BEFORE MAGISTRATE JELFS.

Fighting.

There was another light docket at the Police Court this morning. James Brennen and William Connors were charged by the latter's father, Jeremiah Connors, with stealing a pair of shoes and a coat. The case had not progressed very far before it was discovered to be metally a case of mitstealing a pair of sinces and a case had not progressed very far before it was discovered to be merely a case of mistaken identity, the prisoners having pawned a pair of shoes which Jerry thought was his property. It was clearly shown that neither Brennen ner William Connors had anything to do with the theft, and the charge was dismissed.

on a Maliway Car.

There was considerable excitement at Orllia station when it became known last evening on the arrival of the train that a Great Dane bear hound belonging to Hon. W. E. The carcase of the magnificent brute was brought back to Hamilton to-day.

Other advectisements, referring to Sunday or Monday's engagements or business, which ordinarily appear on Saturdays, must also be ready in time for Friday's issue.

Take two pieces of colored paper, one red and the other green, and cut from each a cross. Place the crosses side by side, almost touching, on a dark background. Then look at them steadily, at a distance of about three inches from the eyes, and three crosses will appear, the third and middle one looking white.

"His Nibs and His Nebs."

To-morrow night, Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening, the above play will be presented at the Grand. The Boston Herald, of May 30th, says: Two big and lenoes attended yesterday's performances by Nibbe's French burlesque company at the Lyceum Theatre, and applause and laughter were frequent. The march of the firemen, participated in by the Gordon sisters, Bessle Mills, Ethel Esgleton, Mabel Howard, Nellie Frey, Etta Ackley and other members of the company, proved a brilliant feature of the show. The costumes are natty, and the girls are precty of face and form. The ollo, which was given between the two lively little extravaganzas, was very enjoyable.

Sergeant McMahen and F. C. English Store.

An especially large load of pine wood was being driven up King street this foreneen. When the corner of James street was reached, one of the horses stopped on a live rail and received an electric shock, which put considerable "go" into him. The other animal, seeing the surroundings, seconded the resolution of his mate be run away and both started off at a very respectable gallop up King street. The driver, sitting on the top of the load, began to sway backward and forward, and seemed to be devoting more attention to his personal safety than to the reins. As the weed was slipping, the teamster, of course, was seriously handicapped in controlling his team. Sergeant McMahon and Police Constable English took in the situation and succeeded in bringing them to a standstill. The result might have been serious had it not been for the timely intervention of the officers, who were subsequently highly complimented by Mayor Blaicher, he having witnessed the incident.

The various standing committees of Grand Lodge, on which the work of the session largely rests, were appointed by the chairman. The time of the morning session was consumed almost entirely in the discussion of a report on the official organ of the order. It was resolved to no longer continue the Canada Citizen as the official organ, the experiment of a year ago having proved a failure. In lieu of an organ, it was resolved to use the daily and weekly press of the country, the work in connection being assigned to the executive.

at Shea's a Grand Success.

The store was crowded all day with a purchasing and well-pleased gathering. The Irish linen counter is the great centre of attraction. The prices in dress goods are reduced away down—in many cases to one-quarter from original prices. Prints, parasols and blouse waists are also causing quite a sensation. When out shopping call and look though; it will pay you if requiring anything in the dry goods line.
