DIFFICULTIES OF THE OLD STYLE SCRAP BOOK

MARK TWAIN'S DESCRIPTION OF HIS INVENTION :

Hartford, Monday Evening.

My Dear SLOTE — I have invented and patented a new Scrap Book, not to make money out of it, but to economise the profanity of this country. You know that when the average man wants to put something in his scrap book, he can't find his paste—then he swears, or if he finds it, it is dried so hard that it is only fit to eat—then he swears. If he uses mucilage it mingles with the ink, and next year he can't read his scrap—the result is barrels and barrels of profanity. This can all be saved and devoted to other irritating things, where it will do more real and lasting good, simply by substituting my self-pasting Scrap Book for the old fashioned one.

If Messrs. Slote, Woodman & Co wish to publish this Scrap Book of mine, I shall be willing. You see by the above paragraph that it is a sound moral work, and this will commend it to editors and clergymen, and in fact to all right feeling people. If you want testimonials I can get them, and of the best sort and from the best people. One of the most refined and cultivated young ladies in Hartford (daughter of a clergyman) told me herself, with grateful tears standing in her eyes, that since she began using my Scrap Book she has not sworn a single oath.

Truly yours,

MARK TWAIN.
