UNDER LOCK AND KEY.—Police Corporal Reed, of the I. S. C., is confined to his room in the barracks on a charge of appropriating a bottle of liquor to his own use.

WARRANT REPAIRS.—R. A. Estey had a crew of men employed the beginning of the week, repairing the wharf above the mill, which was badly damaged by the high freight.

DISTRICT MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Federation district of the Methodist church will be held at Marsville, on Tuesday morning, June 18th, commencing at nine o'clock.

PURCHASE.—The Richards' lot, at the corner of George and Westmorland streets, has been purchased by Asa Vanwart for $450. Mr. Vanwart intends putting up a residence.

PRESENTATION.—On Monday last Isaac Corporation Shaw of the I. S. Corps was presented with the gold badge, $5 and the commandant's prize for being the best shot, last year, in the school.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—The Salvation army held a strawberry festival at the barracks Thursday evening. Selections were furnished by the band, and a very enjoyable time spent by all who attended.

ENOCH DAVIS GARD.—Pike, the deserter from the R. S. of I., was brought before the officers and men of the school on Wednesday morning and sentenced to eighty days imprisonment in the county goal.

ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET.—A number of our citizens are talking of getting out an illustrated pamphlet of the St. John river, between this city and St. Francis. George Taylor is to take the photographic views.

TORQUE VALLEY RAILWAY.—Messrs. Kichen & Son, contractors of the Torque valley railroad have purchased locomotive No. 30 from the C. P. R. The engine is being fitted up in first-class shape at the McAdams works.

DOMINION DAY.—An invitation has been received by chief engineer Lipsett of the fire department, for a detachment from the Fredericton fire department to attend the celebration to be held on Dominion day by the Moncton firemen.

JUDGMENT.—At the St. John circuit court, Tuesday, the case of Gallagher vs. the Municipality of Westmorland was finished. His honor chief justice Allen occupied several hours in his charge to the jury, and they brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $1,120.80.

NEW CHIMNEY.—During the past week, Phoenix mill below town has become the possessor of a fine new chimney. Mr. Morrison has given the mill a thorough overhauling this spring, and recently has been able to add to the already large yearly output of the mill.

SALUTE.—The R. S. of I. marched out on Monday and fired a volley on the barracks square, the band playing the national anthem, after which the men were greeted by officers and men for Her Majesty. The men presented a neat appearance in their summer uniform.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—At Tuesday night's meeting of this order, a resolution was passed to establish the uniform rank, and the order for the uniforms given to "Joe" Walker. Mr. Henry, grand keeper of records and seals of the knights of Pythias, delivered a short address which was much appreciated.

SEMPER.—Many of our merchants are mourning the loss of one of the sergeants of the infantry school, who quietly took his departure for parts unknown on Tuesday last. His wife, after adding considerable to the bill of a certain dry goods merchant, followed him on Wednesday by the steamer Weston.

HYMNICAL.—On the third of June, Frank Merritt, the typewriter operator in the cotton mill at Marsville, will lead to the altar Miss Mary Gibson, the youngest daughter of Alexander Gibson. Rumor says that it will be one of the grandest weddings ever held in the province. THE HERALD holds its felicitations in suspense.

BAZAAR.—Five little girls, Edna Coburn, Mattie Cameron, Queenie Edgecombe, Edna Gaudin and Maggie Johnston, held a bazaar on Saturday last at the residence of L. W. Johnston for the purpose of raising funds to purchase an invalid chair for the Victoria hospital. The sum of $7.20 was realized. The audience was large in number but not in size.

FELL DEAD AT SPRING HILL.—John W. Gerow of this city lost a valuable horse on Thursday evening. About seven o'clock, an Indian and two Frenchmen came to his livery stable, and obtained a horse to go to French village intending to return Friday morning. When they had proceeded as far as Spring Hill, the horse stumbled, falling and breaking its neck.

AT McADAMS.—The improvements in the C. P. R. station at McAdams have been finished, and are much appreciated by the travelling public. The building has been completely renovated, the waiting room newly furnished and a ticket office communicating with both roads, arranged. Offices also have been fitted up for the freight and general business clerks.

A SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.—Rev. Fenwick W. Fraser, M. A., B. D., who is supplying the pulpit of St. Paul's, on two sabbaths, has taken degrees at St. Francis Xavier college, at Princeton and Yale universities, and won the Williams Fellowship of Harvard, which will be used to forward his studies during the ensuing year at Cambridge, Mass., and Edinburgh. Mr. Fraser is a native of Antigonish, N. S.

THE COLLIER CASES.—Early on Friday morning, the residents of the city were aroused by the firing of a cannon, at the university. The boys could not rest without the old time custom being kept up, and had purchased a new cannon to replace the one which exploded at the last argument. After being fired off twice, this cannon like the other one "gave up the ghost," and the boys will not be purchasing another one for next year.

FREIGHT.—At the final meeting of the university debating society on Tuesday evening, Ernest Jack, the president of the society, presented Prof. Strong with a gold-headed cane, and Prof. Hyde with a smoking set, on behalf of the society. In making the presentation, which was made in view of the departure of these two professors from the university, Mr. Jack referred in feeling terms to the pleasant hours which they had enjoyed under the management of these two gentlemen.

MAD COW.—While George Beattie was driving a cow which he had purchased from Cook Kichen, down the Government lane, Thursday evening, the cow went crazy, and made things lively in that vicinity for some time. After tossing Geo. Grace, who was in company with Beattie, over the fence two or three times, the cow returned to its former owner's residence. Several attempts were made to dispatch the animal with a shot gun but they were of no avail, and her "cowskip" got off unharmed.

Closing Exercises at the University.

The alumni society of the university held their annual meeting on Wednesday evening. The president, J. A. Vanwart, presided. After the secretary, J. W. McCready, had read the minutes of the last meeting, the following were proposed and accepted as members of the association:

Prof. A. W. Duff, Phillip Cox, B. A., Aaron Lawson, George R. L. Devitt, of St. John, W. Cushing, Wm. D. Rankine and Bayard Fisher.

The treasurer's report was read and referred to the audit committee. The report of the council for 1890 was adopted. The council recommended that the alumni gold medal be continued in future, and awarded each year for the best translation of a selection from some English author into Latin.

Chief superintendent Crockett submitted a report of the committee of the Jack memorial fund, which was adopted. J. Douglas Hazen and Prof. Duff were appointed to solicit subscriptions on behalf of the fund. The president reported on behalf of the alumni professorship fund, for founding a chair in mental and moral philosophy and political economy.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. A. Vanwart; 1st vice-president, Dr. M. McLaren; 2nd vice-president, J. D. Hazen; secretary, J. W. McCready; council, Dr. Bailey, Dr. Bridges, G. Herbert Lee, Wm. McLean, Eldon Mullin, J. M. Palmer, H. V. B. Bridges; representatives to the senate, hon. James Mitchell, hon. Wm. Pugsley. Adjourned.

At the meeting of the senate on Thursday morning, W. K. Hait was appointed to the chair made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Strong. Prof. Duff was authorized to spend $1000 for the purchase of electrical appliances for the university.

ENOCIA.—The library at the university was well filled with ladies and gentlemen when the members of the alumni, the professors and other distinguished gentlemen entered and proceeded to the platform.

The reading of Prof. Bailey's opening address on the responsibilities of the university, by Prof. Duff, F. P. Yorston, winner of the Douglas gold medal, read a portion of his essay, after which Sir S. L. Tilley presented him with the medal.

The alumni gold medal was next presented to Francis C. Walker of St. John, by the president of the alumni society, J. A. Vanwart. Messrs. Steele and McKee and Miss Cameron next received their scholarships, after which Francis Walker was presented with the Stanley silver medal for honors in history. Miss Henry received the Memorial Cup, the memorial prize for honors in classics, and Miss Shaw the Hazen cash prize of $40 and Miss McKee the Coburn prize.

E. W. McCready, rev. W. O. Raymond of St. John, inspector Messerous of Chatham, and rev. W. McNichol of Restigouche, received the degree of M. A. The valedictory address was delivered by E. B. Jack, and was a brilliant effort. Phillip Cox, inspector of schools, delivered the address on behalf of the alumni society.

The following gentlemen received the degree of bachelor of arts: 1st division, E. B. Jack, Fredericton; 2nd division, A. G. Harrison, Fredericton; Miss Bina Henry, St. Stephen; D. L. Mitchell, Sunbury; R. W. Peppers, St. Mary's.

3rd division, L. L. Street, H. F. McLeod, Fredericton; W. Anderson, Springfield; N. Brown, Southampton; W. B. Mowatt, Fredericton.

The alumni dinner was held at the Queen hotel on Thursday evening. J. A. Vanwart, the president of the society, presided. The vice-presidents were occupied by hon. Messrs. Pugsley and Mitchell. There were present besides the alumni society, the members of the graduating class as guests.

After the cloth was removed, toasts were proposed for Her Majesty, the governor general, the lieutenant governor and a number of others. The menu was served in Mr. Edwards' best style.

PERSONAL

Concerning People Known to Most Readers.

Bert Holyoke, Woodstock Press, was in town this week. George J. Clarke is dangerously ill at his residence, Brunswick street.

J. E. B. McCready editor of the Telegraph was among the visitors at the ecnochia this week. Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley were among the visitors who attended the ecnochia on Thursday.

The many friends of "Charlie" Gunter were pleased to see him in town this week after his trip to Montana. Hon. Mr. Mitchell and Hon. Mr. Ryan were in town this week and attended the meeting of the senate of the university.

Isaac Burden, formerly of this city but now employed in the office of William Kitchen at Anover, was in town for a few days this week. Leonard Tilley, Ernest Turnbull and Fred Daniel, of John passed through here this week on horseback. They are making a tour of the province.

George E. Fenwick, printer, and family, have arrived home after a very pleasant trip to the southern states. Mr. Fenwick's health is much improved.

Large crowds thronged the streets on Sunday morning last, waiting for the temperance procession to form. At 10:30 o'clock, the different lodges filed out the temperance hall, York street, and took their position in the order of procession. As they marched towards Queen street, headed by the 7th band, the appearance of the different lodges in full regalia was a subject of much favorable comment among the crowd. They marched through the Methodist church where an appropriate sermon was delivered by Rev. J. Shenton, the lodges occupying the main body of the church. After the service, they proceeded back to the hall by way of King street where they disbanded.

In the afternoon, a gospel temperance meeting was held at the C. P. R. hall at Gibson, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. Fries and others.

In the evening, a meeting under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was held in the city hall, at which addresses were delivered by several of the ladies of the union.

A Lively Runaway.

While Will Gibson, of Marsville, and John McCluskey, of Gibson, were driving up Queen street last evening, the horse became unmanageable and in turning round short at Smyth street corner, threw the occupants out upon the sidewalk. The men were picked up and carried to a neighboring house, where their injuries were examined. Both were cut considerably about the head, but no further damages were visible. The horse was captured at parliament square by Albert Sterling, and in spite of the fact that it had run the full length of Queen street at a two-minute clip, no damage was done to the carriage except the breaking of one of the shafts.

Eppworth League.

At the annual meeting of the Fredericton branch of the Eppworth league, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. J. Weddall, president; J. M. Palmer, 1st vice-president; Miss Lizzie Smith, 2nd vice-president; Miss E. L. Thorne, 3rd vice-president; Miss Alice M. Vandine, 4th vice-president; Miss Lottie Cliff, treasurer.

Miss Marion B. Risteen, secretary. The treasurer, Miss Cliff, and the secretary, Miss Risteen, read reports showing the state of finances, and the amount of correspondence. Miss Shenton was accorded a hearty vote of thanks for the very efficient manner in which she had presided at the organ during the past year.

SPORTS OF THE SEASON.

The Very Latest in Base Ball, Athletics and Turf Circles.

CRICKET.

The ladies' cricket club had their first practice last week. Mrs. E. H. Allen is captain. They intend challenging the gentlemen shortly.

There was a very small attendance at the meeting of the Fredericton cricket club Wednesday evening, and no business was transacted. Another meeting will be held when the club will be thoroughly organized.

LACROSSE.

The St. John Union were defeated by the Wanderers of Halifax at the latter place on the 25th of May. Among the Wanderers were Brady and Grison, the well-known runners.

The Fredericton lacrosse club have completed arrangements with the Fredericton Wanderers to play a match on the P. A. A. grounds for the season, the A. A. A. retaining the right to use the grounds on holidays.

THE ELITE.

The second match of the dominion telegraphic league is being shot at the range this afternoon.

At the first meeting of the Fredericton rifle association on Saturday last major Locke scored seventy-nine points, the highest in the competition.

THE TURF.

A large number attended the races of the Fredericton park association, and were well paid for their trouble. The races were very interesting, and excellent time was made in some of the events. Sporter, the ice champion, and Sporter, jr., his son, trotted an exhibition half mile together, and were very much admired by all.

At the tables below, Harry M. secured the first race in three straight heats, but all the races were well contested.

First race, half mile heats, best three in five: P. P. Thompson's Harry M., 1 1 1. D. P. George's George Allright, 2 2 2. W. P. Fiewelling's Fred, 3 3 3. D. McCatharin's McKinley, 4 4 dr.

Time - 1:17, 1:17, 1:17. Second race, half mile heats: J. Kierstead's Lee Bobbie, 1 1 1. J. Limerick's Morris, 2 2 2. J. M. Wiley's Wm. H., 3 3 3. C. White's Frank, 4 4 dr. G. R. Cooper's Jersey, 5 dr. Time - 1:20, 1:24, 1:28.

The only starters in the colt race were W. Jeffrey's Cheenie and Nellie C., belonging to R. Cox. Cheenie won in three straight heats.

Accidents.

Henry McKay, while working at the Douglas house on Thursday morning, had his arm badly cut with an axe. He was brought home for medical attendance.

While returning from a fishing excursion on Monday evening in company with John J. Weddall, Chas. A. Sampson was thrown from the cartage and severely injured. Mr. Sampson is unable to be out to-day.

While working at the booms, at Sugar Island, Monday afternoon John Dolan of Morrison's mill fell and broke his leg, above the ankle. Dr. Coulthard set the limb, and the limb healed in a few weeks.

While playing on George street with some other boys on Monday last, Douglas Hooper, the son of D. Hooper of St. John, fell and fractured his arm. Medical assistance was summoned and a bone set. "Dudley" is now doing well.

While attending to a cow in his father's barn, Stanley Downey of this city had the middle finger of his right hand struck by the horn striking him in the eye. It was at first supposed that the eye was put out, but further examination proved this to be a mistake.

J. A. Thompson while working in the attic of Thompson & Co's store yesterday, met with quite a severe accident. He made a mistep and went through a trap-door to the roof, falling several feet. He was injured and his wounds dressed.

A very distressing accident occurred on Sunday afternoon last, by which John Woods had his leg fractured and two of his ribs broken. Woods was driving with Mr. Ryan at the head of King street, when Ryan turning back saw a runaway team of horses coming up the street behind him. In his excitement in trying to get his horse out of the race, he pulled the wrong rein, and the runaway horses jumped clear over the little waggon, horses and men being all mixed up together. Ryan escaped without injury, but Woods was hurt to the above extent.

Woods was taken at once to the hospital and medical assistance summoned, and the limb set in plaster. He is expected to be expected. One of the horses of the team, which belonged to John Kennedy of McDawson, 3 b., is it believed, seriously injured having struck the street behind him. The driver, Parson's barn, Dr. Henry, who hopes to be able to cure the horse in a short time.

Recent Deaths.

One of our old residents, John Barker, died this morning at his residence, Charlotte street, in the 78th year of his age. His death was caused by a paralytic stroke. The many friends of Joseph Milligan will sympathize with him in the loss of his young son. His death occurred last evening and was caused by congestion of the lungs.

Henry Porter, son of Thos. Porter of Cain's river, was drowned at Blackville on Saturday last. Deceased was 21 years of age and unmarried, and for some time had been in bad health.

The death is announced this morning of Mr. Morris, which took place at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Ward, of Marsville. Our readers will remember that Mrs. Morris' death was recorded in our last issue within a week of each other.

It was with great regret that the public heard of the death of Mrs. G. T. Whelpley, which occurred at her residence at an early hour this morning. Mrs. Whelpley has been for some time ailing, but her condition was not thought to be critical. Her death was caused by congestion of the lungs.

Mrs. Whelpley was a very estimable lady, and her presence will be greatly missed by her numerous friends and acquaintances. Death removed from our midst, Saturday, Frank Martin, a well known and respected citizen of this city. He was a native of a victim of that never-failing disease, consumption. His funeral which was held on Monday was very largely attended, the A. H. of which he was a member, turned out in a body and headed by the Fredericton brass band, playing the Departed Comrades, followed his remains to the rural cemetery where they were interred.

Five of His Sons Insane.

Now and again there appear glimpses of the sorrowful side of human nature, and of "the deep, dark, underworld of what underlies life's shining surfaces." While a whole city spent the holiday in festivity and celebrating the most interesting spectacles, under the observation of a few, it was the sad sight of an aged, grief-stricken man taking five sons to the asylum. At Baker House, was kept a certain cat and a mother's tender solicitude for the stricken sons in vain sought to abate the terrible ravages. Overcome by the calamity the father thought of keeping them near him in the house, but finding himself unable to do so, he turned to the care of the afflicted family. On the mother's death the insane sons became more violent. The father thought of keeping them near him in the house, but finding himself unable to do so, he turned to the care of the afflicted family.

Police Penalties.

Friday morning, Felicia charged with beating a horse to a fine of $5, or in default of payment, seven days gaol.

A civil case respecting a boundary line is proceeding at the police court to-day, in which Rev. J. C. Merritt and John McPherson are the interested parties. The case is exciting much comment round town.

On Wednesday morning, Elisha McIntyre was kept in the police lock-up for being drunk and disorderly on Tuesday. He said he was not drunk, nor did he make any disturbance on Tuesday, but that he was pretty full, and was fighting Tuesday night. He seemed very much aggrieved when P. M. sentenced him to 30 days gaol, on the default of paying a fine of $7.

At the police court, Tuesday morning George Howard and P. B. Coleman were arraigned for violation of the Scott act. Several witnesses were called in each case by Mr. McCready for the prosecution, but none responded. The cases were then adjourned until Monday and Friday morning respectively. Friday morning the case of Fred. B. Coleman came up. John Schleyer, has been sentenced to 30 days gaol, for having obtained liquor at the bar in the Barker House between the dates mentioned in the information, and that he had paid one Albert Sterling, in which many of our readers will take part. The case was then adjourned until Friday for the purpose of obtaining witnesses.

Candidates for Methodist Ministry.

The annual examination of probationers and candidates for the Methodist ministry was held in Centenary church, St. John, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Rev. J. J. Colter, secretary of the examining board, conducted the examination. There were fourteen candidates. The result of the examinations will be made at the annual district meeting in June.

CONCERT.

The women's aid association will hold a grand concert in the city hall on Tuesday evening next. A good program has been arranged in which many of our ladies will take part. The F.O.M.V. orchestra will be in attendance.

Acquatic.

Hanlan and O'Connor have signal articles for a race for the dominion championship of the world with Gaudar and McKay for $1,000 a side; the race will be about the middle of July. The place will be decided later.

Athletic.

At Crawford, Ind., the other day, young ladies held field sports. The high jump was won at 8 ft. 3 in., the hundred yards dash in 12 sec., and the broad jump at 10 ft. Not a bad showing for the "femines."

Antimony Mines.

Messrs. Penrie and Jones, of Haverhill, Mass., trustees of the bondholders of the New Brunswick antimony company, visited the location of the mine at Lake George, this week, with a view of bringing it into the market. This property will probably be brought to sale within a short period. Both of these men have a high standing in Haverhill. They expressed themselves as desirous to have the benefits of the St. John river and said that that portion of New Brunswick far exceeded their expectations.
