PARIS, Aug. 18.—The vineyards of Aisne and Compiègne, comprising the best known champagne districts, have been ravaged by phylloxera, and it is feared the superficial measures taken will only delay the ruin of the whole champagne district for three or four years. The danger lies in the efforts of phylloxera to conceal the spread of the phylloxera in order not to depreciate the property.

Germany's Navy.

The Coal Strike in Wales.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—In Wales the coal strike is assuming a grave aspect. The strikers, armed with cudgels, and thousands strong, marched to several collieries in the Rhondda Valley and forcibly expelled the miners from the pits. Work in several collieries in the Aberdare district has also been stopped by the strikers, who are also miners being chiefly young men.

Want a German Pope.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The conference of German Catholics in Fulda resolved that the next Pope ought to be a German, and that steps should be taken to secure the realization of the resolution. Although the conference made every effort to keep secret this action, several newspapers published dispatches yesterday on the subject, most of them adding that the plan was the abolition of all papal laws against the Emperor and slight political discrimination by the Emperor in favor of the Catholic nobility of Germany.

Unrest in Ukraine.

VIENNA, Aug. 18.—A Lemberg paper, the Przegląd, announces that a conspiracy aiming at the independence of the Ukraine, has been discovered at Kiev. The house of the conspirators was raided, and many university students and officers were arrested. Arrests also have been made at the Charkoff University, owing to the issue of a manifesto demanding the freedom of the Ukraine.

The Ukraine is an old subdivision of Russia and Southeastern Poland. It now includes the Governments of Kiev, Poltava and Charkoff. Kiev is the capital of the whole district and naturally would be the headquarters of any trouble of the kind referred to. Disturbances among students have been frequent of late.

Enforced Quiet in Bombay.

BOMBAY, Aug. 18.—This was a Mohammedan prayer-day, and there was general expectation that further troubles would occur between that sect and the Hindus. In the early part of the day symptoms began to be plainly manifested that the religious animosity would lead to riot.

ing, and the authorities at once took steps to prevent an outbreak. It was feared the Hindus would attack the great Jama Masjid Mosque, and a detachment of British troops was placed in front of the building, from which direction only an attack could be made with any hope of success. The cannon commanded the main approach to the mosque, and the street could easily be kept clear had events warranted firing. The other mosques resorted to by Mohammedans were equally well guarded by British troops, and the leading thoroughfares were patrolled by soldiers. The shops and markets were not opened until troops appeared.

THE ROYAL TEMPLARS

Begin Their Ten Days' Camp Meeting.

An Unlocked-For Event Gave a Down and the Delegates Drenched.

TORONTO, Aug. 18.—The Royal Templars began their ten days' camp at the Island Park this afternoon. The opening proceedings were marked by an altogether unexpected event. The camp chair was being started by singing one or two hymns in the big tent when a big storm burst suddenly on them. The tent was very suddenly and in a few minutes the poles gave way, and the ropes snapped, and those in the tent, were struggling under the canvas, and in a few minutes the canvas was a mass of water. The delegates, who were gathered outside ready to enter the tent, were drenched to the skin. The programme for the day was abandoned, but every effort will be made to continue the meeting to-morrow.

HARDY FITTED FOR THE STREET.

A Newark Woman Checks Asbury Park by Appearing in a Bathing Suit.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Angeline Allen, of Newark, a boarder at the Lafayette Hotel at this place, caused a sensation on Founder Brady's board walk yesterday afternoon by her bathing suit. The bathing suit, which was of blue silk, was cut low in the neck, while the skirt was exceptionally short, hardly reaching her knees. Her legs were in tight hosiery. The sight of the woman in this abbreviated costume attracted the attention of several thousand people, and it was with difficulty that she made her way to a neighboring photographer.

She requested the assistance of a policeman to get back to her hotel, and before she entered the carriage which had been secured, she was compelled to wrap herself up in a sheet.

The woman, who is a resident of Newark, is now in the history of Asbury Park that a woman has appeared on the board walk in such a costume.

The platform which endorsed money and tariff plank of the national platform was adopted. All efforts to secure introduction of a free coinage plank failed.

"Sporting" Clerks at a Discount.

The Board Buyer, a prominent financial journal of New York, has this advice to give to its readers: It is a safe rule not to employ a clerk who frequents the racetrack, or the present day, or to bank with banks whose officers go habitually to the Morris Park or the Morris Park race courses. They are both big swindling gambling concerns run by book-makers who have been in the defrauding business for years. The principal proprietor of Morris Park made an immense fortune running the Louisiana Lottery Company. He is running it yet in a small way and using the express companies to sell his tickets. When his surplus earnings were so great that he could not further invest them in the swindling scheme of the Louisiana Lottery he invested in a swindling racecourse in Westchester. The Morris Park race course is run on the same disreputable basis as the Morris Park race course. The only honest bookies habitually on the tracks of these courses are the horses. A lot of fools will support any fraud, however transparent, but we advise every banker not to employ a subordinate who frequents such courses, and no man of sense will bank with bankers who do the same.

Fine Arts at the Fair

Canada Comes Off with Flying Colors

In a Competition of More Than Ordinary Severity.

The West Point Cadets (Create a Sensation in the White City—Hungarian Parade—The Torture Dance.

(Special to the Advertiser.)
WORLD'S FAIR GROUND, CLEVELAND, Aug. 18.—The jurors on display at the World's Fair made report of their awards in the general committee to-day. Canada has come out of a severe competition with flying colors. Her exhibit included 113 works of art in oil, and of these five were awarded the diploma of the exposition authorities and bronze medals.

Owing to the fact that the report has not been made public yet it is impossible to ascertain in all cases the special works have won distinctions. "A Highland November Morning," by J. A. Fraser; "The Foreclosure of the Mortgage," by E. C. Y. Edle, are known, and another by Robt. Harris make up the successful Canadian works of art at the World's Fair.

When it is known that the palace of fine arts at the White City contains the work of the best masters of the old, as well as the present, schools from every civilized country in the world, it will be seen that Canada has been successful in the most sanguine way, and that, but fine arts is the only department at the fair in which the Dominion has absolutely no representation.

Sunny Italy, known as the birthplace of fine art, exhibited 192 works of the old and modern school, and was awarded only ten diplomas and 113 medals. This is a meager comparison serves to show the severity of the competition and the excellence of the Canadian works of art on exhibition here.

THE WEST POINT CADETS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The White City was gay with uniforms, martial music, and a band of drummers to-day. Two hundred and eighty West Point cadets in uniform, marching in military order, were the chief attraction. They arrived in the forenoon and were met by an escort of militia and regulars and an enthusiastic crowd. Their march was a grand drawing of admiration all along the line. The cadets will remain ten days. The management of the fair has assigned a guard to the White City and the cadets are to be pitched for their daily drills.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN PARADE.

The first event in the celebration by Austro-Hungarians at the exposition today was a parade. In the procession were a group of Hungarians, chikors or shepherds, on horseback. Austrians in military uniform followed, followed by a group of Tyrol and Vorarlberg, followed by 60 men from Tyrol on foot, Hungarian benevolent and other societies and many Austro-Hungarian cadets.

THE TURTLE DANCE.

The turtle dance, which is practiced by Indians to show their bravery, was performed by four Quakwaka Indians around the grand basin in the World's Fair grounds last evening in the presence of thousands of spectators. Leather thongs were passed through strips of flesh cut from the backs of the four braves. Four of the Indians took the flesh and, using their teeth in the flesh, tore it out. The thongs were then used to lash the backs of the other four, who were driving horses. At times the drivers would pull back on the thongs, causing the horses to strain and strain, and producing the most exquisite agony. Finally the thongs were pulled entirely loose, tearing the flesh and causing streams of blood to flow down the dark bodies of the horses.

One of them lost his reason because of the awful pain he suffered when the thongs were torn through the flesh. He sprang upon Interpreter Ford and until the united strength of several men was necessary in the attempt to open his jaws.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—John Boyd Thacher, the World's Fair award system were unanimously and formally adopted by the Associated American Exhibitors yesterday.

THE CROWD.

The paid admissions to the World's Fair to-day, 122,745.

No News of the Sarnia.

MONTREAL, Aug. 18.—The Dominion Line steamer, Sarnia, from Montreal, is now out 23 days and there is no news of her. She was last sighted Aug. 7, 500 miles east of Newfoundland with her machinery damaged. She refused assistance then.

Killed the Crew.

GREENSBORO, Ohio, Aug. 18.—Freight engine No. 107, east bound, on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railway, ran over and killed last night. Engineer Basan, Fireman Roberts and Brakeman Quinn were instantly killed.

Captured the Cashier, But Not the Money.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 18.—John B. Keeling, the absconding cashier of the South Savings Bank of Milwaukee, was captured in Denver last night. Only $200 of the $199,000 said to have been taken by him was found on him.

Scalped his Squaw.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—A dispatch from New York, Aug. 18, says: Tom Cat, a Kolispe Indian, Wednesday night captured his squaw near here and shot and scalped her for having eloped with White Blanket, a Spokane Indian. White Blanket and others caught Tom Cat, cut off his ears, bound him and threw him into a fire they had built. The police arrived too late to capture the murderers, who have taken to the woods.

Her Religion or Lover.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Evelyn Piket, a Polish girl of 29, was found wandering along Second avenue early yesterday, and was taken to the Fifth street station. There she told Capt. Doherty that she was of the Christian faith, and that a Hebrew had been trying to urge her to change her religion and marry him. She liked her religion and also her lover, and she thought so much over both that her head began to pain her. She was committed to Bellevue Hospital for examination.

A Rift in the Clouds

Noticed by Some of the Commercial Reporters.

Many Firms Failing or Suspending Business.

But the Resumptions Are Becoming Somewhat Frequent—A Review of Trade—The Day's Developments.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: There is a rift in the clouds. Business is trying to go ahead without waiting for a more favorable import. The import does not go to the right spot, but the people are creating a home market for themselves by using local currency in paying hands, settling local accounts and purchasing grain and other commodities. Little money comes back as yet from timid hoarders and the paralysis of exchange is nearly as complete as ever, but very fact pushes more and more on the Government and Wall street.

Many concerns are failing or closing, but resumption are now becoming somewhat frequent and the very shrinkage of production men see evidence that demand must soon overtake supply. No such shrinkage resulted at any time in the five years since the great depression. Through the five years since the panic of 1873, as has been said, the people have been hoarding money and steel works are now being re-opened. Only a third of the Connelville coke ovens are at work, but coke at $1 25 gives a better chance to iron manufacturers.

The sales of good in seven weeks have been only 17,576,600 pounds, against 50,270,290 last year and 37,450,800 in 1891. It is stated that 93,000 looms and 4,300,000 spindles in New England are now idle, which means more than a quarter of the cotton spindles in the country. But twenty Knight mills and five other cotton mills have been closed, while 28 woolen mills have failed during the week.

Somewhat fewer cancellations are met with in dress goods, and those are buyings of all woollens.

Shipments of boots and shoes from Boston since the end of June have been only 100,000 pairs, against 172,450 last year, a decrease of 17 1/2 per cent, but a little more demand for goods is now seen, and some factories near Boston and Philadelphia have resumed.

With such a shrinkage in the great industries it is only surprising that railroad earnings do not decline more, the decreased output of the iron and steel industry being reported in August to England to be 18 per cent. Prices of securities have fallen comparatively little. Speculative markets have generally declined a fraction in spite of crop reports, which are not solid enough to outweigh the lowest figures given.

The movement of corn is decidedly large, with crop prospects improving.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Bradstreet's says the failures in the United States this week were 479, compared with 474 last week, and 187 a year ago.

Available stocks of wheat continue to show a weekly net decrease for Australia, the United States, Canada and Europe, notwithstanding a gain of more than 1,000,000 bushels in stocks of wheat in the latter part of the week, which is not solid enough to outweigh the lowest figures given.

THE DAY'S DEVELOPMENTS.

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 18.—At a meeting of the creditors of Gildersleeve Bros., steamboat owners and leaseholders, the offer of 10 cents on the dollar by C. F. Gildersleeve was accepted by a majority of the creditors.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Eppinger & Russell, wholesale lumber dealers, assigned to a receiver, $400,000; nominal assets far in excess of this amount.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 18.—Of the many financial schemes proposed to relieve the straits in money the one regarded by treasury officials as the most practicable is the one authorized to the Secretary of the Treasury to issue currency against the mortgage or pledge of the treasury.

There are now 130,000,000 ounces of silver bought under the act of 1890, and notes issued against the mortgage on that amount would add nearly $50,000,000 to the circulating medium.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE.

Some of Colorado's Suspended Banks Resume Business.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 18.—A dispatch from Leadville states that the American National Bank, of that place, resumed yesterday. The First National Bank, of Rico, also opened its doors yesterday.

TRAIN-WRECKERS FOILED.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 18.—A dastardly attempt to wreck the Philadelphia and Erie express, eastbound, was foiled this evening by freight cars. The track on Erie curve, in a secluded spot, was obstructed with chains and pins.

The freight crew having discovered the wreckers, notified officers Higgins and Watson, who, as they closed in on the train wreckers, were fired upon by the latter. Watson had his clothes pierced by two bullets and lost his eye, but Higgins escaped his after a desperate battle.

The wrecker is a man of 30, gave his name as Edward Moore, a shoe-maker, in addition to being heavily armed he had a burglar's kit with him.

The new city directory places Detroit's population at 323,392.

Kansans Kick!

Proposal to Separate Western From Eastern States

In the Matter of Their Commercial Policy.

Movement for a Convention of Governors—A Result of the Depression and the Silver Question.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—A special from Topeka, Kan., says a petition signed by all the State officers has been sent to Gov. Stone, of Missouri, which calls for a

COMMERICAL DIVISION.
The petition between the west and the east. The petition says: "In the matter of the commercial condition of the country, and especially its most productive portion, which will be further aggravated if Congress shall do nothing to relieve it or shall unconditionally repeal the Sherman law, we would ask you to

of all the Governors of all the States west of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio river and on a parallel line therewith, and also that such Governors appoint in addition a number of delegates equal to the representation of their States in Congress.

THE OBJECTS of this convention to be the consideration of what shall be done for the mutual relief of the people for the cultivation of commercial relations between them, and such other action as may conduce to the welfare and prosperity of the communities involved, looking especially to arranging for such trade relations as may render this section free of dependence upon the eastern section of the United States in business affairs. We consider the movement to bring the people of the west and south into such union as will protect and foster interests which are naturally allied and to free these sections from unjust and

REINFORCED DOMINATION
of a section which is largely influenced by European policies and interests. There have been no literal threats of secession, which would arouse the great patriotic people of the west, but there has long gone on a propaganda of poisonous propaganda until at last the Governor, Wait, of Colorado, the people are becoming familiarized with the thoughts of

BLOOD.
The proposed meeting of Governors is full of significance. The call for delegates from each State is for the purpose of giving strong support to the unusual plan that may be forwarded if the field shall be found ripe. In this State, at least, and in Colorado, the radical element expects to find encouragement in the acts of the convention."

ABOUT BOMBAY.

A City of Wealth and Trouble—its Architecture Reflects the Commingling of Race and Religion.

Bombay's history is one of trouble. In the sixteenth century Portugal snatched it from the hands of the Sultan of Gujarat. In 1665 it was ceded to England, when the wedding gift of John IV. of Portugal, married Charles II. of England.

England soon found Bombay bothersome, and granted it to the East India Company, and under its rule came the solid men whenever the words "Bombay merchants" are spoken. Its growing wealth drew men from all nations. In 1682 the Abyssinian Corsair Seedu invaded it and held it till the English got the Mogul Emperor to order him away. Later, under Robert Clive, it was made an English stronghold, and Arthur Wellesley, the Lord Wellington, completed the subjugation of inimical native princes.

Now it is a town of 800,000 inhabitants, it covers twelve islands of 22 square miles, and its gross annual income is estimated at over $42,000,000. It lies at the foot of picturesque hills, and its beautiful harbor sweeps in a magnificent curve to the south of it, making the approach to Bombay one of India's beautiful sights. The great Malabar road runs along the bay on a high ridge. Here the wealthy Europeans live, and at its end is the Governor's handsome residence.

On the other side of the bay is the mercantile quarter, on a promontory, where there is also the old fort, which was formerly the city's citadel.

The city is full of bazaars and native quarters shows the strange commingling of races and religions, which have lived and toiled for centuries side by side and yet remained to a great degree distinct and separate.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

John T. Ballantyne, the well-known and popular journalist, has died at Chicago. The steamer "Fruet", from Southampton, will bring $329,000 of gold to New York.

A Montreal banker got $10,000 in greenbacks from the Little Sisters of the Poor on Thursday, sent them to New York and made a commission of 2 per cent. on the transaction.

Montreal bankers have sent about $50,000 currency to New York within the past few days, making 2 per cent. premium on their shipments. They have orders for all they can get.

Grand Trunk stock touched the lowest point on record in London, Eng., to-day (Friday)—43 1/2 for first and 27 1/2 for second preference. The decline is attributed here to the reduction in the dividend.

DANCING, GOOD AND BAD.

Discussed, and the Good Illustrated for the Professional Woman's League.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The Professional Woman's League took up the subject of dancing yesterday, and Miss Emma Field, leading lady in "The Senator" for the coming season, gave a history of the art from early times. Dancing was the mode in early times. Dancing was the mode in early times. Dancing was the mode in early times.

Dancing has been practiced by all races, and most frequently as a solemn religious rite. Greek philosophers danced and scorned those ignorant of the art, while some of the old fathers of the church recommended it as a practice which would be one of the heavenly occupations.

Miss Field said that the modern followers of Terpsichore had lost all grace and poetry of motion. The grand ballet was almost the only desirable form of stage dancing to be found, and many recalled dances were merely gymnastic exhibitions. The league secured the best talent in all its departments, and Miss Leontine, the teacher in dancing, is no exception. She resembled a dainty pink and white flower as she gave an exhibition of ballet dancing, as her pupils, dressed in eighteenth century costumes, from the loquacious wardrobe, danced the "First Minuet."
