

After further debate, the question being put on the said motion, it was agreed to.

Accordingly, the said bill was read the second time and considered in Committee of the Whole;

And the House continuing in Committee;

Pursuant to Special Order adopted Monday, February 20, 1967, the sitting was suspended between 7.00 o'clock and 8.00 o'clock p.m.

The House resumed consideration in Committee of the Whole of Bill C-220, An Act to make provision for appeals to an Immigration Appeal Board in respect of certain matters relating to immigration, and further progress having been made and reported, the Committee obtained leave to sit again at the next sitting of the House.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Mr. McIlraith, seconded by Mr. Laing, it was ordered,—That the Report of the Department of External Affairs tabled on January 28, 1966, be referred to the Standing Committee on External Affairs.

By unanimous consent, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole to consider a certain proposed resolution to amend Bill C-267, An Act to amend the Judges Act.

(In the Committee)

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved,—That it is expedient to amend the proposed measure to amend the Judges Act, Bill C-267, now before the House by substituting the words "Eighteen judges and junior judges of the County Courts" for the words "Seventeen judges and junior judges of the County Courts" in lines seven and eight of page 5 of the said Bill, under the heading "British Columbia".

Resolution to be reported.

The said resolution was reported and concurred in and referred to the Committee of the Whole to be appointed to consider Bill C-267, An Act to amend the Judges Act.
