

Straight Vote on License Reduction Will Be Taken

Question To Be Submitted Without the Bylaw Being First Given Readings.

Without a vote being raised in protest, the city council last night adopted the recommendation of No. 3 committee to take a vote of the people in January on the reduction of the liquor license to twenty-six. The first and second readings of the bylaw, which was originally requested by the temperance people, was not granted.

A delegation of nearly 100 ladies and gentlemen, who are prominently identified with the temperance cause, occupied places in the hall, but none addressed the council. The measure being taken by the council would be submitted, without the reading of the bylaw, was a foregone conclusion. Only two of the aldermen had anything to say in regard to the petition. Ald. Cooper was one of them. He simply claimed that the council was now doing something he had urged it to do the other night, but without avail.

Ald. Greenlee was the second alderman to be heard. He said he preferred to have the bylaw read a second time by this year's council, as such a course would strengthen the position of the temperance people when they came before the council next year to ask that the measure be enforced. If the bylaw were endorsed by the people, it would be almost impossible to get a council that would refuse to carry out the alderman's wishes. However, Ald. Greenlee thought, by the appearance of things that one could hardly expect the bylaw to get readings from the council.

On the vote being taken every alderman was favorable to the recommendation of the committee.

Death of Ex-Mayor Cronyn.

The attention of the aldermen was drawn to the death of Mr. Benj. Cronyn, a former mayor of the city, which occurred in Toronto yesterday morning, after a long illness. Acting on a suggestion by his worship, the aldermen, on motion of Ald. Matthews and Greenlee, instructed City Clerk Baker to draw up a resolution of condolence and have it forwarded to Mr. Cronyn's family.

Mr. Cronyn was for many years a law partner in this city of Ald. Greenlee, who referred in the highest terms to his many good qualities.

"Mr. Cronyn was one of the most public-spirited men I ever met," said Ald. Greenlee. "He did many things while a resident of London, but they are bounded to the benefit of the city."

The council will attend the funeral in a body.

Ald. Cooper asked the chairman of the board of works if he was aware that a large number of trees in Victoria park were marked to be cut down?

Ald. Forristal's reply was that he had not been to the park, but that the trees were marked for removal, it was because they should not be there. He had the greatest confidence in Park Commissioner Pearce.

Ald. Carson inquired about the cleaning of the permanent pavements on King and Talbot streets and Queen's avenue, and inquired that lack of funds was the reason for that lack of work in such a state. The board of works said Ald. Forristal was not to have an overdraft if it was at all possible to avoid it.

Ald. Matthews submitted three motions, all of which were carried. One itemized statement of the expenditures on the breakwater; another was for a statement of the cost of paving the market square with vitrified brick, the figures to be based on the cost of the King and Talbot street roadways; and the third motion was for a vast amount of information about the street railway.

On motion of Ald. Gillian, No. 3 committee will consider the erection of an electric light at the corner of Egerston street and the Hamilton road.

Another Side of a Story.

Wm. Scarrow wrote the committee regarding the claim made at the board of works on the filling of a lot at the southwest corner of the Dundas street bridge was diverting the course of the river. Mr. Scarrow maintained that the board of works was the case. Every year from one to two thousand loads of sand were taken from the river at that point, thereby deepening the channel. The board of works writer also reminded the council that he had constructed his own breakwater on the river at a cost of $2,000 to $3,000.

Two applications for remission of taxes were referred to the finance committee.

John F. Madden's request to be exempted from the rates on Grosvenor street, owing to the construction of a sewer in front of his property on Shoe-maker street, was referred to No. 2.

The board of works dealt with Oscar Lieberman's request for permission to connect with the Maitland street sewer. Mr. Patrick's complaint that the city has constructed a portion of the breakwater on his Bridge street lot, Bartram & Polinsbee's claim for damages to their property through an alleged defective roadway; Willie Lee's application for leave to erect an addition to his property on Richmond street; Mrs. Parkinson's protest against being charged full water rates on a V-shaped lot on the Hamilton road.

Want Better Car Service.

A very largely signed petition was received from residents of West London and the north end of the second ward, asking the council to use its endeavors to get the street railway company to connect the West London line with the Oxford street line at the corner of Richmond street, and thereby give the West Londoners a street railway service that was promised them by the company in 1893. No action was taken.

Action on the opening of Dufferin avenue from English to Ontario streets was deferred. The appropriation for the work was $100,000, whereas Mr. W. Hayman is demanding $70 for that part of his property on Ontario street required for the extension, and Mr. Thomas V. Guerin is demanding that his land unless the city drain with the front of his lot.

City solicitor Meredith advised the council that all the property owners have agreed and are in a position to accept the council's recommendation in regard to the extension. It was used for him to proceed further with the examination of the titles.

Application by J. Kilgour for the change of electric light at the corner of Elmwood avenue and Cathcart street was referred to No. 3 committee.

Mayor Campbell and Inspector McCallum will deal with applications by Mrs. Beadell and R. H. Perry for admission to the Agricultural Home.

W. H. Bartram's notice of action against Wm. Scarrow and the corporation was referred to the city solicitor.

CYRIL IN RAGE AT THE EMPRESS

Says She and Not the Czar is to Blame for His Disgrace.

Cannes, Nov. 21.—The disgraced Grand Duke Cyril makes no secret of his rage against the Empress of Russia whose deification of the former grand duchess of Hesse-Darmstadt, now Cyril's wife, induced the Czar to pronounce the ban of exile and degradation against him.

"The Emperor himself," said Cyril, "would never have entertained the idea. Nicholas is a man of exquisite good sense of heart, but the Czar is spoiled by his wife's influence. The Emperor had no right to deprive me of my title and rank as grand duke and had to rescind the order which could only be legal if pronounced by the entire council of grand dukes. Grand Duke Vladimir's resignation was a protest against this unjust treatment."

"I am happy here in this beautiful climate and evasive country, ideal for our favorite sport of motoring. In the spring we go to Cobourg, where I shall buy a chateau."

"The Czar should not sign a constitution under the pressure of revolutionist manifestations. Portsmouth revealed a great statesman, so the Czar was forced to overcome his undoubted ingrained antipathy to him. He has been so far from being profoundly ambitious, but the idea that he is plotting to be first president of a Russian republic is laughable."

Count to Wed Actress

Budapest, Nov. 21.—Count Imra Degenfeld-Schonberg is about to dispense his family by making an unsuitable marriage. The Degenfelds are connected with the greatest names in the country. When, therefore, Count Imra announced his intention of marrying Fedak Sari, the Degenfelds—nearly 100 in number—met and decided that they would make every attempt within the law to prevent the marriage.

Sari is the idol of Budapest, a sou-brette to the tips of her fingers, and very pretty. The young people of Budapest adore her and escort her outside the theater and escort her home. Count Imra was a regular visitor, or at the theater, he acted and every new part charmed him. He considered it an honor when she promised to marry him and his indignation was great when his family informed him that they would not allow him to make a fool of himself. Though Count Imra occupies a high position in Budapest society, he is the president of the Jockey Club, his relatives succeeded in convincing the authorities that he had suddenly shown signs of insanity and he was shut up in a public asylum.

Fedak Sari did not abandon him. She won over the owner of the asylum and obtained his release from him. If Count Degenfeld did not give sufficient proofs of his insanity he should be released. After six months detention in the asylum he was allowed to leave it none the worse for it, having spent so long a time in retirement. But his health had suffered and he went to Franzensbad to recruit his strength.

There the actress soon joined him and arrangements have been made for a speedy marriage which will not take place in Budapest, although Fedak Sari's many admirers would allow him to prevent the Degenfelds from again interfering with the young pair's happiness.

Sent to Insane Asylum in Attempt to Frustrate Union.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—United States Senator J. Ralph Burton, of Kansas, was called upon today to defend himself in the United States circuit court against an indictment charging that he was offered and accepted compensation from the Rialto Grain and Securities Company, of St. Louis, now defunct, for using his influence while a member of the United States Senate in behalf of that concern in certain matters pending before the postoffice department at Washington.

Senator Burton was tried and convicted on the first indictment in March, 1904. He appealed to the United States supreme court, where the case was reversed. A new indictment was returned last spring, but demurrers filed by counsel for the defense were sustained. On Nov. 10, eight days before the statute of limitations would become effective, a third indictment was returned. Demurrers to this were overruled, and the case ordered to trial.

The salient point of difference between the first and third indictments is that in the former Senator Burton was charged with receiving the alleged compensation in Washington, D. C., and one of the defendants, Harry A. Connaught, who was among her guests, was appealed when she saw her hostess and desired to leave immediately, considering it unkind to impose the duty of entertaining on one so indisposed. It was persuaded that nothing would hurt the duchess more and the duke returned. Demurrers to this were granted for her fancy for discharging the duties of her grand dame to the last. The most extraordinary feature of her case is her own kindness toward her guests. She never without her guests for each and every again. In her circle it is rumored that she has made him solemnly promise he would marry Miss Dardel Wilson, whose beauty and talents they have long admired. The duchess thinks the duke should provide a direct heir for the title, which would be rather unfortunate for his nephew, Victor Cavendish, who has long been regarded as sure of the succession.

CHINA'S LITTLE BILL

Demands $20,000,000 From Russia and Japan for War Indemnity.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—Information has reached Washington which shows that the Chinese Government is well advanced in its task of estimating the damages to Chinese property by the late war between Russia and Japan. When the work is completed, perhaps some months from now, the whole amount will be put into the claim which the late belligerents will be asked to pay.

This possibly will amount to $20,000,000, the figure has been estimated at a total of $120,000,000, but is incomplete. Whether China will be reimbursed is a question. It is not thought now that the matter will be taken before the Hague tribunal, as would be the natural course, and China is confident that the two powers will settle without resort to arbitration.

A careful estimate has shown that during the Chinese war, 20,000 innocent Chinese lives were lost and some reparation will be demanded on this score.

There is but little doubt that the matter is being discussed now in Peking between Baron Komura and the Chinese ambassador. Baron Komura has gone to China on a special mission, the announced purport of which was to arrange a number of small matters which were brought up by the treaty of Portsmouth.

ESSEX TOBACCO CROP

Big and Profitable Yield is Report of a U. S. Consul.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Consul Martin, of Amherstburg, Ont., reports an excellent tobacco crop in his district, one not equaled in quality and quantity since 1890. Mr. Geogory, a North Carolina tobacco expert of the Empire Tobacco Company, puts the possible yield for this year at 12,000,000 pounds. He says the average yield per acre, called the burley, is the same as the Kentucky burley. Mr. Geogory says:

"The cost of raising and marketing an acre of tobacco in North Carolina is $41.25; average yield is 800 pounds, price realized, 8 cents per pound, or $6.40. The cost of production of an acre in Essex County, Ontario, Canada, is computed by competent authorities to be $45; average yield is 1,125 pounds, price realized per pound, seven years, 9 cents or $101.25 per acre.

Thus it appears that the profit from one acre in North Carolina is $22.75, and the same here is twice a month, or $45.25. While, as stated, 1,125 pounds is the average yield, 1,300 to 1,500 pounds is very common, and as high as 2,250 pounds have been taken on a single acre. It has become one of the staple crops in this district.

According to the statistical yearbook for 1904, there was imported into Canada for that year, 14,248,303, of which 13,287,780 pounds was from the United States.

TO HAVE UNIQUE WEDDING

Miss Etolse Breesse to Have Bridesmaids in Lavender.

London, Nov. 21.—Miss Etolse Breesse has received some lovely wedding presents. One, a gift from her mother, is a pair of black Russian sables, said to be almost priceless.

Miss Breesse is determined to have her wedding as novel as possible, and she has ordered lavender satin for her bridesmaids. She is tired of pinks and blues. These frocks will be edged with fur, and big picture hats will be worn, with bird-cage veils drooping from them. Tiny Miss Cavendish, grandniece of the Duke of Devonshire, is one of the child bridesmaids. Miss Annelise Breesse and Lady Dorothy Onslow, the daughter of the Earl of Onslow, are among the grown-ups. Miss Breesse and Lord Willoughby d'Tresby will visit his parents, the Earl and Countess of Ancester, at Grimsthorpe Castle, next week.

When Mrs. John W. Mackay takes up her residence at Carlton House Terrace there will be quite a transformation. She has bought a complete set of tapestries which will fit the panels. They are of great interest and of quite unusual kind as well as being of great value. The tapestries originally hung in the winter palace of St. Petersburg, but after the death of Catherine the Great, were, it is supposed, stolen.

Eventually they fell into the hands of King Gustave Adolphus of Sweden, and have been in possession of the Swedish royal family until quite recently, when they came into the market. The cost is said to be a quarter of a million dollars.

Excludes Unitarians.

New York, Nov. 20.—At its meeting today, the Interchurch conference on federation changed the wording of the phrase "Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour" in the preamble of the constitution of the federal council, to read "Jesus Christ our Divine Lord and Saviour." It was understood that this change will exclude the Unitarians from membership in the federal council, on the ground that they do not accept the theory of the divinity of Jesus Christ. This body was not invited to attend the conference on federation.

DUKE TO WED MISS WILSON

Duchess of Devonshire Wants Husband to Provide Heir to Family.

London, Nov. 21.—The old Duchess of Devonshire continues her amazingly piquant fight against neuritis, which is steadily growing worse and is now affecting her heart. She studiously ignores the duke's suggestion that she should underman her own house party at Chatsworth for the Derby races this week, though quite unable to go to the races herself. The Duchess of Devonshire is a woman of a very high order of intelligence and of a very high order of refinement. She is a woman of a very high order of intelligence and of a very high order of refinement. She is a woman of a very high order of intelligence and of a very high order of refinement.
