Montreal, April 23, 1857.

FOR SALE,

PARK LOT No. 2, adjoining the flourishing TOWN of PERTH, the Capital of the County of Lenerk, Upper Canada.

This Property, the residence of Anthony Leslie, Esquire, consists of TWENTY-FIVE ACRES of rich LAND, in the highest state of cultivation, well fenced, and planted with Ornamental Trees. The COTTAGE and OUT-BUILDINGS are in good order, and it is in every respect such a situation as would please a gentleman in want of a genteel and handsome property. The owner has spared no expense, during the last twenty-six years, to bring it to its present high state of comfort and beauty, and will be ready to treat with persons in want of such a place, on the most liberal terms. For further particulars enquire by letter, post paid, of the proprietor at Perth.

The above mentioned property is bounded on the East by the continuation of Wilson Street, the principal entrance to the Yown; on the South by Leslie Street; on the West by the River Tay, (a very handsome piece of water); and on the North by the pro-perty of the Hon. R. Mathrson.

The Buildings and Fences cost £1,000. There are above 5,000 Trees, and of these 150 are great beauties, and may be well rated at Ten Dollars each. It has taken twenty-six years' care to bring them to their present perfection-many of them no person with the smallest taste would remove if offered Sixty Dollars each. Great puins have been taken in laying out the grounds.

Had I complied, as frequently arged, to dispose of Building Lots, I might have sold them at the rate of £500 per acre.

Judge Malloch, on the opposite side of the Street, has sold five Building Lots, one-fifth of an acre each, at £100 the Lot.

What I expect to obtain for the Property is at the rate of £100 per Acre. I invite persons disposed to purchase to make their offers.

ANTHONY LESLIE.

(NEW-AND REVISED EDITION,)

THE LIFE OF ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, by the Count de Montalembert. The Life, translated by Mary Hacket, and the Introduction, by Mrs. Sadlier. 12 mo., of 427 pages, with a line steel engraving. Gloth, 5s; cloth gilt, 7s 6d.

The first edition of Three Thousand having all been sold, and there being many calls for the work, we have put to press a New Edition. The transla-tion has been read over with the French copy and carefully corrected.

Of the merits of the work, we can safely say, that no biography over issued from the American Press equals it-it's as interesting as a romance.

The Press have been unanimous in praise of the first edition. We give extracts from a few of them : "The book is one of the most interesting, instructive, and edifying that have been produced in our times, and every Oatholic will read it with devout thankfulness to the Almighty God, that he has been pleased to raise up, in this faithless age, a layman who can write so edifying a work. It is marked by rare learning, fine artistic skill, and correct taste; and breathes the firmest faith and the most tender piety. His work is as refreshing as springs of water in a sandy desert... Let every one who can read purchase and read this beautiful Life of one of the most lovely and most favored Saints that have ever been vouchsafed to hallow our carthly pilgrimage." -Brownson's Review.

"The whole introduction shows the hand of a master, and it loses nothing in Mrs. Sadlier's racy and elegant English. It enhances the merit of the work, which, in the Dublin edition, was published without this essential preface. Of the Life itself, we cannot speak too highly. The exquisite character of 'the dear St. Elizabeth,' (as the good Germans have at all times styled her), is brought out with a clearness, a tenderness, and a vigor, which bring tears from the heart. We do not think there is any book of the kind in English, at all to be compared to this Life of Saint Elizabeth."-American Celt.

"We might say much in praise of the narrative and Life of St. Elizabeth, attending which, from the beginning to the end, is a charm which cannot fail to attract and accure the attention of the reader, did not the well known abilities of this distinguished author render it unnecessary..... We cheerfully re-commend the work to our readers."-Pittsburg Catholic.

"This magnificent work of the great French Tribune of true liberty, has at last been translated into English. The name of its Author is a sufficient guarantes for the value of the work. Montalembert is one of the lights of the age-a man who combines rare power of intellect, with unswerving devotion to the cause of liberty and the Ohurch. Let every one who desires to study the spirit of the Middle Ages, read this book."- Catholic Telegraph.
