Many Going to Circus

Ringling Bros Attract Unusual Interest With Many Big Features.

Ringlin Brothers' circus is attractse of its many new features and the new aspect given the show by the great spectacle, "Josh of Are." The circus will be seen in Ogdensburg on Saturday. June 8 and this city and sarrounding country will be well representedias it always is when Linglings in excursion distance.

There will be a new parade in the forenoon three miles in length. The menagerie is practically twice as big COURT HOUSE SQUARE - BROCKVILLE as it was last year and contains many specimens of strange animal life new to American 2008. Audience will be entertained by 375 of the greatest of Europe's circus artists. Chief among stars who are exploiting novelti and sensational acts are: the Ty-Bell sisters, known as "The Human Butterflies, whose remarkable aerial performance was talk of Europe last winter: Carlos Caesaro, known as "the man with the iron head," the great Roon ey family equestrians, the Castrillon, the Hines-Kimball and the Florence families of aerobats; Joseph Le Fleur, who does a backward dive from the dome of the tent: the Schu man peforming horses, three herds of trained elephants that are new to this country, and Capt. Huling's two troupes of trained s als and sea-lions, There are many more big acts. Novelty and fres ness are the keynote of the performance and there are fifty clowns to keep the audience in con-

The great feature of the show is of course the newly added spectacle, "Joan of Arc," with a trainload of special scenery, cos umes and stage properties and a cast of 1,200 charac ters. There is also a ballet of 300 dancing girls, a chorus of 400 voices and an orchestra of 100 soloists. This is the greatest dramatic and spectular production ever presented in America enacted on a specially built stage bigger than a hundred ordinary theatres. It is made portable so that each morning. This great entertainment is given as an introductory to the regular circus performance and entails no extra charge of admission.

"Joan of Are" tells a masterful story from French history in a thrilling and scene the audience is held spellbound by the realism of the scene, while the enactment of the coronation of Charles VII is beyond question the most sumptuous and inspiring stage picture ever seen.

(June 9. - Jas. 11: 22.) If with reverent attention We have harkened to the word,

For the message we have heard; Faith indeed must come by hearing— Hearing God's own word, forsooth, Character we must be rearing On the sacred rock of truth

And if faith but lead to praying

By God's grace so freely given, And we offer love's oblation

But we must be up and doing, Proving thus our taith and love,— Truth by faithful work pursuing,
