MILLERTON

Derby Superior school. The closing examinations of the Derby Superior School were held on Friday afternoon, June 26, and reflected credit upon the teachers and pupils of both departments.

A lengthy programme rendered in a very efficient manner was listened to with much pleasure by the very large number of parents and visitors in attendance. Two numbers worthy of especial mention were The Color's Drill, by nine girls, and "The Birch Canoe" from Hiawatha, by five boys, four of whom appropriately represented the four necessary trees and the fifth, the Indian builder.

At the close of the programme badges that had been awarded by Principal E. T. Crocker to the leaders in the different grades of the advanced departments were presented by the Rev. Mr. Esty to the following:

- Grade IV. Charlie Nelson. " VI. Genevieve Carruthers. " VII. Harry Crocker. " VIII. Lily Bell. " IX. Margaret Miller.

and to Miss Lily Bell a silver medal for superior work in Grade VII over all in their respective grades.

The retiring principal was then presented with a beautiful dress suit case, a gold fob watch guard and the following address:

Dear Teacher: The pleasure of offering you, in the name of the pupils of your department, these slight tokens of our esteem and regard now devolves upon us.

To be permitted to do so is a source of very much pleasure since our sincere delight expressed in so doing may make some amends for our many shortcomings.

We are not now addressing you as our teacher, but as our trusted and very tried friend for how often have we tried your temper and forbearance! We will ever keep your memory enshrined in our hearts and shall look back to our school days not as a period of penance but instead one of most pleasant progress since by your kindness and amiability you have so rendered it. These slight tokens we offer you are of no intrinsic value but they are rich in gratitude and respect. Please accept them and with them our united desires that your life will ever be one of happiness.

Signed in behalf of the school, URSULA FLETT, BESSIE PARKER.

Mr. Crocker, taken entirely unawares, replied shortly expressing deep gratitude for the expression of friendship contained in the pupil's address, assuring them that they had given slight cause for other than the display of good feeling and trusting that they would remain faithful to themselves and to the school where together they had so happily toiled.

Commendations from the school officers and parents, followed by the National Anthem closed the afternoon's recital.

STRATHADAM.

Miss Troy held her semi-annual examination on Friday, 26th. Twenty visitors were present. The school room was tastefully decorated in green and wild flowers. The pupils were examined in reading, writing, arithmetic, geography and grammar and acquitted themselves very creditably in the various branches more especially the grammar exercise. One feature of the exercises was the work done by the primary class which was a great credit to their teacher.

A short programme of dialogues and recitations were interspersed between lessons.

The following prizes were given, Sara McCollum and Ethel Whitney, attendance; James McCollum, Effie Goodfellow, Josie Hutchison and Percy McKay, highest marks in class. The pupils then presented their teacher with an Ebony Toilet Set and read the following address:

My dear Miss Troy, We, the pupils of your school, have learned with regret of your intention of leaving us. We one and all feel that you have won a place in our hearts which will be hard to fill. You have made our lessons pleasant to us. So pleasant that it would be ungrateful to call them tasks.

We know that we have often tried your temper and forbearance but you have dealt gently with us in our waywardness, teaching us by example as well as precept the advantages of kindness and self-control. We will never forget you and when memory re-calls our school days our hearts will warm toward you as they do today.

The pleasant duty has been assigned me by my schoolmates of presenting you this token of an evidence of our lasting esteem, friendship and love. When in future days you look upon this memento let it be a pleasant token of the deepest love and reverence of our young hearts.

Miss Troy made an appropriate reply, thanking both pupils and parents for the kindness which prompted the gift. Mr. John Light waists and dainty linen are made delightfully clean and fresh with Sunlight Soap.

Menzies then gave the children a treat of fruit.

Speeches were made by Mr. J. P. McOlm, trustee, Mr. Menzies and Mrs. Rae who expressed regret at losing so efficient and worthy a teacher who in the two years and a half she has been in the school has endeared herself to both parents and pupils.

CARAQUET.

CARAQUET June 20.—The Caraqueet Tennis club which was lately organized has proved a success. It now has a membership of 24 and each member is keenly interested in the game.

A building and field have been rented from the C. R. C. Co. and a court laid out, the building being used as a club house.

At the organization meeting Mr. E. T. B. Young was elected President, Mrs. C. Hubbard, Vice-President, Miss Josephine Rive, Secretary, Mr. P. Weary, Treasurer. A managing committee and a social committee were appointed. Miss Dwyer President of managing committee and Mrs. R. H. L. Young President of social committee. It was also resolved that refreshments should be served every Wednesday evening at the club house.

On Wednesday evening the 17th inst. the club met at the residence of the President, where a fine programme of music, songs, readings and recitations was carried out.

A large number of the members are on the court every evening and are rapidly becoming experts.

The closing exercises of the Caraqueet college took place on Tuesday the 24th inst. A concert was given by the students in the evening. A large number filled the Hall.

Mr. Sheasgreen and bride spent a week here visiting Mrs. E. Fitzpatrick.

Tell me, pleaded the artless maid, wherein lies the secret of the art of conversation?

The sage affected the attitude he was wont to assume when in the act of imparting wisdom and said: My child, listen.

I am listening, breathlessly answered she.

Well, my child, he rejoined, that is the art of conversing agreeably.

Strength and vigor come of good food duly digested. "Faree", a ready to serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

I dare say, she remarked acridly sitting up in bed when he stumbled in at 2:30 in the morning, that you have been sitting up with a sick friend or attending a lodge meeting?

Neither one, he replied, I've been playing poker and I sloughed off thirty-five good bones. Where's my night-shirt?

KNEW DR. CHASE IN 1867

One of Dr. Chase's oldest patients in Canada is Mr. G. W. Parish of Sturgeon Bay, St. Croix Co., Wis., whom he cured of kidney disease in 1867 by means of his now celebrated Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. Parish writes that he does not think there is a medicine half so good and that he always keeps Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house as a family medicine.

George—I see nothing for us but to elope. Do you think your father would forgive us?

Ethel—I'm sure he would.

George—How can you be sure?

Ethel—I felt a little nervous on that score and I asked him.

CANNOT DO WITHOUT IT

Once Dr. Chase's Ointment becomes known, it is indispensable in the home because of the scores of ways in which it can be used. While this ointment is best known as a positive cure for eczema, salt rheum, itching piles, and the most torturing "itchiness" of the skin, it is also unapproached as a treatment for chafed, irritated skin, pimples, blackheads, powdered skin, scalds, burns and sores of every description.
