It is the practice of the Department to portray on maps only the official form of the name provided by the Canadian Permanent Committee on Geographical Names and as approved by the Provinces or Territories. An exception to this practice is that certain features of national significance are shown with names in both French and English language forms (e.g. Fleuve St. Laurent/St. Lawrence River).

VICTORIA COAST GUARD RADIO STATION

Question No. 5,260—Mr. Skelly:

1. Is the Station Manager of the Victoria Coast Guard Radio station retiring in December of 1983?

2. Will the Department fill this position with a full-time manager through the normal competition procedure and, if not, does the Department intend to fill the position with an acting or temporary manager?

3. If the Department intends to appoint an acting or temporary manager, is the Department beginning to implement a program which would see the closure of Coast Guard radio stations at Victoria, Comox, Alert Bay and Bull Harbour?

4. Is there a committee of the Department of Transport examining the closure of Coast Guard radio stations in B.C. and, if so (a) what are its terms of reference (b) who sits on the committee?

Hon. Lloyd Axworthy (Minister of Transport): 1. Yes.

2. Yes.

3. Not applicable.

4. There is no committee of the Department formed for the express purpose of examining the closure of Coast Guard Radio Stations in British Columbia.

(a) There is, however, a committee with Terms of Reference to: "Prepare an area master plan for the updating of the present Maritime Mobile Radio Communications Services provided by the Coast Guard Radio Stations on the West Coast of Canada."

The master plan is being developed by a team of regional and headquarters officials from the Canadian Coast Guard's Telecommunications and Electronics function.

(b) The team submits periodic reports to a Steering Committee consisting of:

Chairperson:	Regional Director General, Western Coast Guard Region
Members:	Director, Telecommunications and Electronics, Coast Guard, Ottawa
	Director General, Aids and Waterways, Coast Guard, Ottawa
	Director General, Ship Safety, Coast Guard, Ottawa
Ex officio:	Regional Manager, Telecommunications and Electronics, Western Coast Guard Region
