THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE. MAY 31, 1861.

GREAT-BRITAIN. THE EVANGELIGAL BARON DE CAMIN .- This "unsavory animal," as the Manchester Guardian very wittily called the unprincipled fellow, has appeared again in this neighborhood, and took the Mechanics' Institution; Pendleton; to lecture "on Italy." However, when the bills came out they were headed "Popery the curse of the country." The directors on being informed of this refused him the use of their hall, and the "Baron," and "Baroness," lost the opportunity of enlightening the Protestant public upon the borrors of convents. The Catbolics are indebted again to John Portens, Esq., for his denun-ciation of the rascal to those having the power to let any public places in , the city and neighborhood and such a neighborly act on the part of a Protestant gentleman will not be readily forgotten by his Catholic fellow-citizens.

SHIPS OF WAR FOR THE AMBRICAN STATION .- The state of affairs in the United States has compelled Ministers to strengthen the squadron, under the command of Sir Alexander Milne; and on Friday the Challenger, mounting twenty-two guns; the Rinaldo, a screw sloop, mounting seventeen guns; and the Driver, a paddle-wheel steam sloop, mounting six guns, were commissioned and in all probability will be despatched as soon as ready to the North America and West India Station. In the meantime, other vessels now ready for sea will be ordered off at once to protect British interests. With reference to these movements the Observer says :- " It is pleasant to hear the very earnest and decided prayer of Lord John Russell that we may be able to keep out of these complications. But it will require all our good will, and not a little good steering. The questions of blockade, efficient or non-efficient, of letters of Marque, of free bottoms and free goods, of belligerent rights, of rebellion and revolution, of government de jure and de facto, of trade and navigation, of flags true and false, of enemys and neutrals, will have to be treated with more than usual care and consideration. In the meantime, a very considerable increase is about to be made to the West Indian and North American Station, under a cool and steady commander, and with instructions of more than usual caution and forbearance, becoming our un-doubted strength, to be used in the natural duty of protecting the ships and trade of Great Britain."

REBELLION, PRIVATEBRING AND THE RIGHT OF VISIT. -Some regret has naturally been caused by Lord John Russell's announcement of the determination of the English government to recognize the Southern States of America as the possessors of independent belligerent rights. The decision is certainly a point in favor of the rebels ; and of inclination to go out of the way for the purpose of favoring them there is less than of almost any other feeling that could be named. But a little reflection will show that no other course is open to us, without manifesting a prepossession for the one of the parties to this unhappy quarrel, which would be of little practical advantage to the object of our preference, while it surrounded our own position with embarrassment and danger. The impartial rule that we have laid down for ourselves in matters of this kind is to recognize facts as they are; and it is a very unquestionable and substantial fact that the Southern section of the American republic has declared its independence with more show of legality, though with less moral justification, than most revolutionary movements can boast of, and that it has effected, for a time at least, its complete emancipation from the control of the government at Washington. Whether or not we sympathise with the impulses which have originated this new power, we cannot withhold from it the consideration which was allowed to insurgent Greece in 1824, and which, with the concurrence of the United Staeed themselves, had been conceded a few years previously to the Spanish American republics. At the time of the Treaty of Paris, the government of Washington, sensible of the disadvantage at which it was placed relatively to the great maritime powers of Europe by its want of a large standing navy, refused to adhere to the principle agreed upon by the parties to the treaty, that the issue of letters of marque should be disallowed for all future time, General Cass, who was the organ of communicating and defending this resolution, never anticipating that the time was near when his own country would be placed toward its only enemy in exactly the position in which he apprehended that Great Britain might possibly be placed toward the United States. It has always been a principle stoutly upheld by them, that the flag protects the cargo-in other words, that the goods of an enemy in the vessel of a neutral are not liable to seizure on the high seas in time of war .--This principle has now to be applied to their own embroilment. As, on the one hand, we give both of the sections into which the country is divided the benefit of the fact that they have never renounced the right of privateering, so we shall expect them on both sides to be bound by their often-expressed respect for the flag of a friendly state even when it floats over the property of subjects of a power with which they happen to be at war. The United States have not disclaimed for themselves, or denied for others, the right of visit and search as appertaining to belligerents. It is the liability of vessels of their country to be boarded and examined in the time of peace, for the purpose of removing or confirming suspicion of their being engaged in the slave trade, which the Government of Washington has long and successfully resisted. The right of a power engaged in war to visit a ship bearing a neutral flag, for the double purpose of verifying its pretension to the nationality it assumes, and preventing it from conveying contraband of war into the port to which it is bound, has never, that we are aware of, been disputed .- Manchester Guardian. In discussing the "Right of Search," the Times, on the 7th instant, says :- "It was the claim put forward by the United States to resist not only a right of search, but also a right of visit, in the case of a vessel which chose to hoist the American flag. This insistance of the Americans caused a principle favorable to piracy to become part of the Maritime Law of the world. By that law the American marino must now be ruled. The merchant ships which will trade between Europe and the Confederate States have only to hoist an English or a French flag, and the great war steamers of the United States navy must, in obedience to the law their own Government has in other cases enforced, allow them to pass. Their holds may be full of warlike materials, they may be crammed with the Armstrong guns now being bought up at Liverpool, but if the tri-colour is flying at the mizen, the Min-nesota cannot fire a shot to bring one of those vessels to at sea without peril of a war with Frauce. The Americans have fixed this law, which was, before their time, loose and floating and undefined; and they will now find it unexpectedly turned against themselves. It will, if we mistake not, greatly modify the advantages which the North might reasonably expect to obtain from their possession of a regular navy.

A SPIRITED BET.-A man writes from Union, S. O., May 9, 1861. I will bet you-200 bales of goodcotton against $10,000 or its equivalent, that the South will succeed in establishing her independence. I will bet you $5,000 in gold that the government of the Confederate States is recognized by England and France in less than six months from date.] will bet you $1,000 on the result of each battle fought between the North and South, where the forces engaged are more than 500 on each side, without reference to the relative strength. I will bet you my plantation and 100 negroes, that Washington city will be, in the hands of the Confederate States in less than ninety days after the commencement of hostilities. Communications confidential. Address, box 101 Unionville, South Carolina."

NORTHERN PATRIOTISM. - The Boston Journal says : -There is much complaint in the newspapers in regard to the clothing and provisioning of the Pennsylvania troops. These complaints seem to be well founded. It is a fact that regiments were supplied with shoes, the inner soles of which were nothing but pine shavings! and the rest of the shoes were made to match. Of course such articles would last but a short time. The soldiers were also furnished with pants of such poor quality that they did not wear over four days, and the blankets were on a par with the rest of the outfit. The Philadelphia papers publish drawings of these rotten garments, and it is to be hoped the swindling contractors will be brought to account for their misdeeds. A Washington correspondent of the Harrisburg Patriot says :--" There are a great many Pennsylvania troops in the city. They are known as the 'ragged army of Pennsylvania.' It is a disgrace to our great State that her volunteers are so poorly equipped. There is something wrong at head-quarters. The Legislature appropri-ated $500,000. The provisions furnished at the State camp have not cost one-fifth of that amount.

ELLSWORTH'S ZOUAVES .-- A Massachusetts volunteer, writing home to his friends, gives the Ellsworth Zouaves a "first rate notice" as follows :-- "I open my letter to drop you a word in regard to Ellsworth's Zouaves. They arrived Thursday night, and were quartered at the Capitol. Yesterday they had be-come well enough acquainted with Washington to have a few fights, and last night they cut loose entirely. Such a parcel of roughs you never beheld. Those that got outside the lines got drunk, and, of course, had a few rows, and those who could be kept in the quarters fought among themselves. I saw about three hundred of them on the avenue last evening, and every one of them seemed to be on the same mission, viz : "spiling for a fight." Saw one of them go up to a man, take away his umbrella, (it was raining) and knocked him over into the gutter because he remonstrated. It is no use to try to keep them in quarters. Heard one of them say to the guard at the entrance, "Say, feller, I am a goin' to leave this ranch." Guard-"Can't go without a pass, sir." Z-" What do yer say ? want a pass, do yer, well, here it is," upon which he drew off and hit him one of the regular New York firemen blows, procure TICKETS at the following Rates :-knocking him flat on the ground, and before the guard could get there the man was over the fence and off. They seem to fear no one except their gallant little Colonel, and I notice he carries with him all the time a bowie knife about two feet long. I hear they are to be sent out to camp as soon as possible. It will never do to keep them here. If these fellows are a sample of Ellsworth's, what must Wilson's be? I am afraid we shall stand a poorer chance with these fellows than with the Southerners. Hope to see them have a chance to let themselves loose legitimately before long.

Missouri is decidedly progressive. A bill before its Legislature contains this encouraging proviso : Any body speaking disrespectfully of the Governor or Legislature will be tried by court martial.

THE SECESSION OF NORTH CAROLINA-PASSAGE OF THE ORDNANCES .- The report that the state convention of North Carolina had unanimously passed an ordinance of secession is confirmed. We find a full report of the proceedings in the Richmond Examiner. The ordinance passed immediately after the convention assembled on Monday.

THE CHRONOLOGY OF SECRESSION.

North Carolina is the eleventh in chronological order of the rebellious states. The following table shows the dates of the passage of ordinances of secession :

- 1. South Caroli-December 20.
- 2. Mississipi-January 9. 3. Alabama-January 11.

The low price at which they have been issued places them within the reach of all This is an admirable likeness of His Holiness, mild, gentle and benign-boking, and we doubt not that the publishers' anticipations of a large sale will be fully realized; for what Catholic family would be without so pleasing a remembrance of one of the most beloved and revered Pontiffs. CALDWELL & CO., 37 Park Row, New York.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been preationd. ATER'S CATIANTIC FILLS have been pre-pared with the utmost skill which the medical pro-fession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such danger-ous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficiency and a power to unrout disease hereout an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By re-moving the obstructions of the internal organs and moving the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take they with impunity. If they children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no hurm. Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tot-tering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return ; see his claimny features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could sug-gest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he tee here here coaled through our warr nuesdo of his bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with hiniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, far, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured hin. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose grawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering and tovent of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again — the roses blossom on her check, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the FILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of child-hood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day. Have you the less serious symptoms of these dis-tempers, they are the casier cured. Jaundice. Have you the less serious symptoms of these dis-tempers, they are the casier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the deraugements which these PiLLS rapidly cure. Take them perse-veringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, danger-ous diseases they cure, which afflict so many mil-lions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old — they must burrow in the brutes and in the of oid — they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box — 5 boxes for $1. Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYNE'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently renery known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidate to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its feature supropus more and more over all his forme fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PRETORAL now; it has the is taking the charact ratio of the relation in the stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But CHERRY PECTOFAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accom-plishes more by prevention than cure. The count-less colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Group, Bronchitis, Hoarneness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irri-tations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PRETORAL if taken in season. Every emily chould have it by them and thow will find it family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home. Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. may nave before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DE. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

No medicine is more prompt in is action in cases of Cholera, Cholera Morbus, &c., than Perry Davis' Pain Killer. It is the acknowledged antidote which seldom fails if applied in its early symptoms No family should be without a bottle of it always on hand.

The stain on linen from the use of the Pain Killer is easily removed by washing it in alcohol. Davis' Pain Killer seems particularly efficacious in cholera morbus, bowel complaints, and other dis-enses to which the natives of Burmah, from their unwholesome style of living, are peculiarly exposed. It is a valuable antidote to the poison of Centipedes, Scorpions, hornets, &c.

THE TROOPS BECOMING RESTLESS .- It is evident that something must be done with our troopsthough drilled and exercised continually, they are beginning to be restless, and somewhat undisciplined. In one or two camps there is great complaint of the rations. The 7th Regiment last night had a the camp, and over which was uttered mournful lamentations. Col., Ellsworth's Zouaves complain terribly, and several serious troubles have already occurred. The third New Jersey Regiment complain that their Quartermaster does not properly attend to his department. They breakfasted on sour, bread and coffee, minus sugar this morning. There are quite a number on the sick list in this regiment, the good of all that I mention these cases.

DIPTHERIA.

We are informed that a sure specific for that DREAD-RD DISBASE, DiPTHERIA and sore throat, now prevailing to such an alarming extent, is Perry Davis' Pain Killer. It is used as a gargle to the throat, mixed with water-two parts water and one Pain Killer. It will quickly cure the disease, and never fail, if applied in time. As soon as the throat shows any signs of soreness, gargle with Pain Killer as above prescribed, and in bad cases, use it freely to bathe the mock funeral over their Junk, which was buried near neck. This should be made known to the world, and we advise every one afflicted to give it one trial. It is sold by medicine dealers generally. Read what DR. WALTEN writes us from Coshocton, Ohio: "I am happy to inform you that the PAIN KILLER cures this new discase, Diptheria or Sore Throat, that is prevailing to so alarming an extent in this section of the country. On Walnut Creek, Holmes County, they use scarcely any other remedy, and it has attributable, they say, to eating too much salt meat. never been known to fail in a single instance when there can be no excuse for such abuses, and it is for used in time. This fact should be made known to the world.
