

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?"

Loss of Appetite A person that has lost appetite has lost something besides—vitality, vigor, tone.

The way to recover appetite and all that goes with it is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion and makes eating a pleasure.

Thousands take it for spring loss of appetite, and every body says there's nothing so good as Hood's.

In his capacity as local Government Employment Agent, Mr. J. P. Lamb received about sixty applications for farm and domestic help, but those officials having charge of the allotment of immigrants, on learning that Athens was not on a trunk line of railway, sent all new arrivals to the provincial officials at Toronto. This action has caused surprise and dis-appointment to many in this district.

Nearly $1,000 worth of whiskey, wine and other beverages was poured out on the streets of Litchfield, Ill., recently, in the presence of thousands of spectators. As a result of the conversion of a saloonkeeper at revival meetings, barrels and bottles were smashed from a large dray, and the ex-saloonkeeper conducted the smashing. All the Protestant ministers of the city took a stand on the day, and when the liquor had been destroyed the vast crowd joined in singing "America."

A few weeks ago A. J. Trill of the Children's Aid Society sent Geo. J. Pipe, late of Athens, to Brantford where he was to be employed by a farmer who had adopted his sister. George didn't take kindly to the pursuit of agriculture and went to Brantford and thence to Brockville. Shortly after arriving in Brockville he was arrested on instructions received from Brantford, charged with stealing an overcoat, a belt and a pair of pants, and was taken to that city for trial.

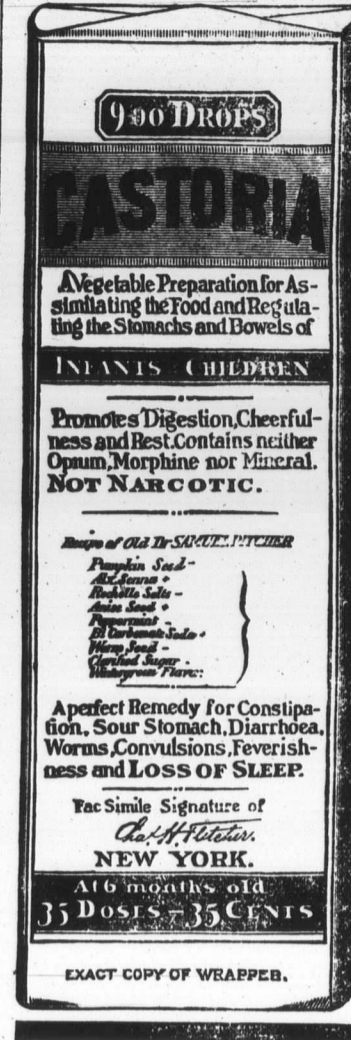

The editor sat in his office whence all but him had fled and he wished that every last dead beat was in his grave—stone dead. His mind then wandered far away to the time when he should die, and his royal editorial soul go soaring to the sky; when he'd roam the fields of paradise and sail o'er Jasper seas and all things glorious would combine his every sense to please. He thought how then he'd look across the big golf dark and drear, that'll yawn between his happy soul and those who swilled here, and when for water they would call, and in agony they'd wander, he'd shout to them: "Just quench your thirst with the dew that's on your paper."

DOCTORS USING PATENT MEDICINES

The Honest Physician is Anxious to Cure and Uses the Best Available Remedies.

The proposed legislation through the Dominion Parliament for the regulation of the manufacture and sale of patent or proprietary medicines is of the utmost importance, and it is receiving a great deal of attention, not only by the proprietary medicine manufacturers, but also by the leading doctors and druggists.

Psychine, pronounced Si-keen, is the greatest of tonics, building up the system, increasing the appetite, purifying the blood, aids digestion, and acts directly upon the throat and lungs, giving tone and vigor to the entire system.
