

C. M. Carson, '98, has been appointed lecturer in chemistry. Charlie will be remembered by the seniors as vice-president of the Lit. in '98.

Ross Gillespie, '00, is in the actuarial department of the Manufacturer's Life, and D. E. Kilgour, '00, is helping out the corresponding department in the North American Life. We expect great changes in the cost of insurance this year. J. Fisher, '00, is with the former company, having his own troubles with letters in W. Indian Spanish.

ON THE SIDE.

The following brief conversation was overheard as Varsity I.'s were going through some stiff practice. An innocent, but very inquisitive Freshman had come up to Billy M—, who was standing on the touch-line.

"Say!" he asked, "would you please tell me who that fair-haired chap is—playing half-back? He's a corker!"

"That's 'Feather' Aylesworth," was the reply.

"'Feathers!' What do they call him 'Feathers' for?"

Billy looked at him in amazement.

"Well, you don't suppose they'd call him 'down' do you!"

Freshie slunk away abashed.
