CRUISER IN HECATE STRAIT FIRES UPON AMERICAN POACHER

Latter Was Fishing in Canadian Waters and Would Not Surrender Until Brought to Time by Several Rounds From the Canadian's Guns.

Vancouver, B. C., April 21. — The Dominion Government cruiser Kestrel arrived in port today having in charge the American halibut fishing schooner Charles Levi Woodbury, which she captured after firing four rounds from her machine guns. She threatened to sink the Canadian fishing vessel unless she surrendered.

Washington, D. C., April 21. — The seizure of the Woodbury for alleged poaching will have a tendency to hasten the reaching of a definite understanding between the American and British Governments as to their attitude towards Hecate Strait, which the Canadians desire shall be regarded as a "closed sea," and the right of fishing therein denied to Americans.

Repeated efforts have been made by the state department to obtain from Great Britain a definition of its attitude regarding this body of water, the correspondence on the subject dating back ten years, but thus far without success. The United States takes the position that Hecate Strait is an open sea, but should the contrary view finally prevail it would have a serious effect on the fishing interests of Puget Sound.

The strait lies between the mainland of British Columbia and Queen Charlotte Island, and is 28 miles wide at its narrowest part.

The necessity for an early understanding on the vexed question is realized by both countries.

Death and Damage in Erie Gale

Cleveland, April 21. — A squall which swept along the southern shore and villages of Lake Erie today left death and ruin in its wake. The wind reached a velocity of nearly one hundred miles an hour for a few minutes. Trees and frame houses were blown down in all parts of the city. Lightning started many fires.

A young woman was blown into Wade Park pond and her life is in danger. The roof was blown from the main building of the Case School of Applied Science and from Adelbert College.

The grand march commenced at 9 o'clock, and was led by Mr. John Cox, the oldest member of the lodge, and his wife.

There were a number of old-fashioned dances on the programme, and they were much enjoyed.

SENATE DIVORCE BILLS SCORED BY ETHIER

Says Some of Them Have Been Passed Without Satisfactory Proof.

Ottawa, April 22. — A strong plea for greater stringency in the matter of granting divorce was made at a meeting of the committee on private bills today by Mr. J. A. C. Ethier, the chairman, who pointed out that this session there had been 21 divorce bills introduced in the senate, as compared with 3 or 4 in former sessions. He went on to remark that the action of the senate in this regard was beginning to be an abuse.

In cases of simple separation of property and body the judges of superior court were properly severe, but the senate, in passing bills of absolute divorce without any satisfactory proof of the only cause upon which divorces were granted by the parliament of the Empire.

Mr. Ethier said that eminent men in the United States had described the divorce system in that country as a social evil, and the same state of affairs might come to pass in Canada. He said that the senate should establish the principle that unless there was good evidence of adultery or of some other cause, no divorce should be granted. He said that in two or three cases which had come before the committee he had not been satisfied that the offence had been proven. In plain terms the senate was granting divorces upon evidence which was not acceptable to the courts as sufficient for separation. Because a man was a drunkard and a gambler it did not follow that a divorce should be granted his wife. He wished it to be understood that he was speaking not as a Roman Catholic, but on general principles.

FIELDING'S SHOWING CONSIDERED EXCELLENT

In View of the World-Wide Depression in Financial Circles at Present.

Ottawa, April 21. — George H. Perley, of Argenteuil, in a brief speech today, said the Government had pursued an improvident policy in arranging for vast expenditures with a falling revenue and a tight money market.

Mr. Lloyd Harris (Brantford), showed that in view of the world-wide depression the showing of the Finance Minister was very creditable. He devoted much of his speech to a criticism of Mr. Foster, and said that after a three hours' speech the latter had no suggestion to offer. He did not believe that the Conservatives had any policy.

H. B. Ames, of Montreal, declared that the net debt of Canada would be increased by several millions when the committee on the assets of the Dominion had finished its work. They had discovered many shrinkages.

He said that since 1896 $65,000,000 had been added to the public debt of Canada. He believed that in three years more another $75,000,000 would be added, and that before the next general election the public debt would be $140,000,000.

GOVT. SENDS EXPERT TO NIAGARA FALLS

Chief Engineer of Marine Department Will Endeavor to Solve the Situation.

Ottawa, April 22. — The chief engineer of the marine department is leaving this afternoon for Niagara to see what measures should be taken to relieve the situation. The marine authorities state that they would be only too glad to send an expert to Niagara if it were possible to do so. But the only Canadian boats which would be able to cope with the situation would be the powerful breakers which are at Quebec and which have been operating on a somewhat similar basis. The fact that the breakers are at Quebec is a serious matter, as they are not only powerful, but they are also equipped with dynamite, which is a very dangerous weapon. The chief engineer will endeavor to solve the situation by sending an expert to Niagara to see what measures should be taken to relieve the situation.

BASKERVILLE KILLED

LEADING FORLORN HOPE

Had Victory in Hand Twice But His Followers Lacked Courage.

London, Thursday, April 22. — The Chronicle prints a Tabriz dispatch, describing the death of H. C. Baskerville, a young American teacher, who on March 31 sacrificed his position as master of the mission school to help the defence of the starving town. The correspondent, explaining that profound demoralization succeeded the former courage and confidence of the defenders, says that Baskerville himself five times arranged to attack the besiegers, with a prospect of success, but each time the courage of the local authorities failed, and the organization broke down. Then the chance of success was gone, the authorities in dire despair appealed to Baskerville to lead the attack, of which they had disapproved. Baskerville pointed out the hopelessness of an attack, as the demoralization of the citizen troops was complete. Finally, however, he consented, although he knew he would lead a forlorn hope. After waiting at the rendezvous for five hours for his men to assemble, Baskerville gallantly began an attack with this handful, but was shot through the heart at the head of his followers, dying almost instantly.

The correspondent also led a force which similarly deserted him, but those who remained kept on fighting, aided by soldiers from the British, hours, when their ammunition being gone, and the city ceasing to support them, they abandoned their position and retired.
