

HIGHEST PRAISE FOR CANADIAN SOLDIERS

Sir Jas Aikins Alludes to Bravery of Men from the Dominion

WAR CONFLICT OF GIANT EMPIRES

Into Vortex of Which All the Important Nations are Drawn

WORDS OF KAISER

"Army is the Foundation of the Social Structure of the Empire"

In the course of his remarks at the patriotic concert in the Armory on Monday, June 21, Sir James paid a glowing tribute to the valor of the 8th Battalion, which consists of the 99th Manitoba Rangers and the 90th Winnipeg Rifles, at the battle of Langemarck. The Federal member for Brandon said in part:

While we are this evening pleasantly engaged we cannot for a moment forget the purpose of our meeting, which is to give to each of us an opportunity of making some contribution to the comfort of our citizen soldiers, gone or going to the battle front, and to the alleviation of their sufferings. It was for this purpose that the talented and kind hearted ladies and gentlemen from Winnipeg came to give us this excellent program of music and to them we now express our thanks. We would indeed be lacking in a sense of duty if we did not do our best to cheer and help our brave brothers at the front. It was for the love of us, the love of Canada and the bright hopes of our country that, when the call came for defenders to risk their lives, they in courage said: "Here am I, send me." They knew many would never return, they knew they might never again look upon their happy homes or into the eyes of their loved ones or the bright Canadian scenes and sunshine which they for the last time saw when the transports carried them beyond the horizon. Yet, with stout hearts they went, facing death, those life sacrificing heroes that we might live in freedom. Shall we forget them? And do nothing? Should we be as craven as they were courageous? As self regarding as they were unselfish? To those who have fallen. On them we see the white robe of sacrifice, the fadest crown of kindly character, for "greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." They did so for us.

Conflict of Giant Empires

This war is not a struggle of pygmies, but a conflict of giant empires and into the vortex of which the important nations are being drawn. Under it, the very earth seems to rock and tremble. This is no struggle for trifles but an awful contest between civilization and principles and ideals, the result of which will be the preservation of human happiness and progress, or of human despair and recession. The conflict is inevitable, for were the British Empire and its Allies overthrown, a German government of evil would prevail over all the earth. Ah that the German Empire and its people applauded when they read that aphorism of Bernhardi's as expressing the wish of the people: "World Power or Ruin."

German Coronation Hymn

This is further confirmed by the hymn sung this year in Bruges Cathedral at the anniversary of the Kaiser's coronation:

By shell from sea by bomb from air,
Our greeting shall be sped,
Making each English homestead
A mansion of the dead.
And even Grey will tremble
As falls each iron word:
'God punish England, brother,
'Yea, punish her, O Lord.'

Parliaments Contrasted

The German Empire means an autocratic Kaiser appointing and dismissing at will his Chancellor and his Executive Ministers, controlling the Bundesrat who alone can initiate legislation and who can dismiss the Reichstag or popular Parliament at will. Imagine the Senate dismissing the House of Commons, the people's assembly! The British Empire stands for free government wherein the people make their laws and administer them.

Germany's Warfare Methods

Sir James then briefly alluded to the German methods of warfare, the dropping of bombs upon defenceless villages populated by non-combatants, the use of deadly gases, the sinking of passenger ships, the poisoning of wells, the misuse of the Red Cross and the atrocities in Belgium as revealed in the Bryce report, and continued:

Words of Kaiser

"With grave anxiety I placed the crown upon my head. I met doubt and the whole world misjudged me. But one had confidence in me, that is the army, and relying upon the army and trusting in God I began my reign."

The Absolutely Inviolable Dependence of the War Lord is in the Army, the Inheritance which Descends from father to son, from generation to generation. So we are bound to gether I and the army. Thus we are born for one another.

People Approve Statements

These statements are still approved by the people. Does Canada wish to come under the control of a military tyrant? Or does it not prefer to depend upon its stout-hearted and intelligent citizens who will stand in the ranks themselves and, dying, die gloriously or winning have a victory the like of which has never before been recorded.

Claim to Divine Help

"Remember the German people are the chosen of God and on me as German Emperor the spirit of God has descended. I am His Weapon, His Vizier, His Sword. Woe to the disobedient! Death to the cowards and unbelievers. There is only one master in this country. That am I. Who opposes me shall I crush to pieces."

Plea for Freedom

Does Canada desire to have the government of the Kaiser prevail in it? If we do not, we must assert our freedom through it be written by the blood of our bravest men. The British Empire has always stood for a government of kindness for its people and benevolence toward the world and based upon the principles of Christianity, the central theme of which is love. The greatest happiness in human life results from loving and being loved. On the other hand, the German Empire is dominated by hate with all its brood of evil, unbridled ambition, covetousness, lack of honor, disregard of others' rights, self gratification, cruelty and violence. This is illustrated by Lissa's "Hymn of Hate," particularly toward England.

Simply the expression of an individual, but from different parts of Germany we hear it applauded. I quote Dr. Julius Schiller, of Nurnberg, who describes himself as a royal Protestant pastor:

"Before the war (the pastor writes) it was considered immoral to hate; now, however, Germans know that they not only may, but must hate.
"It was high time that we tore the mask from England's face.
"We, who are fighting for truth and right with clean hands and a clean conscience, must have Him on our side Who is stronger than the strongest battalion."
German Coronation Hymn
This is further confirmed by the hymn sung this year in Bruges Cathedral at the anniversary of the Kaiser's coronation:
By shell from sea by bomb from air,
Our greeting shall be sped,
Making each English homestead
A mansion of the dead.
And even Grey will tremble
As falls each iron word:
'God punish England, brother,
'Yea, punish her, O Lord.'

Will the prayer "God punish England," which means the British Empire, be answered, when the British Empire has been endeavoring to teach through the world the commandments of God and their proper observance? If the British teaching is true, then who will punish Germany?

Who will send that nation that has been guilty of all these heinous offences to its proper destination? The Almighty punishes nations as nations on earth, but for that purpose uses human agency, and to that end He spoke to the charts of the

IRVING WINS GREAT GAME FROM MAROONS

Three Errors in Ninth Inning Enabled Visitors to Pull Out a 5-4 Victory

SOME GREAT FAIL

Battling into the ninth frame with a one run lead, after a hitting rally in the eighth which had netted three runs, the Maroons Monday permitted the Irving athletes to cross the plate three times in the last session, and Irving won the most exciting game played here in years by 5-4. It was a battle royal all the way, with both teams playing the easiest kind of ball and some few hundred fans witnessed the treat of the season.

The Irvingites secured an easy lead. Simpson and Williams both were chased home when McCallum let Murphy's single roll through his legs. The Maroons came back with a tally in their half of the first, when after Scott had died by way of the strike-out, Williams scratched a hit and McCallum's timely single sent him home.

Thereafter it was one, two, three order, as both twirlers were in grand form. The Maroons had several splendid chances to score, especially so in the fifth, when with one down the red-clads loaded the bases. Everything was set for a run, but Stoetzel tightened right up and ending the seeming rally by striking out both Williams and McCallum.

Irving broke into the score column again in the eighth, Murphy figuring very prominently in this effort. But the real excitement came in the Maroons' half when McCallum scored on Hornbrook's hit and Brown and Cornell gave the Maroons a one run lead when both scored on Burgess' single to centre.

The visitors came back strong in their half, when two errors by Scott, coupled with Hornbrook's error, gave them three runs, to which the red-clads could not reply in their final session at the bat.

Both twirlers were in remarkably good form throughout and hits were few and far between. Stoetzel proved to be in a class by himself as far as strike-outs were concerned, by whiffing fourteen Maroons. On the other hand, Cornell showed all his seed and although he only fanned six, yet had his support been air-tight in that final spasm, he would have had another victory tucked away in his belt.

BOX SCORE

Maroons AB R H PO A E
Scott, 2b 6 0 0 4 1 2
Williams, 1b 1 1 1 5 0 1
McCallum, c.f. 5 0 2 1 4 1
Matheson, r.f. 3 0 0 0 0 0
Crawford, r.f. 2 0 0 0 0 0
Brown, s.s. 3 1 0 1 1 1
Melms, c. 3 1 2 5 1 0
Hornbrook, l.f. 4 0 1 0 0 1
Cornell, p. 3 1 0 0 6 0
Total 38 4 8 26 13 7
Babb out; hit by batted ball.
Irving AB R H PO A E
Simpson, s.s. 4 2 2 1 0 3
Warren, 3b 5 0 1 0 1 1
Williams, r.f. 5 1 0 1 0 0
Murphy, c. 4 3 2 16 1 1
Everett, lb 5 0 1 6 0 1
Stoetzel, p. 5 0 2 0 3 0
Blehl, 2b 5 0 0 2 1 0
Babb, c.f. 4 0 1 1 0 0
Walsh, r.f. 2 0 0 0 0 0
Houghton, l.f. 2 0 0 0 1 0
Total 41 6 9 37 7 6
Three base hits, Melms. Bases on balls, off Cornell 2; off Stoetzel, 2. Hit by pitched ball, Brown. Struck out by Stoetzel, 14; by Cornell, 5. Double play, Cornell to Brown to Williams. Stolen bases, Brown 2, McCallum 1. Umpire, Wilson.

NOTES ON THE GAME

It was a hard game to lose, after that battling rally in the eighth.

Scott's work at third was brilliant up till the ninth, when two easy chances slipped through his hands and started the aerial ascension.

Won't somebody please stop Mr. Murphy? The big receiver of the visitors came through with two more timely bingles again last night, besides catching a great game.

But at that Melms, the Maroons' catcher, wasn't far behind Murphy. In three trips to the bat he collected two safe swats, one a three bagger to right field and came in with the tying run in the eighth.

The Maroons pulled off a nice double in the sixth, which was very opportune. Cornell took Blehl's grounder, threw to Brown who forced out Stoetzel at second, while Brown's peg to first had Blehl beaten by two feet.

With Cornell in the box, the Irving runners hug first base as if they were glued to it. "Happy's" deceptive delivery has caught so many, that they considered Williams, good company and there wasn't one attempt to steal second all evening.

ST. GEORGE'S FALL EASILY BEFORE ST. MATTHEW'S

Four of St. Matthew's Batsmen Gathered More Runs than St. George's Eleven

SOME GREAT FAIL

St. George's and St. Matthew's met Monday on the College grounds in the local cricket league. St. Matthew's won the toss and sent their opponents to bat, Scott and Evans bowing to Hawes and Sturdy.

Evans was in good form and soon got rid of Sturdy. Hawes batted carefully for nineteen. Ray scored ten very quickly, one four and one six. C. Waters carried his bat for a useful thirteen. Otherwise the St. George's batting was featureless and totalled sixty-five.

Barnes and Evans opened the batting for St. Matthew's. They both batted well, Barnes particularly making some nice drives, one beautiful drive for six right into the cottages on 24th street. He scored very fast and was at home to all the bowling.

When he reached thirty he gave a difficult chance to Clark. This was the only blemish to a magnificent innings.

Unfortunately for St. Matthew's, they are very shortly to lose the services of Barnes, as it is his intention to enlist and do his bit for the country.

Evans made a name for himself by his brilliant bowling, fielding and steady batting.

Wartman carried his bat for nine and batted well.

The honors of the game go to Barnes, Evans and Gowan for St. Matthew's and to Hawes, Ray and Waters of St. George's.

SCORE:

St. George's
G. Sturdy, b Evans 0
R. Hawes, b Gowan 19
L. V. Ray, b Evans 10
H. Laycock, b Evans 10
S. H. McKay, b Gowan 3
E. H. Clarke, c Nunn, b Scott 2
E. D. Mitchell, c Williams, b Scott 4
C. Waters, not out 13
W. G. Oakey, b Scott 1
S. Windle, c Evans, b Scott 4
W. D. Anderson, b Evans 2
Extras 6
Total 65

St. Matthew's
A. F. Barnes, c Ray, b Hawes 48
Jack Evans, b Ray 6
T. C. Scott, c McKay, b Ray 3
D. Wartman, not out 9
Extras 5
For three wickets 70
Nunn, J. Ellis, b Gowan, E. E. Townsley, T. O. Morgan, A. Williams and E. Qualton did not bat.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS DO THEIR PART NOBLY

Recent reports bring to light the fact that Canadian volunteers have been accorded the honor of the difficult and perilous positions in the battle line, for so well have they acquitted themselves that it has become the rule rather than the exception for our soldiers to form the van in the attack and the rear guard of the masterly retreats.

What the Germans lacked in knowledge of the formidable Canadian foe, men they have fast picked up, and all along the line where sons of Canada are entrenched it has become noticeable that German forces have been doubled and even trebled for attack upon our front.

Such valor sheds new glamor over Canadian tradition, new reason for patriotic Canadians to jubilate, to hang from every housefront the flag which snaps in the breeze over our own warriors where the shells fly thickest—the Union Jack.

It was indeed a wise provision by The Sun to secure the splendid flag outfits mentioned in the announcement on another page of today's issue for distribution to its readers on practically a presentation basis.

There's no reason why everyone should not own one or more flag outfits for coat has practically been eliminated, and the outfit consisting of a large fast colored tunting banner, brass ferrule jointed pole, window socket, and halyard is so complete that it necessitates the purchase of nothing whatsoever to enable patriotic citizens to display the flag on their housefronts.

ROUNTHWAITE S. S. PICNIC

A very pleasant day was spent in Lake Clement, when the Presbyterian Sunday School and Christian Endeavor of Rounthwaite held their annual picnic at that lake. Arrangements were made to meet at Rounthwaite at eleven a.m. when all proceeded to the lakeside, where lunch was served at one o'clock. The day was perfect and the boats were soon all in use. Races were held in the afternoon and were enjoyed by both children and grown-ups. Supper was served at six o'clock, after which all proceeded to the baseball ground where a league game was played between Rounthwaite and Hayfield, resulting in a score of 6-7 in favor of Hayfield.

MINNEAPOLIS MAN IS UNABLE TO DIVORCE WIFE KEEPING SALARY

Minneapolis, Minn., June 29—Jos. H. German is still a married man today. He sued for divorce, alleging that his wife refused to give him back sufficient money for his expenses, when he turned over his weekly pay check to her and further alleged that she accepted attentions from another boarder.

"Get a club for the other boarder, and keep enough money yourself for your expenses," was the rejoinder of Judge Hais in refusing a divorce.

TENNIS AT RAPID CITY

At the Rapid City tennis club tournament, Mrs. Hindson and L. Woolcombe played the finals against Miss Whyte and T. W. Neelands, the score being 6-4, 3-6 and 6-1 in favor of the former. The tea which was served by the ladies of the Red Cross Society was much enjoyed by all the members.

The ladies' tournament was played off during the evenings and the finals won by Mrs. Stone and Miss Power.

BIG LEAGUE RESULTS

NORTHERN LEAGUE
Won Lost Pct
Fort William 25 17 .622
St. Boniface 25 19 .568
Fargo 24 20 .545
Virginia 23 23 .500
Grand Forks 21 24 .467
Duluth 20 25 .444
Superior 18 24 .429
Winnipeg 19 26 .422

Yesterday's Games
Winnipeg 2, Superior 1.
St. Boniface 5, Fort William 2.
Grand Forks 3, Virginia 0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago 24 24 .500
St. Louis 33 29 .532
Pittsburgh 29 26 .527
Philadelphia 30 27 .526
Boston 23 31 .475
New York 25 28 .472
Brooklyn 26 33 .441
Cincinnati 24 31 .436

Yesterday's Games
Boston 2, New York 3-5.
Chicago 2, Cincinnati 3.
Brooklyn 4, Philadelphia 0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago 42 21 .672
Detroit 38 27 .582
Boston 32 33 .582
Washington 29 27 .518
New York 32 28 .533
Philadelphia 23 39 .371
Cleveland 22 38 .367
St. Louis 22 38 .367

Yesterday's Games
Cleveland 3, Detroit 6.
Philadelphia 0, Washington 2.
St. Louis 2, Chicago 4.
New York 3-3, Boston 2-6.

FEDERAL LEAGUE

St. Louis 35 23 .609
Kansas City 37 27 .578
Chicago 37 28 .569
Pittsburgh 33 26 .559
Newark 38 31 .516
Brooklyn 29 35 .453
Baltimore 24 37 .393
Buffalo 22 43 .338

Sunday's Game
Kansas City 1-4, Newark 0-6.

Yesterday's Games
Chicago 10, Brooklyn 5.
St. Louis 7, Baltimore 6.
Pittsburgh 8, Buffalo 5.

NORTHWESTERN

Vancouver 1, Seattle 0.
Spokane 5, Aberdeen 8.
Victoria 3, Tacoma 9.

CANADIAN

Hamilton 4, London-1.
Brantford 5, Ottawa 6.
Guelph 4, St. Thomas 0.

Of Interest to Women

MAGAZINES FOR SEWELL CAMP

Any citizens having current magazines to spare are asked to kindly send them to the soldiers in camp at Sewell. The Brandon chapter I. O. O. F. will take them in at their rooms, thirty-eight Smith Block, on Wednesday and Friday afternoons, and will arrange to have them sent to Sewell.

MRS. NELSON ROGERS

A well known resident of the Forest district passed away on Thursday night in the person of Mrs. Nelson Rogers. Mrs. Rogers was visiting at Elstow, Sask., when her fatal illness overtook her. She leaves her husband and numerous relatives to mourn her loss.

The funeral will be held at one o'clock Saturday from Campbell and Campbell's undertaking parlors to Humesville cemetery.

HELD ENJOYABLE HIKE

The members of the Victoria Ave. Methodist Epworth League held a very enjoyable hike to the home of one of their members, Miss Olive Lawson, Monday evening, where their usual service was conducted. About twenty members were present and an altogether delightful evening was spent. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, the party returning about 10:30.

SUCCESSFUL TEA

The following result of the examination of Miss Mary McKenzie's pupils, which was conducted by Mr. Viggo Kilhl, of Toronto, at the residence of Mr. E. Johnson, 7th street, for the Toronto Conservatory of Music, was received in the city on Saturday: Miss Hazel Payne, junior piano—pass; Miss Marjorie Cornell, primary—first class honors; Miss Marion Hall, elementary—honors; Miss Marjorie McKenzie, elementary—pass.

LAWN TEA A SUCCESS

Although the weather did not permit of the holding of the lawn tea, in aid of the First Methodist church, at Mr. and Mrs. J. Burchill's residence, in the afternoon Thursday, it was held during the evening, and as a consequence the ladies in charge are highly pleased with the results.

A profusion of flags and bunting, artistically arranged on the spacious grounds formed an effective background for the pretty scene, which was lighted by the soft glow of Japanese lanterns. A long table, covered with the refreshments of the lawn, and was prettily arranged with wild roses. Here Mrs. D. H. Scott presided, Mrs. D. A. Reesor cutting ices, while the young lady assistants were: Misses Ruth Hughes, Kathleen Reesor, Olive Laird, Helen Hall, Aleta and Althera Burchill, Mrs. Percy Hughes and Mrs. J. D. McGregor. The guests were seated at small tables, which were also decorated with roses and carried out the pretty color scheme of pink and green.

A splendid musical program rendered in the house was very much enjoyed by all. The doors were thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June 27th, when Miss Lillian, only daughter of Sergt-Major and Mrs. Jas Fletcher, of Dauphin, and Mr. Percy Beauchamp, the eldest son of Dr. Beauchamp, also of Dauphin, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Quantion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming suit of cream serge, the coat opening over a pretty waist of cream duchess satin. Her smart hat thrown open and those who were unable to gain access, owing to the large attendance, were thus enabled to listen from the verandah and the lawn. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Miss Aleta Burchill, Miss Nabel Simpson and Mr. McGuinness, a piano solo by Miss Helen Hall and selections on the cello by Miss Mary Dickson.

BEAUCHAMP-FLETCHER
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's church, June