

BROTHERS OF ST. JOSEPH.

THIS is the name of a religious Order, commenced under the auspices of the Right Rev. Dr. de la Hailandiere, bishop of Vincennes, for the purpose of imparting to the male youth of the country the blessings of a christian education—similar to that received by the females of this country from the Sisters of Charity.

Six Brothers came last October from France, and opened a novitiate at St. Peter's, Daviess county, Indiana. Several candidates have already been received:—the age of admission is from 15 to 35. It is hoped that in a few years the order will be able to send to every congregation throughout the country, one or more teachers, according as circumstances may require. The field of its labours is not to be limited by the boundaries of dioceses or of States; it will embrace the whole Union.

Subjects are at present wanting. There are no doubt, in different parts of the country, many persons religiously disposed, who may be glad to hear that a religious House is opened, where they can, without solicitude for temporal support, devote their powers of mind and body to the service of God. Candidates, whose youth and talents may enable them to become good teachers, will be most desirable. But pious men, who will be able to promote the object of the society only by manual labour, will be also admitted. The Brothers have a Farm on which such members can be usefully employed.

It is scarcely necessary to say, that the Society is poor, and in immediate want of funds to carry its object into effect.

Few religious undertakings can be conceived more meritorious than this of the Brothers of St. Joseph. Its beneficial influence will be felt by society at large, but more especially by the Catholic body.—Its success very intimately concerns every Catholic parent. No one should view it with indifference: all should vie with each other in promoting it. An appeal to the public is now made by the Brothers for aid. The Rev. J. Delaune is authorised by them, and by the Bishop of the Diocese in which they reside, to receive such contributions as Catholics may be disposed to make.

All communications must be directed to the Right Rev. Bishop of Vincennes, Indiana, or to the Rev. L. E. Sorin, Superior of the Brothers of St. Joseph, St. Peters Daviess Co. Indiana.—Catholic Herald, February 17, 1842.

REMOVAL.

Saddle, Harness and Trunk Factory.

E. McGIVERN respectfully announces to his friends and the public, that he has removed from his old stand to the new building, opposite to the retail establishment of Isaac Buchanan & Co., on King street. In making this announcement to his old friends, he most respectfully begs leave to express his grateful thanks for past favors, and hopes that unremitting attention to business will insure him a continuance.

Hamilton, Feb. 22, 1842.

SHIP INN.

JAMES MULLAN begs to inform his friends and the public, that he has removed from his former residence to the Lake, foot of James street, where he intends keeping an INN by the above name, which will combine all that is requisite in a MARINER'S HOME, and TRAVELLER'S REST;—and hopes he will not be forgotten by his countrymen and acquaintances.

N. B. A few boarders can be accommodated.

QUEEN'S HEAD HOTEL.

JAMES STREET, (NEAR BURLEY'S HOTEL.)

THE Subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public generally, that he has fitted up the above named house in such a style as to render his guests as comfortable as at any other Hotel in Hamilton. His former experience in the wine and spirit trade enables him to select the best articles for his Bar that the Market affords; and it is admitted by all who have patronized his establishment, that his stabling and sheds are superior to any thing of the kind attached to a public Inn, in the District of Gore.

N. B.—The best of Hay and Oats, with civil and attentive Ostlers.

W. J. GILBERT

Hamilton, Sept. 15, 1841.

THE HAMILTON RETREAT.

THE Subscriber has opened his Retreat in Hughson street a few doors north of King street, and wishes to acquaint his friends that they may rely on every Luxury the markets afford; his Wines and Liquors will be selected with care, and no expense spared in making his guests comfortable.

Oysters, Clams, &c., will be found in their season. He therefore hopes by strict attention and a desire to please, to merit a share of Public patronage.

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER,

WITH THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE WORLD.

The publishers of this old established and universally popular Family Journal, would deem it supererogatory to say a word of commendation of its past or present excellence and usefulness. Its circulation and increasing circulation, (over 35,000,) its best recommendation. For the future, however, a determination to be first in the van of the American Newspaper Weekly Press, will call for increased expenditures and renewed attractions for the present year 1842, not the least of which will be an improvement in the quality of the paper, and an addition of popular contributors, embracing, we fully believe, the best list to any similar Journal in the world.

The Courier is independent in its character, fearlessly pursuing a straight forward course, and supporting the best interests of the public. IT IS STRICTLY NEUTRAL IN POLITICS AND RELIGION. It will maintain a high tone of morals, and not an article will appear in its pages which should not find a place at every fire-side. It has more than double the number of constant readers, to that of any other paper published in the country, embracing the best families of our Republic.

Every one should be proud to patronise the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, as by its unbroken series of original AMERICAN TALES, by such native writers as Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. St. Leon Loud, "The Lady of Maryland," Professor Ingraham, T. S. Arthur, Esq., Miss Sedgwick, Miss Leslie, and many others, it has justly earned the title of the AMERICAN FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

FOREIGN LITERATURE AND NEWS.

Determined to spare no expense in making the SATURDAY COURIER a perfect model of a Universal Family Newspaper, of equal interest to all classes and persons of every nation, we have made arrangements to receive all the Magazines and papers of interest, published in England and on the Continent; the news and gems of which are immediately transferred to its columns thus giving to emigrants as well as others, a correct and connected account of what ever occurs of interest either at home or abroad.

The Markets.

Particular care is taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provisions, Produce &c., the state of stocks, Banks, Money and Lands, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our

of inestimable interest to the traveller, the farmer and all business classes whatsoever.

The general character of the COURIER is well known. Its columns contain a great variety of TALES, NARRATIVES, ESSAYS, AND BIOGRAPHIES, and articles in Literature, Science, the Arts, Mechanic, Agriculture, Education, Music, News, Health, Amusement, and in fact, in every department usually discussed in a Universal Family Newspaper, from such writers as Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Charles Dickens, (Boz.) Professor Duglinton, Professor Ingraham, Miss Ellen S. Rand, T. S. Arthur, Miss M. Michael, J. Sheridan Knowles, George P. Morris, Mrs. M. St. Leon Loud, Mrs. Gore, Douglas Jerrold, Joseph R. Chandler, Miss Sedgwick, Miss Lesli, Wm. E. Barton, Professor J. Frost, Lieut. G. W. Patten, Lydia H. Sigourney, Thomas Campbell, Hon. Robert T. Conrad, Miss Mitford, Robert Morris, Professor Vines, Mrs. C. H. W. Esting, E. L. Bulwer, A Grant, Junior, Joseph C. Neal, John Neal, Thomas G. Spear, Countess of Blessington, Captain Marryatt, R. N. Lucy Seymour, R. Penn South,
