

Chief Seattle.

...The Best
Family Newspaper
 In the Pacific Northwest.

Daily Post-Intelligencer.

8 to 12 Pages.

Clean, pure and healthy in tone, it is regarded by all as a family newspaper that can be taken into the home without fear of moral injury or taint. It has the news of the state and of the world, receives the full Associated Press reports, and is the only paper in Washington that prints them in full. It sets the pace in newspaper circles, all others attempt to follow. As Seattle is great, the Post-Intelligencer is great, for both Seattle and the Post-Intelligencer advance together.

Sunday Post-Intelligencer.

16 to 24 Pages.

Besides the usual news features, it is a magazine of choice things, highly illustrated, and entertaining.

Weekly Post-Intelligencer.

12 Pages.

The most complete weekly newspaper published in the Pacific Northwest, and edited particularly from the standpoint of the miner, farmer and stockman. Besides giving the latest news of the world, it contains a Klondike department that gives more news from the great gold fields than can be secured anywhere else on the globe.

THE New York World

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

18 Pages a Week . . .
 . . . 156 Pages a Year

FOR ONE DOLLAR.

Published every Alternate Day except Sunday.

The Thrice-a-Week Edition of THE NEW YORK WORLD is first among all "weekly" papers in size, frequency of publication, and the freshness, accuracy and variety of its contents. It has all the merits of a great six-dollar daily at the price of a dollar weekly. Its political news is prompt, complete, accurate and impartial, as all its readers will testify. It is against the monopolies and for the people.

It prints the news of all the world, having special correspondence from all important news points on the globe. It has brilliant illustrations, stories by great authors, a capital humor page, complete markets, departments for the household, and women's work and other special departments of unusual interest.
