

Council of churches held in Boston, 1659. See Hartford church.

Crane, Stephen, of N. J., 137, 138, 163, 170.

Cresap, Col. of Virginia, 274, 275.

Crow, John, a withdrawer from the Hartford church, 55.

Crown Point, 247, 248, 260. Prisoners brought to Hartford, 237.

Cullick, John, 59, 116. Notes of his discussion with Rev. S. Stone, 53. Withdraws from Hartford church, 55, 70, 78, 87. Letter to, from Massachusetts ministers, 59. Complained of, by the church, 79. Removes from Connecticut, 110.

Cushing, Thomas, 144, 178, 221, 222, 304.

Danforth, Rev. Samuel, 112, 125.

Davenport, Rev. John, 82, 101, 102. His letter to the Wethersfield church, 88.

Davenport, Abraham, 188.

Davis, John, preached in Hartford in 1655, 54.

Deane, Barnabas, 179, 267, 281. Letters from, 217, 231, 246, 260, 270, 351. Lieutenant of volunteers from Wethersfield, 215, 217. Sent to Ticonderoga, 237, 246.

Deane, Barzillai, 146, 149, 155, 267, 281.

Dean, Mrs. Elizabeth, (wife of Silas,) 149, 190, 208, &c.

Deane, James, commissioner for the northern Indians, 330, 331.

Deane, Hannah, 145, 268. Married Josiah Buck, 348.

Deane, Jesse, 145, 268.

Deane, John, 222, 267, 292.

DEANE, SILAS, proposes to establish a settlement on the western lands, 133, 134. Member of the Conn. committee of correspondence, 199. Proposes a general Congress, 129, 136. Appointed delegate to the first Congress, 138. His journey to Philadelphia, 142, 143-6, 163-6. Observations on the city, 167, 168, 182. On committee on acts of parliament affecting trade, 179, 184. Again in Wethersfield, 192. Promotes the expedition against Ticonderoga, 218, 267. Returns to Philadelphia, 220, 221, 226-8. Visits Wilmington, 256. On committees of Congress, 264, 266, 268, 312, 323, 328, 339. Plans 'a bold stroke,' with Gen. Schuyler, 266, 251, 268, 275, 278. Excursion to the Jerseys, 281. Promotes the appointment of Putnam as major-general, 288,—of S. B. Webb, and John Chester, 291,—of Jos. Trumbull, 292. At home, in the recess of Congress, Aug., 1775, 293-4. Journey to Philadelphia, 304. His sentiments on the great issue, 307. Routine of duties in Congress and on committees, 312. Nominated one of the Assistants, in Conn., 315. His character sketched by Mr. Hogg, 318. Not re-elected to Congress, 320, 323. Reflections on being superseded, 324-5. Letter to Gov. Trumbull, 327. Asks for a public hearing, by the Conn. Assembly, 331. His removal is regretted in Connecticut, 345, 348, 358. Promotes Arnold's appointment brig-general, 348. Declines re-election from Wethersfield to the general assembly, 359. Receives a testimonial from members of the Congress, 360. Appointed commercial and political agent of the colonies, 360. Contracts to purchase goods and munitions of war, in France, for public use, 360. Farewell letters to his wife, 360-64. His instructions from the committee of secret correspondence, 365. Sails from Philadelphia, March, 1776, 361, 364. Compelled by wind to return, and embarks for Bermuda, 361.

— Letters from,— to his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Deane, 143, 163, 179, 184, 186, 221, 226, 233, 246, 249, 252, 258, 260, 264, 266, 268, 274, 275, 280, 287, 289, 293, 304, 307, 308, 323, 339, 346, 347, 349, 360, 364.

— Samuel H. Parsons, 129.

— Col. Gurdon Saltonstall, 289.

— Fisher Gay, 192.

— Dr. Benjamin Gale, 294.

— Pelatiah Webster, 294.

— Gov. Trumbull, 329.

— Miss Hannah Arnold, 354.