

The Concert of Sacred Music given in the Academic Hall beneath the church of the Gesù was a great success, both as regards the rendering of the great work of Rossini, and the attendance of the public. The orchestra was admirable, and the singing was worthy of all praise.—Let us hope that encouraged by this success, the promoters of this Concert may be induced to favor us with another in the same style.

The "Forty Hours" adoration of the Most Holy Sacrament, began in Williamstown, Glengarry, on Sunday the 13th inst., and closed on the following Tuesday. His Lordship of Kingston sang the Grand Mass, and carried the Sacred Host in the procession. During the "Devotion," the Bishop Fathers Clane, McDonald, Masterson, Laval, Barrett and McCarthy were ever in the confessional. Eight hundred and ninety eight persons received Holy Communion, eighty five of whom were confirmed.—Com.

During the late Episcopal Visitation in Stormont and Glengarry, the Bishop of Kingston administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to eight hundred and sixty-five persons.—Com.

The reason assigned for the delay in the execution of the convict Whelan is this: that thereby time may be given to allow the passing of a Bill to authorize execution in private, as is now done in England.

RICHELEAU COMPANY.—On and after Monday, the 21st September, the Steamers of this company will leave their respective wharves as follows:—The steamer Quebec, for Quebec, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at six o'clock; the steamer Montreal, for Quebec, every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at six o'clock.

DISTRESS AT RED RIVER.—Under date August 11th, the Bishop of St. Boniface has published a letter invoking the sympathies of the charitable in behalf of the unhappy colonists of Red River. It seems that their harvest is an utter failure, that they will not even get from the ground in the autumn the quantity they sowed in the spring. "Within the whole colony not one bushel of grain will be harvested." The cause of this dire calamity is the destruction of the growing crops of grasshoppers.

We have to acknowledge the receipt of the first number of a new, and very neatly got up Catholic journal, published at Detroit under the title of The Western Catholic. We hail the appearance of every additional journal devoted to the interests of Catholicity, as a proof of the progress that our holy religion is making in the U. States; and it is therefore no mere empty compliment when we assure our Western contemporary that we wish him with all our hearts, a long and prosperous career.

THE IRISH BAZAAR.

The Ladies of Charity of the Irish Congregations, beg to inform the public, that their "Twentieth Annual Bazaar," will be held in the new St. Patrick's Hall, on Wednesday, the 7th of October, and following days.

As many persons anxious to promote the success of the bazaar, and yet not able to make lists themselves, are in the habit of sending in pieces of work and objects of virtu to the bazaar while being held, the Ladies beg to suggest that such persons would have the goodness to send their donations to the St. Patrick's Asylum, as soon as possible, in order that they be placed in the hands of young ladies who will open lists upon them, and thus turn them to the best advantage.

The Rev. Director of the Bazaar, who is also Treasurer of the St. Patrick's Asylum, assures us that the funds at his disposal are lower at the close of the present financial year (August 31st) than they have ever been since he got charge of them some ten years ago. Up to the present he had always more or less of a balance in his favor at the close of the year—while this year closes with a considerable balance against him.

We therefore request the Irish Congregations generally to take an active part in the present bazaar. All who are in the habit of making lists will, we trust, do so this year without fail: we trust also that many new collectors will be added to the number of the old. There is of necessity an occasional falling off in the number of the old collectors, were no new ones to come in there would in a short time be a great falling off in this grand and necessary work of charity. New collectors will therefore we hope come to the assistance of the old, and unite with them in their common efforts for the destitute Irish orphans.—For such we would bespeak a kind and generous reception: they have up to the present been in the habit of receiving such reception—ever since the bazaar has been established—from persons of every creed, denomination and nationality. All feel that destitute orphans must be clothed and fed, and that the Institution which does so, which keeps them from the streets, from the haunts of vice, and instils into their young minds principles of Christian morality is a common blessing, and all cheerfully come to the aid of such an Institution.

The history of the St. Patrick's bazaar establishes this truth—we therefore the more confidently appeal to the citizens of Montreal in general, knowing that our appeal in behalf of the orphans will not be in vain.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies of Charity,
CATHERINE AUSTIN, Sec.

BROTHER ANTHONY.—The many friends of this amiable and zealous member of the Order of Christian Brothers will learn with regret that his labours have been transferred from Quebec to the sister city, where he has been raised to the honourable position of Director. Six years ago Brother Anthony came here from New York to superintend the Commercial Academy which was being founded. Six years of earnest and fruitful labour in the noble work of education—instruction tempered by christian principles and blended with practical piety;—six years of the most assiduous devotion to his pupils, dignified by an unvarying patience in communicating information, have endeared Brother Anthony to a large section of the citizens of Quebec. To know him was to love and esteem him, and the Academy which he established and so long directed became in his hands a solid and permanent institution, an ornament to the city, and a pure fountain of truth and intelligence to the children of the St. Patrick's Congregation. Brother Anthony is a valuable accession to the intellectual circles of Montreal, and we feel certain will soon make his good qualities felt in the larger sphere of usefulness to which he has been removed. He leaves the Commercial Academy in the hands of Brother Potamian, his able assistant for several years past, who will not fail to keep its prestige bright and worthy of its first director. Wherever Brother Anthony goes to labour in his high and glorious mission as a christian teacher, he has our warmest wishes for his welfare and success.—[Quebec Mercury 17th.

A bazaar on behalf of the Nazareth Asylum and institution under the direction of the Sisters of Charity, for the education of poor and blind children will be given on Monday Tuesday and Wednesday next. A large collection of useful and ornamental articles will be on sale. On the first day the little children will give a serenade in the hall of the Asylum, and the blind children will go through some interesting exercises. The assistance of the charitably disposed is kindly requested.

THE PARK.—The City Council on Wednesday night carried a resolution which will probably lead at last to the acquisition of a large part of the top of the mountain and of the plateau at the foot of it for the purposes of a Park the subject was urged as will be seen by our report of the proceeding with considerable eloquence by Messrs Deville, David and Bernard it seemed as a project to commend itself to the council though Councillor Rodden spoke in favor of some modifications.—[Mont. Herald.

THREE PAIRS HORSES BURNED.—About a quarter to twelve o'clock Tuesday night 15th inst., the alarm sounded from box No. 8, for fire in a row of stables in rear of Rapi's Hotel. St. Joseph street. A high wind was blowing at the time and a few minutes after the discovery of the fire, it had spread from Mr. Rapi's stables to those of Mr. Parkin, dyer, and was rapidly seizing the surrounding wooden buildings when the reels arrived on the ground. By the time the first stream was laid the fire had assumed very alarming proportions and appearance; the immense volumes of flames fed by the hay and combustible material of the buildings, darting high into the air where it was caught by the strong wind and blown about the other buildings in a manner which threatened their instant destruction. Mr. McKenna's property in St. Henry Street situated to leeward of the fire was in imminent danger and one of his houses a large brick building, was several times on fire. But now the streams were laid and the firemen with a plentiful supply of water began to battle the flames and it was quickly evident notwithstanding the dense volumes of blinding smoke and the heat that the latter would soon have to succumb. In about an hour the fire was completely subdued. At one time the appearance of the flames was very terrifying and in addition to the confusion the neighbouring streets were impassable from the quantity of smoke in them. The firemen must have suffered terribly from it. The greatest credit is due to the fellows for the manner in which they went at the flames.

The most serious part of the fire has now to be related. In an interior stable in rear of the one which first took fire, were three valuable entire horses which were burnt. Every effort was made to get the animals out, but as they had actually been brought through the burning building, it was an impossibility to get them to a place of safety before the flames surrounded them. In fact, the stables were very large and intricate and no better than so many match-boxes. It is a pity that no safer place was chosen to put the valuable stock in. Perhaps it will be a lesson to others to be more select. As a general rule, old-fashioned wooden stables are not worthy of any confidence, and the man that puts his horse in one should sit up all night by its side with the halter in his hand. The horses destroyed were, the famous horse "Emigrant," 5 years old, the property of the Huntingdon Agricultural Society, and imported two years ago at a cost of $1,700; a young Clydesdale horse, two years old, also the property of the Society, and imported only six months ago. He cost $900. The third horse, "Old Bashanona," another Clydesdale, was the property of the Bashanona Agricultural Society, and has been two years in the country. He was valued at $1,100. The loss of the animals will be a source of regret to the farming community from where they hail.

Mr. McKenna desires to express his thanks to the firemen, particularly to No. 2, for their exertions in saving his property from being destroyed. It had a very narrow escape.

MORE BURNING OF HORSES.—The burning of three most valuable exhibition horses on Tuesday night, at Rapi's hotel, St. Joseph street, was followed, last night, by the burning of two more, in the stables in rear of Meunier's Glasgow hotel, St. Lawrence street. Now, it will naturally be asked. What is the cause of this destruction by fire in the dead of night, of valuable animals, and the risking of the safety of a neighborhood. We believe there is little doubt that the true answer would be, drink. It has been rightly informed, the firemen themselves could have saved those three horses who perished at Rapi's, had the officers of the brigade been at first able to meet with any sober person who would have told them the true state of affairs. But all with whom they came in contact were in liquor if not positively drunk! The same was the case last night. The firemen rescued twenty two out of twenty-four horses; but those more immediately connected with the animals were, stumbling about in a state of intoxication, while the firemen, with the flames around the stables, were playing upon the fire, and getting out or assisting to get out the horses. We trust a searching investigation will be made into the cause of each of these fires; and more particularly as to whether responsible parties were sober or drunk. This is due to the owners of the horses as well as the public. We know of nothing that could prove more damaging to future exhibitions of stock, than this evident hazard which their owners run in sending them here, under the charge of unreliable parties, who apparently make up their compulsory abstinence through the day, by indulging at night to such an extent as not to be able to attend to the animals in charge, should an emergency arise; if, indeed, that emergency had not been occasioned by their own carelessness.—[Witness, 17th Sept.

There is a storm brewing on the school question. Some time ago Mr. Flynn, the Catholic representative in the Government, presented a petition from Richmond county praying for an Act to provide for the establishment of separate denominational schools. In the House, the Education Committee reported, declining to give any opinion on the subject. Mr. Flynn announced his intention to introduce a Bill in accordance with the prayer of the petition. Mr. Wilkins said he hoped no such Bill would be introduced, as it would keep the House two or three weeks longer in session. Mr. Flynn, persisted, and after some debate obtained permission to introduce the Bill. This is the subject which, above all others, the Government desired to avoid. It will cause a long and probably angry discussion, and will not likely promote harmony among the Repealers.—[Halifax correspondence of the Globe.

UPPER CANADA COLLEGE.—We are happy to see that journal throughout the Province of Ontario, has taken up arms against that plundering establishment in Toronto, which is called the Upper Canada College. Its vast robberies and plunderings in the Province, need only to be known to excite the indignation of every honest man in the Province. It is a monstrously voracious parasite fastened upon our educational system, and unless the Government of Ontario take action early in the coming session to stop its plunderings by appointing a Parliamentary Commission to inquire into and report upon its misdeeds, the Government itself need expect no mercy from any party whatever. The country is becoming thoroughly aroused to the enormous robberies perpetrated by and for the Upper Canada College, and they will not be satisfied till it is put in its proper position, or justice be done the whole of the government schools throughout the Province, all of which have been most shamefully robbed for the benefit of the sharks who will cluster around and levy upon the Upper Canada College. It appears really to be little better than a den of thieves.—[Hamilton Times.

The above is strong language, but is fully borne out by the facts of the case. The only means of satisfying public opinion is to abolish the whole concern, and give the endowment which properly does not belong to it, to the institutions upon which it has too long unjustly preyed. We sincerely trust that the first day of the next session of the Ontario Legislature will see a motion put on the paper to inquire into this abominable vampire so long fattening on the vitals of the Province and still getting more and more insolent every year.—[British Whig.

HIGHLANDERS IN CANADA.—Within four hours ride of Montreal is a colony from twenty to twenty five thousand Highlanders. The county of Glengarry, on the eastern frontier of Upper Canada is full of them. Macdonalds and Macdonells, Macleodens, Macintoshs and Macraes are thick as leaves in Vallambrosa. It is a saying here that if you meet a Glengarry man and forget his name you are always safe in calling him "Mr. Mac." In one part of the country lately, in a jury of twelve, there were nine Macdonalds, and six of these were Donald Macdonalds. The Glengarry Highlanders enjoy the reputation of being a brave, industrious and prosperous people. Every man owns the house he lives in and the land he tills. There is not much of accumulated wealth, but the people have abundance for themselves and their families, and are content. In the back settlement they retain their own language, sing their Gaelic songs, and have their Gaelic preaching every Sunday. About half of them are Catholic and half Protestant. The Glengarry men are renowned in that part of Canada for their size and strength. It is said that the townships of Kenyon and Lochiel alone could turn out a thousand Highlanders—not a man of them under six feet in his stockings. I hear many people speak with great admiration of the regiment mustered in Glengarry for the defence of the country during the Fenian excitement in 1866. Macleannan, one of the best athletes in America, is a Glengarry man. His namesake, Mr. Macleannan, of the customs here has promised to go through the country with me on my return from the States; but say I am to claim kindred with my gigantic namesake in Glengarry I must either carry proofs or add a cubit to my stature. The Highlanders in Canada have produced more than muscle, not to speak of Wm Macdougall O.B. Commissioner of Public Works the Hon. Malcolm Cameron, politician, speaker and temperance reformer and others. Sir J. A. McDonald—who has ruled Canada for sixteen years—is a Highlander, as Highland as Mull or Lochaber. Let it not be said, then, that the Scottish Highlander, when placed in circumstances to call his powers into activity, cannot hold his own against all comers.—[Glasgow Herald.

In the cases of Enright, Duggan and Ealeson it is understood that an application for their discharge on bail at the instance of Mr. O'Reilly have been sent to the Governor General for approval.

Messrs Ferris, O'Neill and Tasse have been appointed Penitentiary Directors under the Act passed last session of Parliament.

The Halifax Colonist understands that a further correspondence is going on between Lieut Governor Doyle and Mr. M. J. Wilkins, respecting the newspaper report of his speech.
