THE CHRISTIAN MARINER'S HYMN.

Labacus thy bark, mariner.
Christian, God speed thee,
Let loese the radder band—
Good anasis lead thee!
Bet thy sails warily,
Tempests may come—
Seer thy bark steadily,
Christian, steer home?

Lack to the weather bow,

Breakers are round theo,
Let fall the plummet now—
Sheats may ground thee!
Reef in thy top-sall there—
Hold the helm fast,
So, let the vessel wear;
There swept the blast.

What of the night, watchman, What of the night? Cloudy—all's quiet—No land ret—all's right; Be watchful, he vigitant, Dangers may be At an hoar when all seemsth feenrest to thee.

How gains the leak so fast?
Clear out the hold.
Holt out the merchandise—
Heave out the gold!
There, let the ingots go?
Now the ship rights—
Courage! the harbour's near—
Lo, the red lights!

Shorten not sall yet Shorten not sail yet,
At inland or island;
Straight for the beacon steer,
Straight for the highland;
Crowd all the canvass on—
Cut through the foam—
Christian, cast anchor now,
Heaven is thy home!

To Proposeen Hellowar.

Six.—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg: in which there were several deeply seeted and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully: and its seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had require to your Uniment and Pills, and after using them for about free weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had falled to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR:

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854.

To Propussor Hollowar,

Sir,—My wile suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There was several heles in it, one as large as a hand: all the devices and stratagems I tried would not heal-them, but assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Olinment and Fills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was elmost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured and we offer you our united thanks for the cure affected, I am, Sir, yours truly,
