

THE DELINEATOR for January commences a new volume and is called "The Winter Holiday Number." It is an unusually attractive issue, the fashions being appropriate to the season and the reading matter varied and interesting. The distinct holiday flavor is contributed by a helpful article, entitled What the Shows Show, and another reviewing the books issued for the holiday season. Household Renovation deals with the cleansing of various articles, and gives valuable information about cleansing fluids, Child Life treats of Training a Boy for Business, and Physical Culture continues the instruction given last month on the Physical Expression of the Emotions. Small Economies is a particularly seasonable and valuable article at this time, and one that will be of service to every housekeeper; and much may be gained from the second paper on Things that should be Left Unsaid. An illustrated article on House and Street Gowns is of general interest to Ladies, and another appropriate to the time is Fur Sets and Trimmings. The Tea-Table Talk for the month is full of information, and an unusually attractive assortment of designs is given in Tatting, Knitting, Crocheting, Lace-Making, etc., etc. The subscription to the Delineator is only One Dollar a year; Single Copies, 15 cents. Address orders to The Delineator Publishing Co., of Toronto (Ltd.), 33 Richmond Street, Toronto, Ont.

MEN WHO ADVERTISE and need a new idea now and then, or who have not always the time or inclination to prepare their advertisements, will find a valuable assistant in the novel book of "Ideas for Advertisers" just published by T. D. Mallet, New Haven, Conn., and sent on receipt of $1 00, post-paid. He also publishes a tasty pamphlet called "When," (price 25c) a treasury of good advice to business men. Descriptive circulars of both these new books can be obtained upon request to the publisher.
