A DISPATCH from Calcutta, India, says the district of Backergunge was ravaged by a cyclone on Tuesday last. A thousand houses of natives were destroyed. The town of Dowlatkhan was submerged by a wave, and five thousand persons are believed to have perished. The government has sent relief to the desolated section.

British American Presbyterian, FOR 1877.

TERMS:—$2.00 per annum in advance. Postage prepaid by Publisher

Efforts will be made during the coming year to make the BRITISH AMERICAN increasingly attractive and useful to the large constituency it aims to represent. To this end the Editorial staff will be strengthened; a larger variety of Missionary intelligence will be furnished by Dr. Fraser, Formosa; Rev. J. Fraser Campbell, and Rev. James Douglas, India; and special papers are expected from the following gentlemen: Rev. Dr. Waters, St. John, N.B. Rev. Prof. Dryce, M.A., Winnipeg, Ma. Rev. Principal McVicar, L.L.D., Montreal. Rev. John Cook, D.D., Quebec. Rev. Prof. Gregg, M.A., Toronto. Rev. John Laing, M.A., Dundas. Rev. Prof. McKerris, M.A., Kingston. Rev. W. D. Bullantyne, B.A., Pembroke. Rev. G. M. Grant, M.A., Halifax, N.S. Rev. W. Houston, M.A., Bathurst, N.B. Rev. Geo. Bruce, M.A., St. Catharines. Rev. John Gailher, Pittsburg, O.; etc., etc.

The Sabbath School Lessons will be continued; and increased attention will be paid to the question of Prohibition now happily growing on the public mind. All matters affecting the interests of our Church shall have prompt and careful attention; and the legislation likely to come before next General Assembly will be fairly discussed, and its bearing on the future of Presbyterianism in the Dominion duly examined.

We invite the cordial co-operation of ministers, elders, and people generally to aid in extending the circulation of the BRITISH AMERICAN. Much has been done in this way already; but much still remains undone. Our circulation is now 6,000; there is no good reason why it should not be 16,000! If each of our present subscribers will send us ANOTHER NAME we shall at once reach 12,000, and then to get the remainder will be a comparatively easy matter. Friends, help us in this particular.

Romances and Correspondence should be addressed to C. BLACKETT ROBINSON, Publisher and Proprietor. P. O. Drawer 2484, Toronto, Ont.

Sabbath School Presbyterian FOR 1877.

Notwithstanding the almost insuperable difficulties in the way of getting our Sabbath Schools to even introduce the S. S. PRESBYTERIAN, we have succeeded in continuing the publication for another year, believing that superintendents and teachers will see long as the justice and propriety of making room—among the numerous papers usually ordered—for a few copies of a monthly got up specially for our schools.

It is true that we have not by any means reached our ideal of what such a paper should be, but marked improvements will be made in the next volume. In order to insure an interesting quantity of reading matter the paper will be placed in charge of a gentleman in every way competent to conduct such a publication; the illustrations will be more numerous; and the issue of the periodical earlier and more regular than in the past. Last year we promised letters from the Rev. J. Fraser Campbell; but he only left a couple of months ago, so that it was impossible to redeem this promise. Both Mr. Campbell and Mr. Douglas will (P.V.) write during the coming year, and Dr. Fraser, who is already so well and favourably known to our young readers, will continue his valuable contributions. Ministers and superintendents are earnestly invited to forward their orders without delay, so that we may know in good time the number to be printed for January.

TERMS. Single Copies..... 25 cents per Vol. Twenty Copies and under..... 50 " In Parcels over Twenty..... 15 " Postage prepaid. Subscriptions must be paid in advance. Specimens copies to any address on application.

"The paper is good, and both printing and illustrations are well executed.—London Advertiser." "Very much needed by the Presbyterian Schools of our country."—J. E. Hunt, North Pelham. "It should certainly meet with a wide circulation."—Rev. W. Ross, Kirkhill. "The children of the Church should have a Sabbath School paper of their own."—H. and F. Record.

Scribner's Monthly. An Unrivalled Illustrated Magazine.

When Scribner issued his famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, it proudly cried aloud:—"We are not sure but that Scribner has touched high-water mark. We do not see what world is left to conquer." But the publisher does not consider that he has reached the ultimate limit of excellence—they believe there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them!

The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers, mostly illustrated, by writers of the highest merit. Under the head of "FOREIGN TRAVEL," we have "A Winter on the Nile" by Gen. McClellan; "Sauterines Ab-ut Constantino," by the "Number One" of "Out of My Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyler; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced.

"NICHOLAS MINTURN," By Dr. Holland the Editor, whose story of "Sevonoaks" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly. Another serial, "The Mystery of the 'Great Lakes Factory' in the completion of 'Ghat Lees of Lowell,'" by Mrs. Holston Burnett. Mrs. Burnett's story, begun in August, has a pathos and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public.

There are to be, from various pens papers on "HOME LIFE AND TRAVEL"

Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well-known specialists. Mr. Barnard's articles on various industries of Great Britain include the history of "Some Experiments in Co-operation." "A Scottish Leaf Factory" in the November number, and "Toad Lane, Rochdale," in December. Other papers are: "The British Workingman's Home," "Nation of Shopkeepers," "Half-penny a Week for the Child," etc.

richly illustrated series will be given on "American Sports by Flood and Field," by various writers, all each on a different theme. The subject of "HOUSEHOLD AND HOME DECORATION" will have a prominent place, whilst the latest productions of American humorists will appear from month to month. The list of shorter stories, biographical and other sketches, etc., is a long one. The editors desire to see the names of the most able pens both at home and abroad. There will be a series of letters on literary matters, from London, by Mr. Welford.

FIFTEEN MONTHS FOR $4. The three numbers of Scribner for August, September, and October, containing the opening chapters of "That Lass o' Lore's" will be given to every new subscriber (who requests it), and whose subscription begins with the present volume, for the first three months. 1877. CAMPAIGN OPENED! WESTERN ADVERTISER & WEEKLY LIBERAL.

A $6 PREMIUM GIVEN AWAY! Balance of Year Free!

READ! READ! READ!

In opening the Annual Advertiser Fall Campaign for 1877, we do so with the full intention of making it the most successful one yet entered upon. We want to reach at least 10,000 new subscribers to our roll this year.

The ADVERTISER, in the future as in the past, will be found advocating every true Reform and every really Liberal measure. Among other reforms it advocates an elective Senate and the passage of a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

TO AGENTS.—In order to make this paper the very best and most representative one in Canada to call for, we will present to every subscriber for 1877 a copy of the great steel plate engraving entitled "Wollington and Blucher Meeting after the Battle of Waterloo," size 18 x 40 inches. It is, beyond doubt, one of the finest engravings ever produced, being the property of the London (E.S.G.) Art Union for 1875, and sold at a price of one guinea in England and six dollars in the colonies. This magnificent plate is an engraving was executed by Lutab Stocks, It A. from the wall painting in the Palace of Westminster; and the artist, H.A. It occupied six years of a celebrated painter's life, and the steel plate the equally renowned engraver occupied five years more, costing the sum of $150. The best critics throughout England and Canada unite in praising this wonderful picture of the culminating point in the battle of Waterloo.

We also give the balance of this year free to all new subscribers for 1877.

WHAT WE OFFER. 1. The best 8-page family newspaper in Canada. 2. We repay postage. 3. New type, new presses, good paper. 4. Balance of this year free to new subscribers. 5. A magnificent steel plate engraving free. 6. A Ladies' and Children's department. 7. Songs (musical and words), pictures, etc., etc. 8. W. F. Clarke edits our Farmers' department.

CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY.

LITTLEFIELD & CO., PROPRIETORS.

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by snuffs, washes or local applications. It is a weakness of the constitution, developing itself in the nasal cavities, afterwards extending to the throat and lungs, ending generally in Consumption, if not checked by proper remedies. It is in head, back, loins, and weakness of kidneys are its attendant diseases. More people have Catarrh than any other disease. It is easily cured. Thousands of cases, some of forty years standing, have been entirely cured in New Hampshire and the Dominion the past three years by the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. Certificates to back the above, and a treatise on Catarrh sent free on application to T. J. E. Harding, Chemist, Brockville, Ont. Send name on postal card, and it will cost only a cent. Price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Sent to any address on receipt of money.

WHAT NEXT?
