SAINTS SCORE WINNING RUN IN NINTH WITH TWO OUT

Deneau Loses His Second Game Inside of Week in the Final Session-Game Was Tied Right Up To Last

Inning—Score 5 to 4.

[BY JINX.]
St. Thomas, June 24.—Rube Deneau lost in the ninth inning for the second time in less than a week, when the Saints beat him out in the final stanzapf an interesting game at Pinafore Park today by the score of 5 to 4. Previous to the closing session, the game had been tied at the end of every inning. Two men were out in the ninth ning. Two men were out in the ninth process. In all the St. Thomas outfield had 10 putouts, so that the London players were locating Howick's benders. Bierbauer vious to the closing session, the game had been tied at the end of every in-ning. Two men were out in the ninth and Wright was on third base when Powers came to bat. He hit the first ball Deneau pitched for a grounder through the pitching box, the ball rollng out to Reidy in centre field. Wright rotted home, and the Saints had made it two straight from the Deneau

Score Tied Until Ninth, It was a nicely-played game from the beginning, and it was anybody's the beginning, and it was anybody's victory up to the ninth inning. London got to Howick in the first inning after two men were out, and sent two runs across the pan. In the Saints' half Deneau was also touched up after two men were out and two runs were scored. In the third inning, London went out and added another run, but the Saints came right back in their half and tied it up again. In the seventh London took the lead again when Dunlop hit a homer, but the Saints were right on the job again, and in their half they tallied one and evened the count for the third time. It looked just as if St. Thomas was teasing the their half they tallied one and evened the count for the third time. It looked just as if St. Thomas was teasing the London bunch along, and waiting for the ninth inning so as to effect a grand climax. And sure enough, the ninth inning brought the grand climax. Couldn't Hit Them Safe.

The London club had no trouble in locating Howlek, but the greatest difficulty was in placing the hits just where the fielders could not reach them. 'Midge' Craven, the Saints' trouble-maker, had a birthday in the field, getting no less than six putouts, the majority of his catches being of the sensational variety. In the seventh he tried to pull a trick that gave Dunlop a home run. Dunny was first up in that inning, and he poled the pill to deep right-centre. Both Craven and Kustus started to run for it, and Craven appeared to be getting under it. Just as the ball was coming down he stretched out his mit and apparently caught it. He kept on running and Dunlop reached first and siarted for the bench. Craven made no effort to throw the ball into the infield again, however, and one of the London players, smelling a "at, yelled for Dunlop to get back on first. The big London shortstop scampered back to the bag and started for second, Craven, meanwhile,
