THE WOMAN'S PAGE

WOMEN OF LONDON THINK OF ELECTIONS

Local Council Asked To Oppose Extremes in Dress.

Jection at the beginning of the year, urday, clean kitchen and bake.

Every day, carpet sweep, use oiled groon's meeting of sub executive of the local Council of Women hold. Swas made evident at yesterday affermoon's meeting of sub executive of the local Council of Women, held at Cronyn Hall, with Mrs. E. B. Smith, the president in the chair. The extensive is being questioned from different quarters as to what the women of London are going to do in regard to the nominating of candidates. Some of the members yesterday thought hat the women of London should follow the suggestion of the National Council corresponding secretary. Mrs. Lydia Parsons, and put a woman candidate in wherever it was possible. The majority, however, seemed to be of the printed that where a good man candidate was nominated the women hould support him, rather than try candidate of their own; that in the matter of an election they should not fork along lines of their with the men of the community; and that the "Citizenship Committee" appointed last fail for the purpose of tudying affairs of the state and mulcirality should be purely educational. tudying affairs of the state and mu-icipality should be purely educational. Communication.

n important communication from National Council of Women asked women of London this year interthemselves along the lines of hous-and moving picture problems; that undertake to formulate onion so as to bring about earlier burs for entertainment for young cople; that they oppose energetically extremes in dress; that they con-er favorably Armenian relief, and t they promote the movement to uce the people of the community and at attention during the singing the National Anthem. This comcil should consider the organizing a girls' auxiliary to promote in in local council work. asked the Council of Women to t in guiding the country's wel-in regard to industrial conditions, er bloyment, fuel and rent problems, unced that the next meeting of the national council and that the next meeting in connection with the lo-W. C. A., King street, at 4:15

ing for a tea and musical to be this winter in memory of Mrs. mer's annual drawing-room sale, to raise funds for the council asury. It is possible that this teal be held at Mrs. Harry Kings-l's home, Mrs. Kingsmill having ofher home for this purpose last

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

with or without , jean, flanne: and flannelette nay be omitted. The pat-48 inches breast measure. Size 31 res 2% yards of 36-inch material, out sleeves. With sleeves it re-is 31/5 yards of the same wilth, pattern of this illustration mailed silver or stan ps.

leasurement Bust..... Walst..... it goes under the head of advertising

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the bove illustration, and send size of lettern wanted. When the pattern is six measure, you need only mark 38, or whatever it may be. When in laist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or mid's pattern, write only the figure spresenting the age, it is not necessary of write "inches" or "years." Patterns annot reach you in less than one week om the date of application.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[By Cynthia Grey] S YOUR household well regulated? Are you a good manager? Do not housework be a bug-bear. Plan a let housework be a bug-bear. Plan a system for your home. Have a definite schedule of doing your work. Monday, wash; Tuesday, That the women of the city are iron; Wednesday, clean bathroom thoroughly and wash kitchen floor; Thursday, sweep and dust downstairs; etion, as well as the municipal Friday, sweep and dust upstairs; Sat-

A SEND-OFF. Dear Miss Grey,-Could I come to your corner for some help? I work in the Bell Telephone office. One of the girls is leaving the office, and we are going to have a party for her. We are wondering how we can help to entertain young men and women. suggest something to help pass away the time—do you the evening dancing or playing cards.

ATTENTION. DECEMBER BRIDE!

Dear Miss Grey,-We are regular readers of your column and much interested. I am a native of London, England, resident in the new London a short time, but, for good, I hope. Will you please inform December Bride that my parents' home is at present on Prince Regent's Lane, near Beckton Park, and we all went to Cave Road School, Barking road, with night school at Balsam street, and am in possession of a small board my young brother made at "manual," I believe at Credon road. first came to Canada in 1911, went back in 1916 till 1919, and worked in Danger Buildings, Royal Laboratory Woolwich Arsenal. I think the sys-tem in schools superior to Canada, and, in my own experience, think the teachers better qualified, older and firmer, but no criticism is meant by my remarks. Some time later I can help your circle, so I wish you would keep my address on file. All good wishes from a MAY BRIDE.

> Sends a Large Mite. Dear Miss Grey,-Here I come again with a few more seeds for the Mail-Box, also a little for the S. C. H., and only wish it were more; but, as the old saying Is, wore; but, as the old saying as every little helps. I am inclosing a recipe for a Tilden cake, which is very good; One cup pulverized or granulated sugar, 1 cup butter, 1 cup sweet milk, 3 cups flour, half cup cornstarch, 4 eggs, 2 teaspoons lemon baking powder, 2 teaspoons lemon or vanilla extract. After cake has been loed sprinkle cocoanut on top. Please send me Apple Face's ad-dress, also a sachet, if there are any in, or directions for making me; also the S. F. P. Hope I am not asking too much. Will call again soon with more help. With best wishes to all, as before, YORKSHIRE GIRL. P. S.—Did Lonesome Wife re-ceive the pieces she asked for? If not, I could send the words of the sailor song.

Thank you for sending us such a large mite, and the seeds; also for charing one of your favorite recipes with us. In return, I am mailing you a stocking foot pattern, sachet directions, and Apple Face's address. No. onesome Wife did not receive the

Is Starting a Garden
Dear Miss Grey,—Will you kindly send me Jemsey's and Welsh Gwen's addresses, also any seeds you have in the Mail-Box, as I am just commencing a garden, which at present consists of some sunflowers and lily of the valley roots? flowers and lily of the valley roots I never received the hollyhocks. It was printed that they were being mailed to me, and I was disappointed. Mite inclosed for the fund. SUSSEX GIRL.

I am sorry that you did not receive the hollyhock seeds, but am mailing you a variety of seeds this time; also any address on receipt of 15 cents

Welsh Gwen's address, but Jemsey's is not on file. Good luck to your garden, Sussex Girl, and many thanks for the Name hospital mite.

Musician.—If you will send a self-addressed, stamped envelope, I will be pleased to send you the seeds you ask

FOR A BAZAAR.

Dear Miss Grey.—As I did not see my last letter in print, I thought I would try again. I see where I can be of some help this time. Bill and Blinky wants the words of "Let the Rest of the World Go By." Please forward the same. I would like to correspond with someone my own

I have dark, curly hair, brown eyes

NEW MARCHIONESS

WILL LEAD SOCIETY.

LONDON, Sept. 28. — The new Marchioness of Milford Haven is a society woman, who at the same shows a keen interest in club work. She was formerly the Countess of Medina, inheriting the new title with her husband.

SIMPLICITY MARKS RUSSIAN TROUSSEAU

rerial as the dress.

For her lingeric, Princess Xenla has chosen garments of fine white linen, hand embroidered, instead of the more usual crepe de chine or georgette.

The Girls' Council, when a supper smith, who in Montreal, present and an open forum conducted.

Friday nights will be social nights.

FROSERT COUNCIL, when a supper smith, who in Montreal, present and an open forum conducted.

Mrs. Rex. 6 children has

Is Child's Life Less Valuable Than Car?

THAT a chance on a child's life is surely as worth while as a chance on an automobile, is the feeling of the Children's people feel that they are being treated fair, however, in regard to the recent raffling of a car in aid of the hospital, which was stopped by the orders of the attorney-general, several memers of this committee will be at the Bank of Toronto Chambers on Wednesday of next week to refund their money to any wishing to call for it. But, for the children's sake, they are hoping that many won't call.

and fair complexion. Please tell me what color I could wear the best. Hope to be more help next time. I guess I had better skidoo before ! am kicked out.

TROUBLESOME PEGGY. P. S.-We are having a bazaar.

PRAISES WHISTLER. Dear Miss Grey,-Just few lines to bother you again. Will you please send me Canaan's address? I Inclose stamped, addressed envelope. would also like the following addresses: Motherless Miss, Lilly Dale, Cripple Annie and Ura Kidd. Now, I must say a good word about the Whistler. She certainly is a splen-did girl, and I think all who come better for it. Please inclose Plain Harry's address too. Now I guess I'd better skedaddle, BEATRICE. orwarded to you Beatrice.

What Women Are Accomplishing in London.

G. W. V. A. WOMEN'S AUXILIARY. with Miss Audrey Farncomb. Mrs. J. F. Thompson and Mrs. Wm. Adams were appointed the local delegates to attend the big Ontario convention of G. W. V. A. Women's Auxiliaries to be held shortly in Toronto, the appointment being made at V. A. Auxiliary. Mrs. Cunliffe was wedding this week. V. A. Auxiliary. Mrs. Cumine was named as an alternative. The next meeting of the auxiliary will take the form of a tea on Tuesday afternoon, october 11. Plans are being made for October 11. Plans are being made for avenue. Mrs. Eccles entertained at a avenue. Mrs. Eccles entertained at a the holding of a concert in the Masonic Temple on October 25 in aid of the auxiliary funds, which funds, they expect, while are many calls this winter.

Col. Beattie, who is to be impect, while are many calls this winter. owing to the scarcity of employment.

INDUSTRIAL GIRLS' FEDERATION. and Mrs. George Reid, Central avenue.

The social meeting to be held tonight at "Lenmore" by the Girls' Federation, is the opening of the work for the season among the industrial girls' clubs. In Mrs. Lydia Parsons, who is to be the for home. guest of honor, they have a splendid nobbies being the minimum wage question. Registration for classes will be London. Sept. 28.—Great simplicity and particular attention to line characterize the gowns being made for the tresseau of Princess Xenia, youngest daughter of the Grand Duchess George of Russia, who is to marry William Leeds of New York.

A black charmeuse dress, made with a long skirt, has for its only ornament some gauging on either hip, giving a swathed belt effect.

tion. Registration for classes will be begun next week, a very fine program having been drawn up for the club having been drawn up for the club work. Monday classes will include "The Interpretation of the Hebrew Prophets," led by Mrs. John Craw-ford, and "Industrial and Social Problems," directed by T. D. McCullough. Music will be the subject on Tuesday nights, under the direction of Mrs. Harman Westland, while Wednesdays will be reserved for physical work, under the direction of Miss Edith Pryce. Thursdays are divided, the Pryce. Thursdays are divided, the swathed belt effect.

mer course at Columbia University, was the speaker for the first meeting of the Froebel Society this week. The new officers, Miss Windsor, the president, and Miss Cook, the secretary, officiated for the first time, the meeting proving a most interesting one. Plans are being made for a big season's work, which may include the bringing of some prominent speakers to the city.

Miss Luta Laymon, whose marriage affairs occur.

Miss Luta Laymon, whose marriage takes place in October, is to be the guest of honor at a number of intersecting functions. On Wednesday nxet esting functions on the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with extension one of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with extension one of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with extension one of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a square of the fabric have been achieved with a s work was an important piece of business, the subjects chosen being: "Laws For Women and Children"; Motherhood and its Relations to the Problems of the Day"; Courtesy in the Home"; "Co-operation With the School"; "What Books Our Children Should Read," and "How Habit Bears on Character-Building." A vocal solo by Mrs. Self, and readings by Miss Helen Collyer were included in the program. The club is planning a bazaar to be held on October 28.

A very enjoyable weiner roast took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, 1245 York street, when they entertained the children of Mrs. and these types have the nipped-in waist, plain and flat across the back, with narrow bandings of fur in a future spent in his company would not be quite so attractive in her eyes. "Tell me about them," cooed Miss favored in cloth, as it is in silk. The cloth models have sold in greater numbers and are as popular as the bright velvets in the plain or slip-on styles.

The design sketched is one of the simple models, depending upon the material and trimming for its charm. Made of black velvet. The voice of the properties of the models will be copled here not only in broadcloth, but the more supple materials.

Several of these types have the nipped-in waist, plain and flat across the back, with narrow bandings of fur in a future spent in his company would not be quite so attractive in the plain or slip-on styles.

The design sketched is one of the simple models, depending upon the materials.

Several of these types have the nipped-in waist, plain and flat across the back, with narrow bandings of fur in a future spent in his compan of the Chesley Avenue Mothers class to continue her training as a nurse in paristan designers, and there is no held at the schoool. This was the first meeting of the season, and the choosing of subjects for the year's work was an important piece of busing the season and the place recently at the home of Mr. and there is no doubt but that these models will be copied here not only in broadcloth, but the more supple materials.

Several of these types have the nip-

Could you tell me something suitable to make?—T. P.

You did not inclose your name and address, so send it in, in case you receive some correspondents. To be well dressed you should wear those colors which match your eyes, blue, brown, tan, green, maroon; in fact, most all the colors and shades will go with a good complexion. For your bazaar, you could make lingerle pins, made by putting ribbon bows on tiny gold safety pins; powder stakers, by punching holes in the top of celluloid kewpies, then cut a hole in the back for the powder, and cover hole with a piece of adhesive tage. If you send me a stamped, addressed envelope, I could give you any amount of suggestions.

Held on October 28.

VICTORIA M. C.

The Victoria Mothers' Club is planting a rummage sale to be held on October 5, on the corner of King and Ridou streets. Plans were made at the big social meeting of the club held this week at the school, when nearly 100 members were present. This week's meeting, the first of the season, took the form of a reception to the teachers of the school, and proved an undoubted success. The program included vocal solos by Mrs. Barrows; dances by Miss Peggy Robbins; violin solo by Master Douglas Goodge, and 100 of the sleeves were of black rerey embed on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Lilly May Garry of Lobo became the bride of Mr. Alfred Edgar Finley of Sarnia, the Rev. Mr. Bingham officiating. The couple, who were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ellacott of this city, will reside in Sarnia.

WEBBER—McTAVISH.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. A. C. Bingham of Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Lilly May Garry of Lobo became the bride of Mr. Alfred Edgar Finley of Sarnia, the Rev. Mr. Bingham officiating. The couple, who were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Cally Mrs. All Mrs. Cally A. G. Cress, president of the club. Mrs. H. B. White, and Mrs. Cad-wallader were the hostesses for the board, read at this meeting, the aid received great praise for its work in connection with the London Conference with me for a day or two permits of the wolf dog struck a clearing. Wolf dog struck a clearing. Though he was loathe to stay idle, the wolf dog decided to accept the wolf dog decided to accept the wolf dog decided to accept the "This surely must be where man lives". This surely must be where man lives and place with the black clouds quarters of the bears.

ASKIN STREET LADIES' AID.

THE WOLF DOG.

At last the great news came from a young bear who had been traveling.

"The mother wolf was caught by the hunters and carried off alive," the young bear told the wolf dog. "By this time she will either be dead from worrying, or is a prisoner in a circus cage, for these were circus hunters."

—that odd place with the black clouds coming out of the tree stuck on top of it, must be a house where man lives," he told himself, as he slunk back into the woods and waited for nightfall. His hair was all bristled up and great anger was in his heart, yet there was a funny tugging feeling in his heart that he couldn't understand either. How he wondered what it was? for these were circus hunters."
"Man has brought harm to the mother wolf after all," the wolf dog declared.

bear's hospitality, so it was that he spent the next two days at the head
"This surely must be where man lives spent the next two days at the head
"This surely must be where man lives a tight band above the wrist are being and we hate everybody hates us a tight band above the wrist are being and we hate everybody, let us go for a walk.

[To Be Continued.] (Copyrighted, British and "I shall make man pay for this," and Press, Limited.)

friends in Hamilton. Miss Anderson of Toronto is a guest

Miss Elizabeth Brodison, 827 Lorne avenue, has returned home after a six

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Eccles of Win-Mrs. Cotterill of Toronto is a guest and silver

Col. Beattie, who is to be inducted as minister of the First Presbyterian Church tonight, is a guest with Mr

Mrs. Schell and Miss Marion Schel of Berkeley, California, who have been guests with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Somerville, Piccadilly street, left this week

Mr. Frank Stirling of Woodstock paid speaker, who will discuss industrial a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Stein problems with them, one of her chief of Colborne street before going to Tonto, where he will attend McMaster children, has gone to Hamilton, where FROEBEL SOCIETY.

Miss Laura Cook, who has just returned to the city after taking a summer course at Columbia University, where the preaker for the first meeting.

by Miss Elia Davis of the Lord King chener Nursing Division, assisted by Miss Hoffman and Mrs. Allen, was the chief feature of this week's meeting of the Chesley Avenue Mothers' Club held at the schoool. This was the leaves to the season, and the leaves to the season, and the leaves to the season and the leaves to the leaves to the season and the leaves to the le of navy tricotine, prettily embroidered, a black picture hat and ermine fur ASKIN STREET LADIES' AID.

A large number were present at this week's meeting of the Askin Street Ladies' Aid, when plans for the year's bride's home, Mrs. Gilbert Gillies and work, under the presidency of Mrs. Mrs. Murray D. Wickett assisting in Isaac Marlatt, were made. In a letter the dining-room. The bride was the from the secretary of the quarterly recipient of many beautiful and use-

THE WOLF DOG.

(Part Thirteen.)

Now, the wolf dog was known far and wide and respected by all the animals of the forest, so he had not traveled far when he learned some great news. The carrier of news was none other than the leader of the bears.

"The good mother wolf was not killed, or she was not caught in a trap, else I would have known all about it, if she had been, for my bears report everything to me," the leader of the bears declared. "If you will just stay with me for a day or two perhaps I can find out something for you."

Though he was loathe to stay idle,

Though he was loathe to stay idle,

Though he was loathe to stay idle,

Sleeves made of deep fringe which falls from the shoulder and is caught in we conclude that everybody hates us

Floating sleeves of all kinds, which are not caught to the hand, but more that are, are a feature of the newest frocks.

Snake and alligator shoes, a Paris fad, are reported not as ultra as they sound, and are receiving favorable comment Colonial from those who have returned from

THE FASHIONS

[By Eleanor Gunn.] (Copyrighted by the Fairchild Company.)

JEWELED MOTIFS SURPLEMENT

BRIGHT COLORS. have been many imported weeks' visit in Toledo and Walkerville. gowns displayed in bright colored velvet, some with brocade trimmings, and some with trimmings of rhinestones or nipeg, who were married in this city other jeweled motifs, and a number with the recent meeting of the local G. W. 50 years ago, celebrated their golden bandings of silver and lace. Several important types have been featured in metal cloth, with a preference for silver and silver tinted tissue-gorgeous afwith Dr. and Mrs. Eccles, Princess fairs which are only for those whose five hundred. This meant she would ments.

CHESLEY AVENUE M. C.

Miss Babby Moore was the hostess of a very happy little luncheon party held of demonstration of first aid, given Miss Ella Davis of the Lord Kit-Ward, who is home from Montreal and those who went to Paris and bought too

The bride looked charming in a suit and irregular skirt lines, with much fur used in trimming.

HOME ECONOMICS

[By Mrs. Elizabeth Kent.] Macdonald College

EFFECT OF BODY ON MIND. received great praise for its work in connection with the London Conference meeting held in the city last spring. The work on the farsonage, amounting to $500, was reported. The aid is planning a rummage sale to be held on October 21, and a sale of work on October 21, and a sale of work of the held of the Burns of 935 Coloorne street, became the bride of Mr. John McLarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McLarty of St. Marys, the Rev. Father Finn officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a smart suit of navy broadcloth trimmed with beaver, a feather hat, and corsage of Sunset roses, while Miss Mary McLarty, beaver, a feather hat, and corsage of Sunset roses, while Miss Mary McLarty, sister of the groom, who acted as bridesmaid, was gowned in navy silk trimmed with jet, a small blue plush toque, and wore a corsage of Richmond roses. Mr. Jack Burns, brother of the bride, was best man, and during the signing of the register, Miss Alma Connor sang "Because," Miss Dromgole presiding at the organ.

Only the immediate relatives and friends were present, a wedding break-incomposite to the program of the program of the register. The produce a distempered state of mind. Through self-control, that is through mental pressure on the nervous system, we can for a time repress the consequent irritation and drive the poisders. The fresh air has a tonic effect on all the systems of the body. Before walk.

> (Copyright, 1921, by the Metropolitan Newspaper Sevice.)

The winter months are coming. Why not get in touch with the La Salle Extension University and cash in on your spare time?
IMPERIAL BANK CHAMBERS.

At Cupid's Call | CHANCE IS GIVEN TO

By May Christle. (Copyright, 1921, by McClure News-paper Syndicate.)

XCI.—A Shock For Eve. Eve's mood that day was one of tense excitement. She had achieved two 'coups''-more, even three! First came the engagement with poor

Dick Calardin. Second-really more important stillcame the reward. Twenty-five hundred grant this year and the cut in their Third-Dick had gone surety for her when she borrowed a further twenty-definitely scored off Miss Mary Drew. such a feat that increased this year the girl. Julian, too, was arriving this very Julian, too, was arriving this very afternoon. Small wonder, then, that as the Day Nursery in the city has Parnassus.

An hour or two remained until the period of Julian's arrival. She certainly must make the most of it, she told herself. She must find out all she herself. She must find out all sale could about Dick's diamond.

"Dick, dear:" The two of them were playing billiards at the time. "Dick, there's no earthly good in competing against you in this game. You're miles ahead of me." She put her cue down, pouting prettily. "I wish I had your skill. You must excuse me entering the lists against you."

help to send their donations to Mrs. J. M. Slater on Waterloo street. Mrs. W. S. Partridge, Elmwood avenue, or to the Day Nursery on King street.

A black and white knitted suit, with unbelted box coat, was selected as an apropriate traveling dress by a French woman visiting this country. the lists against you.'

Dick lackadaisically complied. He had no heart in anything today.
"Let's have a cosy little chat together." Eve led him to a cushioned vindow-seat set in a deep embrasure. "Dick, once we're married, what are we going to live upon?"

Eve's curiosity got the better of her judgment. She knew this question was not tactful—it even was unseemly. But she had the upper hand of Dick Calardin now.
"Not that I care a bit for money, just so long as I can have you, my dear!" Her smile was very sweet. "But my guardian's sure to ask all sorts of queer, straight-to-the-point questions."

"Haven't you a profession of some Eve drew away from him. Her fiance -he had been a common tramp!

creditable! offering Eve a cigarette. "It really a cheery life. Of course, one often very hungry, and one doesn't always get a wash as often as one would like, and shaving is a kind of luxury—"
"Good heavens!" ejaculated Eve. Her eyes were almost popping out of her head in sheer astonishment. She never heard the like of this before "But then beggars can't be choosers," Dick went on. Eve sat up. "You are exaggerating! "Oh, no, I'm not! I really like a wandering life! dering life!"

He now began to sketch the various details of a "hobo's" existence. He painted it in glowing colors—from his own point of view, that is. To the history of stone-breaking by the roadside, cattle herding in the wild and woolly west, transport driving on the South Africa veldt, gold digging South Artica to Alaska, pearl fishing in the South Sea Islands—why, it all seemed like a ridiculous, fantastic dream!

"You don't expect me to share in such a rough-and-ready career?" Her voice was no longer soft and sweet, but igh and shrill. "I never heard of anything so—so useless."

"Maybe it was," rejoined Dick tran-

Tomorrow-Mary Scores.

"But it's a happy life. I'd go

HELP DAY NURSERY

Board Members Will Hold Rummage Sale.

Day Nursery financial needs are becoming more serious every day. With the cessation of the Red Cross Society Fund committee, the Nursery Board is this year faced with the problem of having to run the institution on King street on half the money which was never have to pay it back.

And — a fourth "coup"—she had the number of children attending the She had stolen Mary's sweetheart from the cirl necessity of raising more money or closing the nursery.

Eve was figuratively perched upon induced the board to make an effort to raise funds, and the first move will be a runmage sale to be held on Saturday morning of this week at the Day Nursery, King street, and the board is asking people who wish to help to send their donations to Mrs.

spangles, black silk hand-painted and

It is rumored that velvet shoes will be chosen to wear with velvet frocks.

There is Strength in Every Tablet

sorts of queer, straight-to-the-point questions."

"I'm not afraid of him," said Dick, with curtness. "And—Eve—maybe it's better to be frank just now and tell how the land lies, financially. Well, I have some property in the west—some real estate—but I'm losing money on it every day. Throwing good money after bad—that's what we call it.

"I have some mining interests, too—but rather rocky. To tell the candid truth, I'm not in a position to ask any girl to marry me at all."

This was a shock for Eve—the mercenary!

"But—but—you did ask me!" she stammered, her face flushing.

Dick did not answer. Instead, he looked straight into Eve's eyes. Her flush deepened. She knew that the 'asking' had been on her side, not on his, but that he had too much chivalry to tell her so.

She changed her tack.

"Hayen't you a profession of some"

NUXATEDIRON

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages. Keep Horlick's Always on Hand Quick Lunch; Home or Office.

LADIES WHO ARE USED TO BUYING

Ultra Fine Millinery WILL FIND OUR MODELS ARE SURE

Smith & Hessey

188 DUNDAS STREET

(Entrance through Brick & Dundas)

TO MEET WITH THEIR APPROVAL.