CLOSES WITH BANQUET

W. D. Jackson, B.S.A., Outlines the Work the Department Has Accomplished.

The members of the three-month agricultural short course in Strathroy closed the course Thursday night a splendid banquet held in Prang-

W. D. Jackson, B. S. A., assistant supervisor of the agricultural district representatives was the speaker of the evening and gave the gathering some interesting information on the work the department was doing for young people.

Mr. Jackson stated that 40 short courses, with an average attendance of 29 boys, had been held, and that girls had attended in equal numbers. There had been four courses of three months' duration.

Speaking on school fairs, Mr. Jackson stated that 150,000 youngsters were interested and taking part in school fair work. Clubs of boys and girls were increasing rapidly were doing much good work. Youngsters interested in calf clubs wer raising such good animals that they were beating older exhibitors at the fall fairs, and getting their fair share of the prizes.

Finn Thanks Town.

R. A. Finn, district representative or Middlesex, thanked the town of Strathroy, the Strathroy C. of C and the militia department for their co-operation in making the course a He also thanked Judge Duncan Ross, who had helped smooth the difficulties in connection with the securing of the armories. Mr. Finn also spoke of the support had received from the various farm

Atlantic City Censor Bans One-Piece Bathing Costumes

ATLANTIC City, N. J., March 3.—Public morality on Atlantic City's famous beach will be enforced again this

Dr. Charles Bossert, beach censor, today issued an edict banning one-piece bathing suits for both men and wo-

Nor can the censored mermaids console themselves with rolled or half hose, but must worry along with what the doctor terms "stockings." "No woman with a one-piec suit can come on the beach, spiritedly proclaimed Bossert "If she tries to go into the water she will be arrested as a disorderly person. All women must wear stockings, too. If they don't they will be arrested also."

"Women's claims that they can swim better in one-piece suits make no difference," continued the censor. "They can wear no one-piece suits in Atlantic City.'

Nor have the men been ne glected. "No skin-tight suits for men," ruled Dr. Bossert.
