THE LABOUR QUESTION.

Our statesmen (if we have any) and our philanthropists (we have some) have in this question to until the Gordian knot of our present commercial distress. Keep the labouring man well employed and well paid, and the rest of his countrymen will bask in the sunshine of his happiness. The secret of the commercial success of any young country lies in the employment of its productive working classes. Find employment and good pay for our idle and destitute fellow-countrymen and there will be no complaining among merchants and bankers. Query.—Can employment for all be obtained by increasing the Tariff on such things as we can manufacture? Answer.-Protection is our only salvation! Let us have it at any price, and thousands will be able to avail themselves of the cheap Fall and Winter Goods now offered at CHEAPSIDE.

ST. LOUIS WARD.

A large number of the electors of this Ward met at Caralos Hall, St. Catherine street, on Saturday evening for the purpose of naming a candidate for the representation of the Ward in lieu of Ald. David whose resignation had been accepted by the

Mr. J. M. Papineau was moved to the chair, and Mr. A Beaulieu was requested to act as secretary. When the meeting was formally opened several narties spoke in favor of the re-election of Mr. David who had for seventeen years faithfully represented the interests of the tax-payers of the ward.

Mr. Bienvenue, editor of the National, was opposed to the election of Mr. David, who had resigned. Mr. P. Pelletier, advocate, spoke at some length administering a sound rebuke to Mr. Bienvenue and gave the reason why Mr. David again presented himself. He stated that the Alderman had for many years enjoyed the confidence, not only of the electors of the Ward, but of the other members of the Council. He had been Chairman of the Road Committee until last spring when he was ousted from that responsible position, two of the French Canadian members, Ald. Generoux and Duhamel voting against him. Mr. David now offered himself as a candidate in order to ascertain if the electors of the Ward had withdrawn their confidence from a gentleman who had represented them conscientiously for over seventeen years.

Mr. F. X. St Charles, said he came to the meeting to express his esteem for the representative, Ald. David, and could not understand why the electors were so anxious to again force him into a contest against his wishes. The speaker had seen Mr. Melancon who had consented to become a candidate, Mr. Melancon was a gentlemen of means, and could devote the necessary time to meetings of the Council and Committees which he might be called upon to attend. In conclusion Mr. St. Charles said the meeting was called to elect a successor to Mr. David. and that was what he considered the legitimate business of the meeting.

Mr. Louis Plammondon had every confidence in the integrity and ability of Mr. David, but advocated the choice of a new regresentative, and suggested the name of Mr. Melancon.

Ald. Laberge said he would await the decision All widths. Prices kept in Stock. The best in of the meeting before expressing himself on the question. He knew the qualities of both candidates and thought there was bardly any choice to be made, One thing was certain, the nomination would take place on Monday, and he would like them to be unanimous, as opposition would lead to a contest and thus retard the election of a representative. He (Ald. Laberge) would require the vote of the elected alderman in a matter of importance which would come up for discussion before many days, and for this reason, which was a grave one, he would advise them to endeavor to put aside all personal feelings and use all their efforts to elect their candidate by acclamation. He desired that the decision of the meeting should be final, and that the minority should submit to the majority.

Mr. S. J. Quinn made a few remarks in favor of Ald. David. He said he had hitherto been opposed to that gentleman, but when he found untrustworthy men ranged on the side of Mr. David's opponent he (Mr. Quinn) thought his proper place should be against these unreliable persons, and, consequently he would pledge himself in favor of Mr. David.

Mr. E. St. Louis spoke in favor of again electing Mr. David, and asked what reasons existed for discarding a gentleman who had rendered important and faithful service to the ward for a period of eigh teen years.

After some further discussion it was found impossible to agree in the choice of a candidate, and the meeting was closed without having arrived at any conclusion on the subject. On Monday the nomination of candidates for the representation of this Ward took place at ten

Ald. Hivard was the presiding officer and Messrs. David and Melancon were proposed. The first named gentleman was nominated by Messrs.
Thomas Tiffin, J. M. Papineau, Aug. Laberge, sr.,
Toussaint Lapierre, Eugene Malo, Jos. Perrault,
James Strachan, Moise Martin, J. B. St. Louis, jr., G. Laurent, James Griffin, seconded by Elie Plante, James Kelly, A. Lafontaine, J. P., Gea. Pelletler, J. A. Dupuls, Ph. Laurent, E. St. Louis, L. N. Denis, A. Dubuc, and O. M. Lavoie.

While Mr. Melancon had as supporters Messrs F. X. St. Charles, Jos. Barsalou, W. Lavers, O. H. Massicotte, Charles Lacaille, Louis Lamontange, M. Lavigne, C. Healy, seconded by R. Thibadeau, J. Leduc, C. H. Waiters, W. L. Doutney, C. G. Belisle, J. L. Cassidy, Jos. Christin, Ald. Thomas Wilson and J. Cochrane.

Speeches were afterwards delivered by Messrs St. Charles, Bienvenue, J. Leduc, and Alderman Grenier on behalf of Mr. Melancon. While Alderman Laberge and Messrs St. Louis, Homier and Dubuc spoke in favor of Mr. David's candidature. In consequence of the nomination of two candidates a poll was granted, and the election will take place Monday next.

CITY ITEMS.

LACROSSE.—The famous Shamrock club will play the Emerald of Quebec to-day at Berthier, where a pic-nic is being held by the Knights of St. Patrick COMPLETED.-The tower of the Roman Catholic Church, St. Denis-street, is completed outside, and is a beautiful and lofty structure. The arrow at the top of the spire is at a height of 286 feet from the ground. The highest window in the tower is on a level with the summit of the towers of Notre Dame Church, and from it a view my be obtained of theentire city of Montreal.

WHY IS IT THUS .- The Winess remarks that it is an anomaly in a city like this where the Catholics form a majority, to see the great majority of the volunteers Protestant. It contends that our trooops should be composed of Catholics as well as Protestants. It calls the attention of the Department of Militia to this abuse. We think with the TRUE WITNESS which reproduces the article of the Witness. that the latter speaks reasonably.—Minerve.

MORTUARY STATISTICS.-We have been supplied with the following information by the Fabrique:-According to the registers of the Fabrique the deaths among the Catholic population of the city have been as follows for the past year:—Male adults, married, 165; unmarried, 165; widowers, 45; widows, 76; unmarried persons and children, male, 1,537; unmarried persons and children, females, 1,300. A Serious Mistaks .- On Saturday we stated that the name of a popular Kingston merchant, who conducts a good and safe business, and is many thousands above water, besides having no creditors, appeared accidentally among the list of Ontario insolvents in the Montreal Daily Wiiness. This paper now extends upon the explanation we have already given, as follows :- "Correction. - By an unfortunate error in our last list of new writs of attachment issued in Ontario name of the plainfiff, Mr. William Harty, mer chant, of the city of Kingston, was given for that of the insolvent, John Gilbord, merchant, of Cobourg. We regret the mistake, which was entirely inadvertent, and hasten to correct it."
In a private note the propietors say:-"The mistake occurred in this manner. The notice in the Official Gazette was written in an entirely unusual manner, the name of the plaintiff appearing where that of the insolvent ordinarily appears, hence one was inadvertently taken for the other. Trusting the correction and explana-tion will prove satisfactory.—We are, yours respect-fully, John Dougall & Son."—British Whig, 13th inst.
