A TERRIBLE TORNADO.

The City of Akron, Ohio, is Swept by & Furious Hurricane.

CLEVELAND, May 10.—A Leader special from Akron, O., says: At 5½ this evening in the midst of a most terrific cloudburst this city was struck by the worst ternado which has ever been known hereabouts, excepting, perhaps, the Sharon cyclone of a month ago. The storm struck the southern part of the city and tore through the fifth, fourth and second wards, doing damage which cannot be estimated at this writing, but fully 100 buildings are completely demolished and hundreds more are badly damaged. The house of Dominick Greader at Cross and Washingtonstreets was unroofed and Mrs. Greader was Passing along Brown, Kline and Wheelerstreets a dozen or more houses were more or less damaged, some beig moved bodily from their foundations and there completely unroofed. Thomas Gilligan's house in King-street was smashed. Tony Mennett's house in Grant-street was turned topsy-turvy and

Messrs. Ritchie, Leeming & Ludwig for John Becker have issued a writ against James Livingston, M.P. for South Waterloo, for Mr P. Hamlin's new residence and Livingston, M.P. for South Waterloo, for $2,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. Becker from her husband. Mrs. Becker is the youngest daughter of Mr. Livingston and was privately married to Becker about last Christmas at Shakespeare. Becker was then a drygoods clerk at Baden, the home of the Livingstons. After the ceremony the newlywedded pair returned to their respective homes, intending to keep the marriage a scret for a time. The news reached Mr. Livingston, however, very soon and the ireater. ivingston, however, very soon and the irate ather sent his daughter to friends in Michigan, and has since kept her from living with her husband. Becker has several times at-ted to assert his matiral rights to Mrs. society but has been worsted in his attempts by the obdurate M. P. Mrs. Becker, t seems, is in sympathy with her husband and encourages his present action. An in-junction restraining the father from asserthis parental authority was also applied yesterday. The case will be tried at Toronto at next assizes.
