There's Beauty in a Merry Laugh

Tis well to have a merry heart,
However short we stay;
There's wisdom in a merry heart,
What'er the world may say.
Philosophy may lift its head,
And find out many a flaw;
But give me the philosophy
That's happy with a straw!

There's beauty in a merry laugh,
A moral beauty too.
Is shows the heart s an honest heart,
That's paid each man his due;
And lent a share of what's to spare,
Despite of wisdom's fears;
And made the cheek less sorrow speak,
The eye weep fewer tears.

The sun may shrond itself in cloud. The tempest-wrath begin;
It find's a spark to cheer the dark—
It's sunlight is within!
Then laugh away, let others say Whate'er they will of mirth; Who laughs the most may truly boast, He's got the wealth of earth.
