

THE CITY AND VICINITY.

THE RAILWAY BOUNDARY OF LIFE IN AND AROUND TORONTO.

All the People's Dopes and Thinking About... The floors of the corridors in University College are being re-laid in hard wood.

The Yorkville, Parkdale, and other suburban public schools have been visited by the... George Paddy, the young man who on Sunday accidentally shot himself while out shooting at Ashbridge's Bay.

A number of Norwegian and Swedish immigrants had their trunks burned on the Grand Trunk railway near Kingston, Sunday morning. The loss will be a very heavy one to the immigrants, as the trunks probably contained all their possessions.

The Quebec chamber and dancing assembly is opening for the season. Among the first to set the ball a-polling are the Canadian quadrille clubs, which meet at McMillan's hall, corner Edward and Elizabeth streets, every Thursday night.

While a number of workmen were digging a drain on Seaton street yesterday one of the banks caved in and buried one of the men. The man was not seriously hurt, and in a few moments relieved of his companions, who were in a semi-conscious condition. He appeared to have been badly hurt.

On Saturday afternoon a man named Campbell, recently from Farnham and Ontario, was caught while tampering with the machinery of a passenger train. He was caught while tampering with the machinery of a passenger train.

THE THEATRES.

The Galley Slave at the Royal and the Pirates at the Grand.

Another week brings round new attractions at both places of theatrical amusement, and the patronage continues to be liberal.

Barley's Campbell's great drama of the Galley Slave, revived at the Royal last night, is needless to say that it took immensely. It is a play that everyone cannot help but admire and appreciate.

The Grand Opera House. Instead of putting on a good strong attraction that would draw in a busy week, the management of the Grand has chosen to present something "cheap" for the "country" who come in to see the play.

MR. GRAVE'S GOV. The dear old George left the town last night for the far west, where he took the historical disposal of an Adelaide street "host" with him as a "boy" to carry the value.

When the host foreclosed was bidding Mr. George goodbye, not knowing that his son was so following him—he pressed on his acceptance a basket of "ham sandwiches."

THE CRIMINAL SESSIONS. The weekly criminal sessions will be opened today by Judge Mackenzie. The calendar is a heavy one, being as follows: Paul Rooney, Michael H. Bechler, David Hackett, Samuel S. An annuity of $1000 is left to a married daughter, and the residue of each portion to be divided into seven equal shares.

THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: A correspondent in yesterday's Sun wants to know my age and the nature of my hair. My hair gradually thinned out, and when I was forty years old fell out of my head. I became entirely bald on top. A friend recommended the salt and water cure, and I used it faithfully for several months. I experienced a very slight relief except that my hair stopped falling out in about three weeks. Some of my friends have tried this remedy with astonishing results, some with no results at all. Hair oil and tonic should never be used with the remedy, and there should always be a residuum of salt in the bottle.

THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Let me thank you for the copy of your paper which you sent me last week. I have a large spider on my wall to eat and destroy the insects which improve the soil in my garden. To the Editor of the Sun—Sir: I have just received petrol, and find the hair growing rapidly on my bald head.

SIR SIDNEY WATERLOO, M.P., ex-lord mayor of London, arrived in this city on Sunday, with his son and two daughters, and put up at the Queen's hotel. Yesterday he set to the court for half-an-hour, and in the afternoon, in company with Mayor McMurich, visited the exhibition, which he expressed himself as much pleased.

THE FITCH OF BARON. The custom of the Fitch of Baron at Danmow is not the last curious among those which rural parishes present. For many years, in Essex, the monks made a promise of a fitch of bacon to any man who would take oath that they were married. Whether the bachelor monks, or whether they satirically believe that married folk never do lie together, or whether they were simply greedy, we do not know. As at any rate, we are presented applicants for the fitch were few and far between.

THE CROPS IN RUSSIA. The commercial condition of Russia has been very much depressed during the last few years from the failure of the wheat crop. This year, however, the prospects of the crop are good, and it is expected that there will be a bumper harvest. The wheat crop is expected to be about 100,000,000 bushels, which is a very large amount for Russia. The prospects for the other crops are also good, and it is expected that the harvest will be a very successful one.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

CAUGHT.

The New York Times thinks the time is now ripe for the revival of cricket. "Our experience of men, though it is not new, has been sufficiently thorough to convince us that it is in the beginning of a new era."

THE WESTERN CHURCH. The western racing circuit is composed of the driving packs of St. Thomas, London, and Woodstock, and the proprietors of these tracks have completed arrangements for a meeting, which will prove of unusual interest.

Dick Clayton, who has for the past few days been living on the refuse at St. Lawrence market, was yesterday arrested by Constable Hunt as a vagrant. Isaac Martin pleaded not guilty to stealing a gold watch and chain and a vest from Thomas Connell, hotel keeper, on Sunday. He admitted taking the watch and vest, and was sent to goal for thirty days.

Two bad pills named John Donnelly and John Daly were yesterday sentenced to two years in the central prison, for stealing lead piping and lumber from a vacant house on Wellington place. Mary Love was up on remand charged with having feloniously received a quantity of stolen goods from John Graham from Ross Simpson, merchant of Yonge street. Simpson was called by her, as well as Mr. Simpson failed to identify the stolen goods.

A few days ago a drunken man in a fine suit of clothes was sent to goal in default of having money to pay his fine. The man had traded off his suit with another man for an old suit and some money, using a portion of it to pay his fine, and getting drunk again with the balance. He was again sent to goal, this time for a month.

He was charged with receiving a number of brasses belonging to the T. G. G. He was charged with receiving a number of brasses belonging to the T. G. G.

PUBLIC OPINION. Everything is intended for the consumption of the governor-general, comes into Canada free of duty. We cannot see the reason of this. He is not to pay duty very much better than the rest of the people.

THE MAIL JOB. The Toronto World thinks the site of Upper Canada college would be better for the new parliament buildings. As the college will have to be abolished as a provincial institution before very long, that idea has much to recommend it. The site in the park is convenient, being too far from the leading hotels, from the stations and centres of business. The only point in its favor is that it could be had free of charge.

This year, however, the prospects of the crop are good, and it is expected that there will be a bumper harvest. THE WIDE WORLD IN BRIEF.

Sparks from the American and Canadian Wires, and the Atlantic Cable.

CANADIAN CONDENSED. A society has been formed in Montreal to promote the use of English in the city. The Orange case (Grant v. Beaudry) was argued in appeal in Montreal yesterday. Three vessels of 1185, 1027 and 800 tons have been launched within three days at Halifax.
