Deacon John H. Bentley represents our younger members. He is a native of Centreville, Kings County, and joined this church in 1885, by Baptism, at the hands of Pastor Manning. His relationship to our early Pastor, Samuel N. Bentley, V.A., brought him into our hearts at once, and his consistent life and constant attendance at all the church meetings have kept him foremost among our leaders. His words are not many nor loud, but earnest and effective. His desire for Zion's prosperity lasts seven days each week. His occupation is that of Provision dealer. He is as earnest as the "cut" indicates and more genial.
