sociation have expressed themselves as very much against the movement on the part of some of the grocers to take the grocers' picnic out of town. This year it will be designated as the "jubilee picnic," and will be of a special character. The Fair grounds will undoubtedly be the place chosen, as the majority of the grocers wish to keep the money in the city. Last year they say it was taken out of the city on account of the building and repairing going on at the Fair grounds. It was also a change, and met with the full approval of the large staff of clerks engaged in the business. Secretary Sutton said this morning that had the street railway been willing to offer any inducements the pic-nic might have been held at Springbank. The company would make no reduced rates, but offered the association return tickets in large lots, to be sold by the grocers for 12 cents. By C. A. this morning. NOT SO BAD.

Slutter-Do you suppose it's such a very bad thing to be sarcastic?

Cutter-Not nearly as bad as to think you are and not to be so .- Truth. "It is very kind of you, madam, said the tramp, "to give me such a fine dinner." "Don't mention it, you ' said the kind-hearted woman. "But I will repay you," said the tramp, gratefully.
