ELOCUTION CLASSES.

WE urge upon the members desiring to avail themselves of the valuable instructions given by Mr. R. Lewis, to be present on Monday evening next, when the class will be organized and commence its regular sessions.

DONATIONS.

WE are indebted to Mr. S. R. Briggs of the Willard Tract Depository for the gift of three Gospel Charts, which are novelties, and certainly display much ingenuity in the selection and classification of texts. These charts are designated:—

1st. The Gospel Compass, for Sailors of all nations.

2nd. The Gospel Wheel for Hackmen, Street Railway Employees &c.

3rd. The Gospel Target, for Soldiers and Volunteers.

With the Gospel Compass is published a hand-book, describing the codes of signals, and the use made of them in this chart. We consider these charts as worthy of a place in any Association Room. Our young men take much interest in studying them. The cost is a mere trifle.

OUR LIBRARY.

THE Library is again open. We hope to add largely to this department during the season and therefore will not, for the present, print a catalogue. If our visitors and friends would follow the example of a Christian Lady who attends our meetings, our shelves would soon need to be lengthened. Several times have we chronicled her donations and now we acknowledge receipt of other 3 volumes.

MEMBERSHIP.

AT the October meeting of our Board of Managers, we elected 111 new members. At the December meeting held yesterday,
