The new Turkish Government is said also to have requested the Ambassadors at Vienna and St. Petersburg to return to the Turkish capital. Enver Bey, the most spirited leader of the Young Turks, was appointed to-day Chief of the General Staff of the Turkish Army. Talaat Bey, the new Minister of the Interior, informed the European Embassies that all measures necessary for the security of the city had been taken. He also addressed circulars to the Provincial Governors explaining the reasons for the change of Government, and calling upon the people to lend their moral and madetermined to defend the interests ef the country now faced with the prospects of a resumption of hostilities. The Press, this morning, unites in condemning the folly of the Young Turkish hotheads. The Daily Telegraph says: "This resolution signifies that the Ottoman Ship of State will be driven on the rocks." The Daily Graphic observes: "The Turk stands now with a torch before a powder magazine. There will be wild work elsewhere than Chatalja, if prompt measures are not taken to
