TWO TRIES

A youth was going out to his first formal dianer party. His mother said: "Now don't forget your manners, James; be sure to say something complimentary when the food is passed." He endeavored to do so. When butter was served he remarked pleasantly, "This is pretty good butter, what there is of it." The remaia was not well received; he saw that he had made a mistake, and he endeav ored to correct it by saying, "And there's plenty of it, such as it is.
