CROSS, SLEEPLESS BABIES ARE SICKLY BABIES When little ones are sleepless and cross it is a sure sign that they are not well. Probably the little stomach or the bowels is out of order, or the child may be suffering from teething troubles. Gibe Baby's Own Tablets and see how quickly the child grows well and happy and sleeps soundly—not the drugged sleep of "soothing" medicines, but the natural sleep of health. Mrs. Edward Siorid, Maskinonge, Que., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for indigestion and other troubles of childhood, and they always work like a charm. They always keep my little one well." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SWEDEN'S PARLIAMENT OPENS. Budget Shows Deficit Last Year of $1,620,000. Stockholm, January 18.—The Riksdag was opened yesterday with the usual ceremonies in the presence of King Gustaf, the court officials and the diplomatic corps. The speech from the throne was well received. His Majesty announced that peace marked Sweden's foreign relations, and he declared emphatically for peace among the nations. He explained that the higher taxes were due to a deficit of 6,600,000 crowns ($1,620,000) in last year's budget and to an increase in the estimates for next year.

Attacks University Bequest. Chicago, Jan. 18.—A bequest of about $40,000 to the University of Chicago by the late Mrs. Paramella Brown, who died last July, is being attacked before a jury, in Judge Dupuy's court. Anthony Melville, who lives in Canada, and who is said to be a nephew of Mrs. Brown, is seeking to have the will set aside on the ground that Mrs. Brown was of unsound mind.

Killed by Runaway Engine. Nelson B. C. Jan. 18.—A runaway engine today dashed into the C.P.R. roundhouse killing W. H. Terry, a boiler maker's helper and injuring J. H. Jackson. The engine was left at the coal pits ready for the usual run to Slocan City. By some means it started, dashed into the roundhouse in which a number of mechanics were repairing engines. Terry was badly crushed and was taken to the hospital where he died in a few minutes. Jackson's wrist was broken. Terry leaves a wife and children.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.
