

The Canadian Trade Commissioner Service

is Canada's most comprehensive network of international business professionals.

tradecommissioner.gc.ca

→ Preparation for international markets

We can help you assess your readiness to compete globally and improve your international business strategy.

→ Market potential assessment

We'll provide you with the inside information and market intelligence you need to seize opportunities and succeed in your target market.

→ Qualified contacts

With a presence in more than 150 cities worldwide, we're everywhere you do business. The Canadian Trade Commissioner Service has the contacts and network you need.

→ Problem solving

Contacts, credibility and experience are crucial when you're doing business in a foreign market. Turn to the Canadian Trade Commissioner Service for advice and support in resolving market access problems and other international business challenges.