A Tale of Woe.

Extraordinary disclosures have been made in a report on the physical condition of the six million children attending school in England and Wales. The report is contained in a Blue Book issued by the Government. Broadly it states that half the school children have some disease, and that a considerable percentage are half starved.

"Here is the tale of children's illness set out in cold figures, as obtained by the inspectors:—"

Disease.	No. of Children	Per cent.
Defective vision (serious)	600,000	10
Defective hearing	180,000	3
Suppurating ears	60,000	1
Adenoids	360,000	6
Decayed teeth (extensive)	2,400,000	40
Rhineworm	60,000	1
Tuberculosis (readily recognizable)	60,000	1
Heart disease	60,000	1

Total cases of disease 3,780,000 . . . 63

Children Wanting Food.
As to malnutrition, here are some figures from different parts of the country. They are divided into four classes: (1) Good, (2) Normal, (3) Sub-normal, (4) Bad.

Taking counties, here are the figures showing the percentage of children showing a "sub-normal state of nutrition": Bedfordshire, 20.1; Dorset, 14.4; Somerset, 15.0; Staffordshire, 19.2; Surrey, 12.5; taking urban areas, Darlington, 21.0; Ipswich, 26.3; Kingston, 12.6; Tynemouth, 27.0.

It is to be wondered then that labor unrest prevails in England and Wales, when conditions are so hard that such a state of things can be shown in regard to children. All this cannot be put down to drink. Most of it may be put down to low wages and the hard struggle for life which ensues from straitened circumstances.

To-day a drunk was discharged. A disorderly for the fourth time this season was fined $4 or 14 days. His Honor was merciful this morning and let three other drunks go.

A fourth, however, being an old offender, was fined $2 or 7 days.

Three men who were convicted of larceny of cash were sent down for 3 months.

The S. S. Fogota sailed north last midnight taking in saloon Capt. Geo. Hann, Capt. Job Kean, Capt. E. Bishop, Capt. N. J. Kennedy, W. Payne, Mrs. Harris, H. Snelgrove, John Snelgrove, J. J. Snelgrove, Robert Fowlow, Jacob Snelgrove, Mrs. E. J. Downey and 60 in steerage. The ship had a large freight of general supplies.

The schr. Mersley, Capt. Jonas Rice, which left here Wednesday, anchored in Brasses' Harbor, near Kettle Cove, the same evening. Her crew turned in and were next awakened by the schr. bumping on the rocks, the wind having sprung up to a gale and dragged her anchors. There was too much wind to get her off then, and all that could be done was to take the goods on deck. She knocked a hole in her bottom and a quantity of salt was washed out of the hold. The Mersley was bound to New Bay with winter provisions.—Twillingate Sun, Nov. 25.

BROUGHT TO ASYLUM.—A young man of Central Street was brought to the Lunatic Asylum yesterday. He has been in the Asylum several times before.
