To pay no attention to the coal question. It does make a difference what coal you burn and where you get it. What you get from us is the best coal in the market for any and all purposes, and therefore orders filled by us are always and absolutely to the liking of the receivers. London's Hatters and

Over the river and through the woods,
The Hardy host I spy,
With troubled look and anxious mien,
Bemoaning the dappled sky.

Over the river and through the woods,
George Washington rose I spy,
Heavy his tread and dejected his look,
For George has come home to die.

Over the river and through the woods,
Colonel "Bobadil" Leys I spy; Disgust and despair showing plain on his brow,
For our Londoners none can buy.

Over the river and through the woods,
The Whitties I spy,
Whooping it up in triumphant note,
To the tune of "The Galway Boy."

Of noble port, on the quarter-deck, London's true knight I spy,
Waving aloft our banner bright—
The promised land is nigh!

This being election day, at the request of a large number of dealers and subscribers, it has been decided to issue the Evening Free Press to-day at the same time as the Daily Free Press.
To-morrow the evening edition will be issued as usual.

Last Minute Snaps.
Mr. Leys was willing to turn the Grit Government out if thereby he might get a fat office for himself.
Adam Beck never was an office seeker.
By his own energy he has made himself independent.

Vote for Beck and London will have the Normal School at once. Vote for Leys and it may take a score of years to buy a site.

Which is better for London, the factory or the insurance office?

By his own industry and perseverance Adam Beck has built up a large factory where many people find profitable employment. What has Col. Leys done for London?

Do not lose your vote. Vote for Adam Beck. No one may point to a single imprudent act of his. He is a shrewd business man who has arisen from the work bench, but who never forgets that he was once a workman,
and may be at the bench again.

Mr. Beck represents the party who fought for the franchise for the young men. The young men will vote for a young man. They will mark a ballot for Beck.

Show your appreciation of a man whose record is clean and unimpeachable. Vote for Beck.

Take Sir Oliver Mowat's advice and prevent a compact between Toronto and Tarte. Vote for Adam Beck.

It is time the dust was removed from the pigeon holes at Toronto. Vote for Beck.

Whitney will win in the Province.
The people demand a raking over of the dry bones at Toronto.
