

And sounds of joy and victory comes on the evening air.

Colonel, if I go down home first, you'll come and see us there?

Do I hear my comrades sighing? Where am I?
ah, amen.

Let there be no fuss about me, bury me with my men.