization represent about all there is to the organized labor movement in politics. The remainder is without such affiliation and is governed by what ever directly affects each person. The labor organization political club, or what stands for it, does not amount to much. It is generally a shadow affair, out for office for a few of the promoters and a share of the "coin" for the remainder. The Socialist movement represents the serious voice and it has effected a tangible combination.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDRON, KIRWAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is sold in five-cent bottles. Price—75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

ISSUE NO. 45 1904.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for Children's Teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, cures the colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea.

NOVELTY MANUFACTURING CO.

Agents wanted for our specialties. Complete outfit does not exceed $2.00. All good sellers. Write 27 King street east, Toronto.

Increased Demand.

A cigarette company a year or so ago tried the experiment of a four-page advertisement in a leading newspaper in New York. Recently a member of the company said the effect was more than surprising; that for weeks they were wholly unable to meet the city demand, the increase of which was enormous.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDRON, KIRWAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is sold in five-cent bottles. Price—75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

English as Spoken in Ireland.

An English tourist was being driven on a jaunting car through the Donegal Highlands, and after a time the results of his observation came to the surface in the following query: "Driver! I notice that when you speak to your friends whom you meet on the road you invariably do so in Irish, but when you address your horse you do so in English. How is this?" To which came the retort: "Musha now thin. Isn't English good enough for him?"

Telephone Manners.

The majority of men, when they meet you on the street, or talk with you at office or shop, act and speak with the most becoming courtesy. Even if you are slightly deaf and have to be bawled at, they will do the bawling with good humor and gentlemanly patience. A man who is greatly rushed in his place of business, but if you step in he is not likely—unless a veritable bear—to show his teeth and growl. Courtesy is the rule, and rudeness is the exception.

Twitchy Muscles and Sleeplessness.

The hopeless heart sickness that settles on a man or woman whose nerves are shattered by disease can best be pictured in contrast with a patient who has been in the "depths" and has been dragged from them by South American Nerve. George Webster, of Forest, Ont., says: "I owe my life to it. Everything else failed to cure."

English as Spoken in Ireland.