Iner hie consults in their mystery. I have no mysteries. The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are completent to judge on the subject, freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many em-nert Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pilks, and eren more confidently, and are will-g to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial. They operate by their powerful influence on the intenal riscera to purify the blood and stimulate it-into healthy action - remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting wherever they exist such derange-ments as are the first origin of disease. Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being jurely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. For minute directions, see the wrapper on the Box.
