PROVINCIAL BIBLIOGRAPHY.

The following are a few additions of old and new books relating to the provinces, which are either not noted in the already published "New Brunswick Bibliography," or which are noted in that book and concerning which further information is given. It is hoped that readers of THE MAGAZINE generally will aid as contributors to this department from month to month. In the case of books which relate to New Brunswick, the notes sent should be in the line already mentioned—new books or information about old ones and their authors. In respect to the other Maritime Provinces, of which there is no published bibliography, all information is of value, especially that relating to old and rare works.

In sending notes of books, please follow the style given below. Quote the name of the author as it is given on the title page, adding any other information as to his personality and work. Copy the title page itself, with date, describe binding in brief form, give the number of pages and mention maps or illustrations. To this necessary description may be appended any further facts as to the character of the book and its relation to the Maritime Provinces.
