

BIOGRAPHY

S. MORLEY SCOTT

Mr. Scott was born in St. John, N.B. in 1896, and had his schooling there, in Ottawa and in Vancouver. After service in the first World War, he graduated from the University of British Columbia in 1921. He attended Toronto and Oxford Universities and received a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. He taught history in the University of Michigan from 1923 until 1942, when he joined the Department of External Affairs. He has served in Ottawa, London, Berlin, New Delhi, Tokyo and Seoul, and at the National Defence College in Kingston, Ontario. His last appointment abroad was as High Commissioner for Canada to Pakistan. He has served as head of the United Nations Division in the Department of External Affairs, and was a member of the Canadian Delegation to the seventh session of the General Assembly in 1951-1952. His knowledge of South East Asia and the Far East will be an important asset for the Delegation.
