—The Young People's Church Improvement Society of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, held their pening meeting, since vacation, last Tuesday evening the residence of Mr. W. H. Winnett, 406 Grey street. The meeting was characterized by a good attendance of interested members, who takes a very active part in this work. After indulging in a few pleasant games the assembly adjourned to meet again Sept. 26.

—The Vancouver World of a recent date has this reference to a former London vocalist: "Miss Orrell, the leading soloist in the Homer Street Methodist Church, leading soloist in the Homer Street Methodist choir, closed her year's engagement with the trustees on Sunday last. It is with great regret that the congregation parts with her. At the close of the service on Sunday evening the pastor, Rev. Coverdale Watson, took occasion to thank her publicly for her services. He stated that the choir had helped him greatly in preaching to the peeple. Mr. Watson voiced the unanimous feelings of the congregation in expressing the best wishes for the furure welfare of Miss Orrell,"

The Monal's Health Protective Association, organized lately in Brooklyn, N. Y., is one greatly needed. This effort will be made to have Mr. Laurier present on the occasion. —Dr. McGuigan will leave to morrow on an extended trip. It is his intention to visit Chicago and from there to go to his old home in Stratford, Ont., and to London, Ont., where he formerly practiced. He may also visit Germany, but on that point he is undecided. Those who claim to be in his confidence say that in one of he places mentioned there is a trousseau in course of preparation, and that it is to be ready by the time the doctor gets there, but as to whether in the consequent ceremony he is to be best or second-best man the doctor declines to state. Railway Mall Clerks.

The railway mail clerks' convention ended Wednesday afternoon. The visitors were afterwards entertained by the London clerks. A drive around the city to Woodland and Mount Pleasant cemeteries and land and Mount Pleasant cemeteries and to Springbank provided a good afternoon's enjoyment. While at Woodland Cemetery enjoyment. While at Woodland Cemetery they decorated with flowers the grave of Gilbert E. Griffin, the father of the railway mail service in Canada. The visitors were much pleased with London and the treat-ment they received here. The next con-vention will be held in Ottawa in Septem-ber, 1894.

Seventh Fusiliers at St. Thomas. Seventh Fusiliers at St. Thomas.

No. 1 company and the bugle band of the Seventh Fusiliers went to St. Thomas last evening by special train, with the hope of instilling a little life into the Twenty-fifth Battalion, whose headquarters are in that city. The Twenty-fifth has been lacking recruits, and it was thought that the soldierly appearance and thorough drill of the Seventh's crack company would induce the young men of the Railroad City to enlist. The London contingent was under command of Capt. Graham and Liout. Taylor, and made a fine apprarance.

Jumped From the Express.

Samuel Hess, a German, about 40 years of age, and giving abundant evidence by his condition of having been on an extended spree, was arrested the other day in Westminster township and remanded to jail on a charge of insanity. He rapidly grew better in jail, and from railway tickets on his person it was found that he hailed from Alonzoville, near Reading Pa. He had been to the World's Fair, and had gotten as far on his way home as this city, when he went completely astray. It is not known whether the new moon or the "d.t.'s" affected him most, but he had a firmly grounded impression that a couple of hundred men and snakes were continually after him. He sobered up in jail enough to ask to be allowed to continue his journey home. The authorities had no objection and Wednesday afternoon he started off on the afternoon G. T. R. express for the east. He got as Recogning Streets Clean.

The Woman's Health Protective Association, organized lately in Brooklyn, N. Y., is one greatly needed. This effort is simply to keep the streets clean. The women that belong to this association go about and ask their neighbors to be particularly careful about the ash barrels, a duty that demands no ordinary heroism. "The neighbors tell us that they will put anything they choose into their ash barrel, and that they wish other folks would attend to their own business." The women make complains to the authorities where there are gross untidiness, and they are not put off by the official smile that rewards feminine protest. They fight against the throwing of fruit skins on the sidewalk. They themselves use barrels will have barrels can be furnished to all who cannot afford to buy them. The members promise to burn up waste paper; to hire men to act as inspectors in the streets; and they have issued a circular that is a Macedonian cry to men.
