

KING CHARGES MEIGHEN TRIES TO BUY SEATS

Reveals Appropriation of Millions of Dollars in Last Few Days.

RAPS AUTOCRATIC RULE

Promises To Name Cabinet of Ablest Men in All Canada.

OSHAWA, Ont., Nov. 29.—(By Canadian Press staff correspondent).—The return of Mr. Meighen's government means an indorsement of autocracy for another five years. The return of Mr. Meighen and the Progressives means a leap in the dark to no one knows what, but the return of a Liberal administration of Tuesday next, will mean the formation of a cabinet composed of the best men from every province in Canada representing agriculture, labor, returned soldiers and the business, professional and commercial classes.

This was the declaration of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, in concluding his address to some 2,000 Oshawa and district people at the armories tonight.

"The cabinet should be a mirror of the constituent elements of the nation, not represented there as groups, but each co-operating and working together for the good of the whole Dominion," Mr. King declared. "If I am chosen at the head of the next government, as I expect I will be, my aim will be to gather about me the best men from every class and province and with them seek to bring Canada back to prosperity and harmony, such as she greatly needs."

When Mr. King rose to speak a man at one side of the hall shouted: "Where were you in the war?" and quickly from another man came the retort: "The same place as Arthur Meighen."

Back Two-Party System.

The Liberal leader spoke strongly in favor of the two-party system in Canada.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

Helps to break up colds

When you feel a cold coming on, put plenty of Sloan's Liniment on your throat, chest and back just before going to bed. It starts warm, tingling circulation that keeps the cold from "settling" and helps break it up, while its healthy vapors soothe and clear the lungs and throat. Don't rub—don't bandage—it penetrates.

Made in Canada.

Keep it handy.

To Keep Hair Wavy, Lustrous, Beautiful

The use of the hot curling-iron cannot be too strongly condemned. It means death to the hair eventually. Moreover it is entirely unnecessary. The hair can be kept beautiful and in perfect condition to any extent and in any form desired, by using the simple and harmless silmerine method. Liquid silmerine should be applied to the hair before doing it up, using a clean tooth brush. In about three hours you will find that a very pretty "natural" wave and curliness has resulted, and the effect will last quite a considerable time.

Liquid silmerine is really beneficial and is not sticky nor greasy. Neither does it streak the hair nor stain the scalp. You need not only a few ounces from your druggist. The best way is to divide the front and back hair into four to six strands and to moisten each strand separately from root to tip—Adv.

Entire Town Inundated by Tidal Wave.

MANILA, Nov. 29.—The entire town of Ibaay, in the province of Capiz, was inundated by a tidal wave Sunday and many houses, with their contents, swept out to sea, according to dispatches from the postmaster of Ibaay.

Dispatches to constabulary headquarters said that the town of Mecoto in the same province was also submerged by a tidal wave and more than a hundred natives drowned.

ada, "as opposed to group movements and coalitions, which inevitably cause no end of log-rolling." He outlined what he considered "the fundamental differences between Toryism and Liberalism."

The former, said Mr. King, was against any change even for improvement, while the latter shared its benefits with all the people in its country. In the Progressive movement there was a tendency to seek change simply for the sake of change.

The present National Liberal and Conservative party was discredited even among Conservatives, Mr. King declared. Neither the name, policy nor the party had been chosen by the people.

"That party does not stand for anything in this country except those few men who were anxious to carry on the interests of small groups to the detriment of the people as a whole," asserted Mr. King.

Mr. King criticized the government for burdening future generations with debt, making appointments and filling up the Senate with men of the mind and type of the prime minister to prevent the passage of any reform legislation. The fact that such an issue as usurpation was before the people should in itself have brought about unity among those of Progressive Liberal thought in their present fight.

Shielded Profiteers.

"The Meighen government was in no way justified in dealing with post-war problems," Mr. King argued. The government had refused an investigation of James Murdoch's charges, said Mr. King, and thus stood condemned of having shielded profiteers at the expense of the people.

The Liberal leader referred also to the London tax payments and sugar price restrictions, showing what influences were behind the government.

The loans to Greece and Rumania were also dealt with, it being charged that these loans were expended in buying manufactured goods from the government's friends.

"In the last few days this country has been committed to millions of dollars, for which no appropriation has been made," Mr. King declared. A drydock had been given to Vancouver at the cost of millions of dollars, in an attempt "to buy a seat for a minister."

A contract had also been given to Montreal, if Mr. King's information was correct, and a former minister of the crown had been appointed a commissioner to investigate certain matters between Canada and Labrador.

"If the people knew what is being done behind the door of the council chamber in Ottawa, the last few days, they would see that Mr. Meighen's government was trying to buy its way back into power by one means and another," said Mr. King.

L. O. Clifford, Liberal candidate in South Ontario, and Mr. E. M. Sinclair, Liberal, M.L.A., also spoke at the meeting.

HEDLEY SHAW, BIG MILL OWNER, DIES

Prominently Identified With Canadian Grain Business For Years.

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Hedley Shaw, vice-president and managing director of the Maple Leaf Milling Company of the Hedley Shaw Milling Company of Medicine Hat, died at his residence here this morning. Mr. Shaw had been in poor health for some time. He was seriously ill.

Mr. Shaw had long been prominently identified with the grain and milling business in Canada. Starting as an apprentice in a flour mill near Brantford in 1884 he was soon able to go into business for himself, purchasing a mill at Brantford, where he remained until 1893. In 1898 he acquired mills at Oakville and formed the Hedley Shaw Milling Company, Limited, of which he became president. He later built mills at St. Catharines and Thorold. In 1907 he purchased the site at Port Colborne on which is located the Port Colborne mill of the Maple Leaf Milling Company. This mill is reputed to be the largest mill under one roof in the British Empire.

In 1908 he amalgamated his company with the Maple Leaf Flour Mills at Kenora and in 1910 the Maple Leaf Milling Company was formed. Mr. Shaw became vice-president and managing director.

Mr. Shaw was born near Hamilton in 1866, and received his early education in Brantford. In 1889 he was married to Annette Mitchell of Troy, Ont. He is survived by his widow, one son, Leroy, and a daughter, Edna.

STRIKE FLOW OF GAS IN WELLAND

BRIDGEBURG, Nov. 29.—The Provincial Natural Gas and Fuel Company of Ontario has struck a big gas flow near Point Albino, twelve miles from Bridgeburg, it was learned today.

Officials of the company have announced that as a consequence consumers in Welland County need fear no shortage of gas this winter.

SHIP 2,000,000 BUSHELS WHEAT AT VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 29.—Wheat shipments to the United Kingdom and the Orient out of this port this season to date amount to 2,072,322 bushels, according to information supplied today by the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange. Of the total 26,600 long tons were for the United Kingdom and 21,500 tons for the Orient, or a total of 48,000 long tons.

PETER CANTELON DIES.

(Special To The Advertiser).

CLINTON, Nov. 29.—One of Clinton's most prominent businessmen died here today in the person of Peter Canelon, of the former firm of Canelon Bros., produce dealers. He was in his 69th year, a prominent member of the Methodist Church, and an Orangeman. He is survived by his widow and seven children.

BYNG APPEALS TO OFFICERS TO AID VETERANS

Asks Them To Extend Hand of Friendship To Soldiers' Clubs.

LADY BYNG URGES UNITY

Accepts Badge of Honorary President of Daughters of Empire.

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Lord Byng at the Military Institute here today appealed to the officer members to take an interest in returned soldiers' organizations.

In a brief speech, following his reception, to the members he said that he understood that there were several organizations of returned men in Canada.

"I would ask you if you would extend the hand of friendship to these associations. They were the same badges as you did and I think they feel just as proud of them as you feel. If you would extend the hand of friendship to them I think that they would come out, not with one hand, but with both hands extended," said Lord Byng.

Her Excellency Lady Byng addressed the Municipal Chapter of the Order of the Daughters of the Empire at a luncheon later in the day in the new ballroom of the King Edward Hotel, which, large as it is, was not big enough to accommodate all the ladies who wished to be present.

Lady Byng referred to the unity which the I. O. D. E. represents and said it was the basic principle of all things.

Unity Developed Canada.

"It was unity which made Canada and turned it from a wild forest into the rose of the dominions of the empire," she said. "The same unity of work and effort and purpose won the war."

Lady Byng urged co-ordination and co-operation on the part of the women, emphasizing the fact that although the world was at the gateway of peace there remained much more to be done. The effort of women was necessary, she said.

"Both my husband and myself," her excellency said, "are keen on the fullest measure of co-operation. It will take

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your fingers.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35 and 65 cents in jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the year of 1913 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-Acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it, and it has proven itself to be that long looked for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, One Dollar, but understand I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer, when relief is thus offered you free. Don't daisy. Write today.

GUELPH STUDENTS WIN HIGH HONORS

Collegiate Pupils Carry Off Three J. I. Carter Scholarships.

GUELPH, Nov. 29.—Winners of the J. I. Carter scholarships for the County of Wellington have just been announced by the department of education, and once more the Guelph Collegiate Institute carries off all three of the scholarships.

The first prize goes to Melvin Liggett, who is considered one of the most brilliant pupils who has ever attended the collegiate institute. He has been at the head of his form for the past six years, and is also the winner of the John McCree scholarship of $1,000.

The second prize of $60 is awarded to J. MacGillivray, son of Rev. Dr. A. J. MacGillivray, Park avenue, while the third prize of $40 goes to Miss May Liggett, sister of the first prize winner.

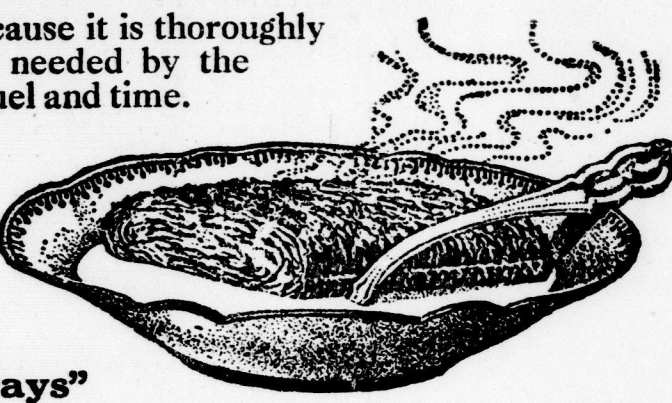

A Real Whole Wheat Porridge

The hot-porridge habit is a good habit for the cold days—but be sure it is a whole wheat porridge—one that contains all the elements needed to build and sustain the human body.

Shredded Wheat

makes the best whole wheat porridge because it is thoroughly cooked and contains all the elements needed by the human body. Being ready-cooked saves fuel and time.

To make a real whole wheat porridge place the Shredded Wheat Biscuits in a sauce-pan, adding salt and enough water to cover the bottom of the pan. Stir and boil until it thickens. Serve hot in porridge dish with milk or cream. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is delicious for any meal with hot milk.

"The Hot Dish for the Cold Days"

The Fate of the Dominion rests in the hands of The Women of Canada

WOMEN OF CANADA—Today you hold the greatest power ever held by the women of any nation in the history of the world. The fate of the Dominion rests in your hands. The whole outside world is watching what you will do with your vote, watching to see whether you are going to let Canada lose in peace what she gained in War.

Through the long struggle of the war you proved yourselves equal with men in stern, unselfish patriotism and fervent devotion to duty. In war you gave your husbands, sons, brothers, lovers and carried Canada over the top. In peace you are to decide whether Canada is to become the great nation for which your men fought and gave their lives, or whether uncertainty, unrest and discord are to prevail.

In the days that are past, Canada's progress has been hampered by different factions pulling in different directions. East and West, Quebec and Ontario, farm and factory, labor and capital, various races and creeds, have all been acting in opposition, selfishly, and to the disadvantage of the nation as a whole.

WOMEN OF CANADA—in this election you can compel all the factions in the Dominion to pull together. With all communities and interests from the Atlantic to the Pacific acting in unison and in harmony, Canada will take its rightful place as one of the foremost nations of the world.

The only thing that can hold back Canada's prosperity is lack of national unity. WOMEN—Vote for a united Canada—compel unity. United, Canada is safe; divided, Canada faces the financial collapse that is at present engulfing half the world.

What Canada needs to ensure unity is wise, constructive, impartial government.

MEIGHEN is the leader of the Government which gave you the vote. He is the only leader in Canada today who stands firm for policies which are a guarantee of unity, for policies which have respect for the interests of all classes. His policies will conserve the home, give employment to your bread-winners, and ensure security and prosperity for farm and factory, forest and mine, for the whole country.

Women of Canada

Here is an appeal written specially for this advertisement by Arthur Meighen. Read it, think for yourselves, and go to the polls. Don't let it be said that Canadian women don't care — that Canadian women won't vote.

My Special Appeal To Women

To the Women of Canada, I make this especial appeal. I ask you to earnestly and thoroughly study the great issues that now confront the country, and to conscientiously seek a personal decision, refusing steadfastly to be moved by reckless appeals, or by the cry of prejudice or by class appeal. I ask you to review my record and if you find my past and present stand on the great questions concerning the Dominion's National policies acceptable, I ask you not only to vote for my candidate in your constituency but to exert all possible influence on his behalf. The Government which extended the franchise to the Women of Canada invites you to help to build up that which was torn down by the War and to take your proper share of the responsibilities in shaping the destinies of your country.

I ask the Women of Canada to destroy definitely and forever the plans of those who, through selfish motives, attempt to unbalance the people of Canada and thus wreck the unity which made it possible for us to take such a valiant part in the great War.

I ask the Women of Canada to force that unity which will be abiding, which will result in permanent prosperity for all classes, and which will make Canada the envy of the world—that unity which is my one aim and ambition.
