MILLS TO START
It is said that some of the mills on the river will start operation either this week or the first of next week.

CALLED ON W. S. LOGGIE M. P.
Prime Minister Meighen came to Chatham on Tuesday, en route to Ottawa, and spent an hour at the bedside of Mr. Loggie, M. P.

JUNE DRIVE
Messrs. A. D. Farrar & Co. have commenced a June Drive to secure 300 new Customers. They intend making it worth while for all who take advantage of this drive.

TARVIA ROAD
The tarvia road on the other side of the river is giving those who use it considerable trouble. On warm days the tar becomes so soft that wagons and automobiles are almost seized by it, and horses legs have to be clipped in order to remove the tar.

WATERING CART
The "Dear Thing" has not yet made its appearance on the streets. It is certainly not being overworked and should present a fine appearance when it does appear. The citizens are anxiously awaiting to see it, but they are rather of the opinion that we will have a rain-storm before it does, and their expectations will again be delayed for an indefinite period.

COWS AT LARGE
Numerous complaints are being lodged concerning cattle roaming at large on our streets. This is a source of annoyance to people who endeavor to keep their property in a respectable condition and they should not be subjected to such a nuisance. The Pound Keepers should get on to their job and put a stop to this practise of allowing cattle to roam, or resign their position and make way for men who will attend to such duties.

CORRECTION
In the report of the Fraser Companies Ltd. case against the men, who made a demonstration at their mill in April, the statement—"Mr. McDade on behalf of his clients withdrew their election to be tried by jury, and asked for a summary conviction"—is incorrect. Counsel for the men did not admit intimidation and was not amenable to conviction. A conviction was entered, the Fraser Companies Ltd. paid their own costs and the men paid the costs of the court and constable.

CALLED TO PICTOU
Rev. Chester C. Walls, who as a student was catechist at Millbank, N. B., during the summer of 1918, has been called to the pastorate of the Pentecostal congregation, Pictou, Co. N. S. He was ordained to the Christian ministry and inducted to the pastoral charge by the Presbytery of Pictou, May 10. Mr. Walls is a Miramichi boy, his home being at Blackville. His brother, Victor St. Walls, who is also studying for the ministry, and was among the Pine Hill students serving overseas, is this summer working as catechist at Grand River, Victoria Co., N.B., under appointment of the Presbyterian Home Mission Board.

ALMOST FATAL ACCIDENT
Last Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock, little Warren Harris, aged four years while playing with Raymond and Frank Hogan, boys about the same age, and sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hogan, at the old Ferry slip in rear of the Masson property slipped in the river and was almost drowned. Little Raymond Hogan was home and informed his parents of the little boys peril. Claude Masson who was working near by, jumped into the river and found the little fellow lying on the bottom. He succeeded in bringing him to the wharf where first aid methods were employed. Dr. Bell was summoned and the little boy was taken to the Masson home where the Doctor worked over him until he succeeded in resuscitating him.

He whom this scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardship, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom.
Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.
