

Life of Percy Bysshe Shelley. By Prof. EDWARD DOWDEN, author of "Studies in Literature," "Shakspeare: His Mind and Art," etc. New and Cheaper Edition. With portrait. One volume. Post 8vo, $4.50.

This, the standard Life of Shelley, is now presented in a form convenient to the individual student. It has been revised by the author, and contains an exhaustive index.

The Crimean Diary of the Late General Sir Charles A. Windham, K.C.B. With an Introduction by Sir W. H. RUSSELL. Edited by Major HUGH PEARSE. With an added chapter on the Defence of Cawnpore, by Lieut.-Col. JOHN ADYE, C.B. Demy 8vo, $3.00.

This interesting diary, supported and amplified by a number of intimate letters, will be found to reveal much that has hitherto been hidden concerning the mismanagement of the Crimean campaign. It also clears from adverse criticism the name and reputation of a distinguished and gallant commander. The work is furnished with a map and explanatory notes.

Eighty Years Ago; or, the Recollections of an Old Army Doctor, His Adventures on the Fields of Quatre Bras and Waterloo and during the Occupation of Paris, 1815. By the late Dr. GIBNEY, of Cheltenham. Edited by his son, Major GIBNEY. Crown 8vo, $1.75.
