

7. Each Party shall domestically promote public knowledge of its gender equality laws, regulations, policies and practices.

Article N bis-02: International Agreements

1. Each Party reaffirms its commitment to effectively implement the obligations under the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 18 December 1979.

2. Each Party reaffirms its commitment to implement the obligations under other international agreements addressing gender equality or women's rights to which it is a party.

Article N bis-03: Cooperation Activities

1. The Parties acknowledge the benefit of sharing their respective experiences in designing, implementing, monitoring and strengthening policies and programs to encourage women's participation in national and international economies.

2. Accordingly, the Parties shall carry out cooperation activities designed to improve the capacity and conditions for women, including workers, businesswomen and entrepreneurs, to access and fully benefit from the opportunities created by this Agreement. These activities shall be carried out with inclusive participation of women.

3. Cooperation activities shall be carried out on issues and topics agreed upon by the Parties through the interaction of their respective government institutions, businesses, labour unions, education and research organizations, other non-governmental organizations, and their representatives, as appropriate.

4. Areas of cooperation may include:

- (a) developing programs to promote women's full participation and advancement in society by encouraging capacity-building and skills enhancement of women at work, in business, and at senior levels in all sectors of society (including on corporate boards);
- (b) improving women's access to, and participation and leadership in, science, technology and innovation, including education in science, technology, engineering, mathematics and business;
- (c) promoting financial inclusion and education as well as promoting access to financing and financial assistance;
