FIELDING GIFT FROM PRIVATE SOURCES

Premier Denies That It Was Contribution of Corporations Or Contractors.

Ottawa, May 3.-On a motion to go into supply today, A. C. Boyce (Algoma), introduced the subject of recent gift of money to Hon. Mr Fielding. He declared the Premier had criticized a similar gift to Sir Hector Langevin in 1891, calling it a dangerous thing. Mr. Boyce said that because Mr. Fielding had accepted a gift of $120,000 while occupying office, it became a matter for the consideration of the donors. Mr. Boyce, in conclusion, asked the scribers and the amount subscribed. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said it was per-The Advertiser is the recog- feetly true that in 1891 Sir Richard nized Help Wanted medium of Cartwright had introduced a resolution condemning the acceptance of gifts by London, consequently it offers public men. It was a matter of noto Sir John A. Macdonald, just the same as to Mr. Fielding, but he not aware that any fault had been found in that particular case. There were other testimonials, however, and the resolution of 1891 was introduced because of a testimonial given to Sir Hector Langevin. The Premier said he would have preferred not to have to speak of these facts, but the resolution of 1891 was introduced because it was charged. not in the press of his (Langevin's) opponents, but in Conservative news papers, that contractors had contributed to that fund. Some men had given their lives to their country, and made no provision for their old age; if there was any man who had done so, and who was above reproach, or rebuke, it was Mr. Fielding. He was a man with a delicate sense of honor, and he did not believe that Mr. Fielding would accept anything from a con-The friends of Mr. Fielding, con-

Church Rishop Anderson made as Church, Bishop Anderson made a powerful argument for the universality of the Christian religion and an earnest plea for Christian unity, The evening meeting was addressed Lord William Cecl of England: Mr. J. Campbell Whte, secretary of the laymen's movement, and Dr. J. A. Macdonald, of Toronto. The enthusiastic reception to the Englishman and the Canadian illustrated the international spirit of the congress as well as its interdenominational character. Mr. White, in a magnificent survey of the movement and its objective, declared tonight that the past six months had witnessed a campaign of united effort such as America never saw before. LOCAL OPTION QUASHED. Toronto, May 3.—The local option bylaw of the township of Dunwich was quashed this morning by Mr. Justice Riddell on the grounds that notice has been improperly posted, and that the advertisements had been put up at Dutton, which is not in the township, with the order of the council. His lordship in giving his decision crit-icised the municipal authorites for not earrying out the provisions of the law. which he held were plainly stated and
